Transparency

"The secret of the world lies wherever we can discern the transparency of the universe."

—Pierre Teilhard de Chardin, "Letters From a Traveller"

Do you ever seek a geographic solution to your problems or difficulties? I know I do!

If there are some really intense frustrations or tensions in my ministry, in my personal life, or with family members, I find myself, almost unconsciously, dreaming that I am somewhere else. I have begun a new life, in another part of the world. And there, in that "magical place," all my problems, whatever they are, are now gone.

And all I had to do was move! Just take myself to another part of the world, away from where I presently am, and "voilà", difficulties dissolved.

As I continue to mature, I have come to terms with this defense mechanism. I realize it is pure fantasy. As I indulge in that fantasy, it helps me to "weather the storm" temporarily, but I have learned that it is not the solution or the answer.

As I think about it realistically, I know that wherever I go, I take me with me. I can't run away from myself. There are no real geographic solutions. The answer lies inward, not outward.

So often we find ourselves running away, from place to place, from career to career, from relationship to relationship, as we attempt to find the perfect setting. But there is no perfect setting, because we are not perfect, and we take ourselves wherever we go.

Ultimately, the secret is not to run away, but to embrace the present moment and place with faith and to enter more deeply into the mystery that is God, life, love, and relationship.

The "secret of the world," making peace with life, lies in our ability to realize that all we possess is the present moment and place. It is in the present moment and place that, with the eyes of faith, we encounter God and embrace existence. As Jesus said, "The Reign of God is in your midst!"

Faith gives us the ability to "discern the transparency of the universe" in the mundane, routine joys and sorrows of our daily lives.

Embrace the present with its joys and sorrows...It is here where the universe becomes transparent...it is here that you will unlock the secret of the world...it is here that you will find God.

An Evening of Worship with Love, Resonate

Friday, August 27 • 7:00-8:30pm

We invite you to join us for an evening of praise and worship at St. Thomas More, enjoying a new and spiritually enriching experience.

We will be led by Love, Resonate, a Catholic band from Chino Hills,

California, whose continuing call to follow the Lord has given them the opportunity to lead worship for retreats, conferences, parishes, missions, and at Steubenville San Diego. They will offer their gifts and talents to lead us closer to Christ, with an evening filled with great music, testimonies, and prayer.

Bring your whole family to share in this time of blessing. As always, neighbors and friends are welcome too!

Would You Like to Join JustFaith?

Consider JustFaith and Catholic Social Teaching

One of the most notable achievements of the Catholic Church over the past 120 years is the development of its social teaching. Catholic social doctrine has two main concerns:

1. the dignity of the human person, made in God's image, with the rights and duties which protect and enhance this dignity, and
2. the common good. Catholic social doctrine developed from a response to the problems of the Industrial Revolution which resulted in the exploitation of workers which continues today, dealing with the complex issues of technology and its effects, whether in the arms race, environmental destruction, or the widening gap between rich and poor.

St. Thomas More, together with five North County parishes, will be involved in the national program of JustFaith. JustFaith is an opportunity to grow spiritually by studying the Church's social doctrine in small groups at the homes of parishioners. JustFaith meets once a week from September to May with breaks for the holidays. It is a marvelous community-building experience. —Joe Dillon, St. Thomas More

We have groups forming on the following days of the week: Tuesday (late afternoon), Thursday (morning), Wednesday (evening), Thursday (evening.)

For more information, contact Cathy Blecki at 760-603-8930 or Sr. Maureen Brown at 760-758-4100 x131.

Your generous donation unites you as missionary to our brothers and sisters around the world who are most in need of help. Envelopes were attached to the bulletin at the end of July and may be returned any time during the month of August. Thank you!

Dear St. Thomas More Parishioners,

Thank you for your warm hospitality during my missionary visit to St. Thomas More Parish. The School Sisters of Notre Dame are most appreciative of your prayer support as well as financial partnership to keep our missionary efforts viable. Know that the sisters also keep you in our prayer.

Congratulations on the 25th anniversary of the founding of your Parish. As I read through your bulletin, I could sense your tremendous participation and outreach. May you also experience God's bountiful blessings as you work together to build your church.

JOURNEYING WITH MARY

As someone who did not grow up in the Catholic Church, a particular devotion to Mary is somewhat foreign to me. But Mary has played a big part in my churchly life.

