Father's Day Quotable Quotes

"My grandfather always said that living is like licking honey off a thorn."

—Louis Adamic

"I talk and talk and talk, and I haven't taught people in 50 years what my father taught by example in one week."

—Mario Cuomo

"A king, realizing his incompetence, can either delegate or abdicate his duties. A father can do neither. If only sons could see the paradox, they would understand the dilemma."

—Marlene Dietrich

"My father always told me, 'Find a job you love and you'll never have to work a day in your life.'"

—Jim Fox

"A father is a banker provided by nature."

—French Proverb

"My father didn't tell me how to live; he lived, and let me watch him do it."

—Clarence Budington Kelland

"When I was a kid, I said to my father one afternoon, 'Daddy, will you take me to the zoo?' He answered, 'If the zoo wants you, let them come and get you.'"

—Jerry Lewis

"People see Archie Bunker everywhere. Particularly girls; poor girls, rich girls, all kinds of girls are always coming up to me and telling me that Archie is just like their Dad."

—Carroll O'Connor

"Small boy's definition of Father's Day: It's just like Mother's Day only you don't spend so much."

—Anonymous

"A father is a guy who has snapshots in his wallet where his money used to be."

—Anonymous

"By the time a man realized that maybe his father was right, he usually has a son who thinks he's wrong."

—Charles Wadsworth

"For thousands of years, father and son have stretched wistful hands across the canyon of time, each eager to help the other to his side, but neither quite able to desert the loyalties of his contemporaries. The relationship is always changing and, hence, always fragile; nothing endures except the sense of difference."

—Alan Valentine

Happy Father's Day to all Fathers living and deceased!
