Underneath the Economic Crisis: A Crisis of Values

As we celebrate the Resurrection of our brother, Jesus, we are mindful that this event brings to us new hope, new life, and new beginnings.

This is not ethereal or "pie in the sky." This event is real and it brings forth divine energy that helps us to re-imagine and re-create our lives, and our world.

In our present economic realities, we need direction to help us in the way of re-imagining and re-creating the ways in which we live, and to decipher what are the important realities of life.

I share with you this article that appeared in the March 2010 edition of AARP Bulletin by Jim Wallis, which will, hopefully, help all of us to re-imagine and re-create our world from a Gospel perspective.

F. Mike

Celebration of the Eucharist During the Flu Season

Several people have approached me about the need to take special precautions regarding human contact during the Liturgy in the flu season.

Everyone is reminded that the "holding of hands" during the Lord's Prayer is not a requirement. It has always been an option for the members of the assembly. The sign of peace can be given in a variety of ways: the handshake, a hug, or a bow to the people around you. During Communion, drinking the Precious Blood from the common Chalice has always been an option for the members of the assembly.

We will continue to do what we do, but I would ask that everyone simply use common sense.

If you have any kind of cold or flu symptoms, you may avoid holding hands during the Our Father. Instead, raise and open your hands in the "prayer position." At the Sign of Peace, you may refrain from the handshake. Instead give a gentle, respectful bow to the people around you. During Communion, you may choose to refrain from sharing in the Cup.

Actually, these options are open to all members of the assembly at all times, not just during the flu season.

I ask that all members of the assembly be respectful in the various choices that individuals will make in regard to these liturgical options.

Thank You!—Rev. Michael Ratajczak

EASTER

An Easter Prayer

O God, who for our redemption gave your only begotten Son to death on the Cross, and by his glorious resurrection has delivered us from the power of our enemy: Grant that we who celebrate with joy the day of our Lord's resurrection, may be raised from the death of sin by your life-giving Spirit. Grant us so to die daily to sin, that we may evermore live with him in the joy of his resurrection, empowered and transformed by your grace in and among us.

O Lord, so stir up in your church, indeed in each of us, that Spirit of adoption and reconciliation that is made possible by your grace revealed in Jesus the Christ, that we being renewed in both body and mind, may worship and serve you in sincerity and truth. We pray this in the name of the same Jesus Christ our Lord who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

—Adapted from
The Book of Common Prayer

An Easter Hymn

Good Christians all, rejoice and sing!
Now is the triumph of our King!
To all the world glad news we bring:
alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

The Lord of life is risen today!
Sing songs of praise along his way;
let all the earth rejoice and say:
alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Praise we in songs of victory that love, that life which cannot die,
and sing with hearts uplifted high:
alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Your name we bless, O risen Lord,
and sing today with one accord
the life laid down, the life restored:
alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

CHRISTIAN STEWARDSHIP

Attitude of Gratitude

Since the birth of my youngest grandchild, Ava, I have made every effort to see her every 4-6 weeks, even though she lives in northern California. Time and life are precious and children grow up so fast, that this effort has been a gift to me ~ and to her!

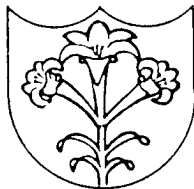

Each time I visit, or she comes here, I have a special little gift (or two or three) and Ava takes special delight in seeing her surprises.

On my last visit, rather than asking to see her 'surprises' on the drive from the airport, Ava proceeded to tell me what she had for me! She was SO excited to describe my surprises from her, which consisted of her favorite books and toys...her first fruits.

I was very touched by this display of generosity as it showed this precious little three-year old now had a true grasp of unconditional love. She was more excited to give to someone she loved, rather than to receive.

God gave us His Son, who died to give us eternal life. What a precious gift! As we enter the Easter season, let us remember all the events of Lent and Holy Week. As we rejoice in the benefits we receive, let us also rejoice in giving.

Managing the special gifts God has given us is the core of Christian stewardship. This means bringing the strength of our faith into all of life. It is not a program. It is a way of life. As God has given to us, so should we return God's gifts with gratitude. Giving always feels better than receiving!

Lord God, you alone are the source of every good gift, of the vast array of our universe, and the mystery of each human life.

We praise you and thank you for your great power and your tender, faithful love.

Everything we are and everything we have are your gifts; and after having created us, you have given us into the keeping of your son, Jesus Christ.

Fill our minds with His truth and our hearts with His love. In His spirit, may we be bonded together into a community of faith, a parish family, caring people.

In the name and spirit of Jesus, we commit ourselves to be good stewards of the gifts entrusted to us, to share our time, our talents, and our material and spiritual gifts as an outward sign of the treasure we hold in Jesus.

In His holy name we pray, Amen.

Divine Mercy Sunday

The Second Sunday of Easter is observed throughout the Church as Divine Mercy Sunday. To encourage its celebration with special devotion, this Sunday has been enriched by a plenary indulgence (complete forgiveness of sins and punishment) which is granted to the faithful by the Pope under the usual conditions:

1. sacramental confession;
2. Eucharistic communions;
3. prayers for the intentions of the Holy Father.

The requirement of sacramental confession is satisfied by all who remain in the state of grace following their Lenten celebration of the Sacrament of Penance. However, for those who wish, confession will be available, as usual, at St. Thomas More on Saturdays at 4:00pm or by appointment. The other conditions for the plenary indulgence will be included within all celebrations of the Eucharist in this Parish on Divine Mercy Sunday:

- ◆ In the Penitential Rite, we will implore the mercy of God to be detached from all affection for sin, even venial sin.
- ◆ In the General Intercessions, we will pray for the Holy Father and his intentions and for greater fidelity in our lives to works of charity and mercy, concluding with a devout prayer to our merciful Lord Jesus.
- ◆ As always, we will pray together the Creed and Our Father, that as God forgives us we will pardon those who sin against us.

News from St. Francis Church—Our Neighbor

A few weeks ago, Fr. Mike and Fr. Bud Kaicher, Pastor of St. Francis Church, established a partnership between St. Francis of Assisi Catholic School and the Church of St. Thomas More. Both pastors are sincerely committed to promoting and supporting the Catholic education provided at St. Francis of Assisi Catholic School. As a result of this partnership, St. Thomas More Parishioners will now be extended the same benefits and rewards as a St. Francis Parishioner, including: Parishioner priority for enrollment at St. Francis of Assisi Catholic School, equal tuition rates, financial aid opportunities, and fundraising support