After my voice changed and I was no longer “eligible” to sing in the boys chorus that had been the cornerstone of my musical life, I found a singing home at St. Mary the Virgin Episcopal Church in San Francisco. This small group of people defined my understanding of how godly people worship, pray, and build community through music. And Marian feasts were a big deal.

I first cantored at Our Lady of Grace in El Cajon, and my first music director position was at Our Lady of Refuge in Pacific Beach. As one might expect, images of Mary were given pride of place among the statuary and paintings. In these faith communities, it seemed she watched over everything.

And now I am here. When I arrived, the big question was, “Who is this Thomas More fellow?” But even here, Mary is never far away. And people’s devotion to her is very, very apparent.

Most mornings during the week, after daily Mass, there is a group of Parishioners in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel who pray the rosary together. “Hail Mary...” “Hail Mary...” They pray joyful mysteries, luminous mysteries, sorrowful mysteries, glorious mysteries, and while these may be “mysterious” to some, their prayers are fervent and an important part of this faith community’s prayer life.

Each week before Saturday’s five o’clock Mass, one of another group of Parishioners brings fresh flowers to adorn Mary’s statue in the niche at the north end of the upper level. Sometimes the flowers are store bought, oftentimes they are from someone’s garden. Always, they are delivered with love, and hope, and a prayer.

And then of course, there are the candles marking the prayers offered in our homes and our hearts.

But it is not just a handful of St. Thomas More Parishioners who celebrate Mary.

When August 15 falls on a Sunday, as it does this year, the celebration of the solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary replaces the respective Sunday in Ordinary Time.

Each Sunday is a celebration of the resurrection, a “little Easter” if you will, so when we have a Marian solemnity fall on Sunday, it is a sort of “double celebration,” a reminder that God’s mighty deeds toward Mary always rebound to her Son. Mary’s assumption witnesses to God’s bringing to completion the work of salvation; Mary’s assumption into heaven is a promise to all of us that this is where our own fidelity leads. Each Sunday our celebration is a remembrance of God’s fidelity to the promise of salvation that one day we too will dwell in God’s everlasting kingdom of heaven.

Mary keeps popping up in my life. The morning I wrote this, she appeared in four exquisite songs I heard on the radio on the way to church, written for her in the 13th century and sung by Trio Mediaeval. She has inspired exquisite beauty in the arts, strong faith in our souls, and great hope for our future.

In the opening prayer on this feast of the Assumption of Mary, we pray, “May we see heaven as our final goal and come to share her glory.”

Amen! Alleluia!

—Douglas

Receiving and Giving

How many times do you think that 'giving more' or 'doing more' will make God love you more and/or even give you a free pass to heaven or grant a special favor?

You can now circle back to that issue about God's Grace. Remember that there is nothing we can do to make God love us more, and there is nothing we can do that will make God love us less. Trying to bargain with God is not a good idea.

We are blessed to be children of God and He loves us unconditionally. We receive not only God's infinite love, but also grace and forgiveness for our sins.

If you are someone who doubts these things, take some time to check out the Bible and revisit all the people Jesus befriended, including several who became the first leaders of the Church.

Once you accept God's unconditional love, it is easy to say 'thank you' each time you receive a gift, and then 'pay it forward' by giving back.

When we receive the gift, then give it back with increase, we get more. All this comes from simply letting God's Grace flow through us. Nothing belongs to us anyway. Everything we 'have' is pure gift. We can't take it with us when we go.

Acceptance is key, however. Just accept God's love in the manner it is given, and the rest will follow. This weekend we honor the Blessed Virgin Mary, who set a great example for us!

"Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb." Luke 1:42

On November 1, 1950 Pope Pius XII, declared and defined to be divinely revealed dogma that "...the Immaculate Mother of God, the ever Virgin Mary, having completed the course of her earthly life, was assumed body and soul into heavenly glory." Some ask why, how, when, and where? Those are fair questions. The simple answer is "It's a mystery!"

But it is more important to ask, "Why not?" Why would Jesus not want to honor the young girl who accepted God's call to be his mother (at great risk to her life), who carried him in her womb and gave birth to him in a cave, who watched him grow and was with him when he died on a cross, and who rejoiced at his Resurrection by assuming her uncorrupted body to be with him in heaven for eternity?

