
April 20, 2008 • Fifth Sunday of Easter

Pastor's Column

Rev. Michael Ratajczak
michaelr@stmoside.org
758-4100 x100

Lift High the Cross of Christ!

As we continue our celebration of the Resurrection in these great Fifty Days, we are mindful that the only way to Resurrection is through the Cross!

The Cross is the major symbol of Christians. It is on the foundation of the Cross that our faith is built.

The Cross, and Jesus' approach to it, shows us the way in which we are to approach our crosses whatever they may be.

Jesus had a choice. He could either embrace his Cross or run away from it.

In faith, trusting in the Father, he embraced the Cross. He did not fight it, resist it, or run away from it. He surrendered.

In that faithful surrender and embrace of the Cross, evil was transformed and changed into Good News—the Resurrection—new life, new hope, and new beginnings for the entire universe!

We human beings spend so much time running away from the crosses that come into our lives. We deny them. We pretend and lie to others that they do not exist. We medicate them. We abandon them. In all these ways, though, they are still there!

The suffering, the pain, the illness, the death, or the sin is still very much present. The more we try to ignore or run away from our crosses, the more ill health, physically, emotionally, and spiritually we cause for ourselves and others. It is only in our embrace of the cross that transformation and healing take place.

When we acknowledge and embrace our crosses and lift them high in faith, they become the very instruments that bring new life, new hope, and new beginnings. The instrument of death becomes the instrument of life.

M. Scott Peck writes, "I cannot be any more specific about the methodology of love than to quote these words of an old priest who spent many years in the battle: 'There are dozens of ways to deal with evil and several ways to conquer it. All of them are facets of the truth that the only ultimate way to conquer evil is to let it be smothered within a willing, living human being. When it is absorbed there like blood in a sponge or a spear into one's heart, it loses its power and goes no further.' The healing of evil—scientifically or otherwise—can be accomplished only by the love of individuals. A willing sacrifice is required...I do not know how this occurs. But I know that it does...Whenever this happens there is a slight shift in the balance of power in the world."

As we celebrate Resurrection in these great Fifty Days, let us continue to embrace our crosses, unite them to Christ, and lift high the Cross of Christ!

Fr. Mike