The world would be a much better place if we all honored our parents, family, friends and the strangers who often do so much for us that we do not appreciate!

Once again Jesus reveals to us that gratitude is the beginning of generosity. —Partially excerpted from ICSC Parish Newsletter, August 2010 with permission

Let God's Grace flow through you!

How to recite the Holy Rosary

1. SAY THESE PRAYERS...

IN THE NAME of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen. (As you say this, with your right hand touch your forehead when you say Father, touch your breastbone when you say Son, touch your left shoulder when you say Holy, and touch your right shoulder when you say Spirit.)

I BELIEVE IN GOD, the Father almighty, Creator of Heaven and earth. And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate; was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into Hell. The third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended into Heaven, and sits at the right hand of God, the Father almighty. He shall come again to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

OUR FATHER, Who art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.

HAIL MARY, full of grace, the Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

GLORY BE to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

O MY JESUS, forgive us our sins, save us from the fires of Hell; lead all souls to Heaven, especially those in most need of Thy mercy. Amen.

HAIL HOLY QUEEN, mother of mercy; our life, our sweetness, and our hope. To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve. To thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this vale of tears. Turn, then, most gracious advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us. And after this, our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus. O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary. Pray for us, O holy Mother of God, that we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ. Amen.

O GOD, WHOSE only-begotten Son by His life, death and resurrection, has purchased for us the rewards of eternal life; grant, we beseech Thee, that by meditating upon these mysteries of the Most Holy Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we may imitate what they contain and obtain what they promise, through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

ANNOUNCE each mystery by saying something like, "The third Joyful Mystery is the Birth of Our Lord." This is required only when saying the Rosary in a group.

Como Rezar el Santo Rosario

1. Decir estas oraciones

En el nombre del Padre, y del Hijo, y del Espíritu Santo. Amén

Creo en Dios, Padre todopoderoso, creador del Cielo y de la Tierra. Creo en Jesucristo su único Hijo, Señor Nuestro, que fue concebido por obra y gracia del Espíritu Santo; nació de Santa María Virgen; padeció bajo el poder de Poncio Pilato; fue crucificado, muerto y sepultado; descendió a los infiernos; al tercer día resucitó de entre los muertos; subió a los cielos y está sentado a la derecha de Dios Padre; desde allí ha de venir a juzgar a vivos y muertos. Creo en el Espíritu Santo, la Santa Iglesia Católica, la comunión de los Santos el perdón de los pecados la resurrección de la carne y la vida eterna.

Padre nuestro, que estás en el cielo. Santificado sea tu nombre. Venga tu reino. Hágase tu voluntad en la tierra como en el cielo. Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día. Perdona nuestras ofensas, como también nosotros perdonamos a los que nos ofenden. No nos dejes caer en tentación y líbranos del mal.

Dios te salve, María. Llena eres de gracia: El Señor es contigo. Bendita eres entre todas las mujeres. Y bendito es el fruto de tu vientre: Jesús. Santa María, Madre de Dios, ruega por nosotros pecadores, ahora y en la hora de nuestra muerte.

Gloria al Padre, al Hijo y al Espíritu Santo. Como era en el principio, ahora y siempre, por los siglos de los siglos.

Oh Jesús mío, perdóna nuestros pecados, líbranos del fuego del infierno, lleva a todas las almas al cielo, especialmente a las más necesitadas de tu misericordia

Dios te salve, Reina y Madre, madre de misericordia, vida, dulzura y esperanza nuestra, Dios te salve. A ti llamamos los desterrados hijos de Eva. A ti suspiramos gimiendo y llorando en este valle de lágrimas. Ea, pues, Señora, abogada nuestra: vuelve a nosotros esos tus ojos misericordiosos. Y después de este destierro, muéstranos a Jesús, fruto bendito de tu vientre. Oh clemente, oh piadosa, oh dulce Virgen María. Ruega por nosotros, Santa Madre de Dios, para que seamos dignos de alcanzar las promesas de nuestro Señor Jesucristo.

Oh Dios cuyo unigénito hijo con su vida, muerte y resurrección nos alcanzó el premio de la vida eterna, concédenos a los que recordamos estos misterios del Santo Rosario, imitar lo que contienen y alcanzar lo que prometen, por el mismo Jesucristo Nuestro Señor
