The Gift of the Holy Spirit

“When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were.

Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim.” (Acts of the Apostles 2:1-4)

Our Catholic Church proclaims seven gifts of the Holy Spirit that help us to sustain the moral life. These are permanent dispositions that make us docile in following the promptings of the Holy Spirit: Wisdom, Understanding, Counsel, Fortitude, Knowledge, Piety, and Fear of the Lord.

In faith, as we accept the gifts of the Spirit, we begin to see effects in our lives. These effects then make changes for the better in our lives and in the world. The tradition of the Church lists twelve fruits of the Holy Spirit, perfections that the Holy Spirit forms in us as the first fruits of eternal glory: Charity, Joy, Peace, Patience, Kindness, Goodness, Generosity, Gentleness, Faithfulness, Modesty, Self-control, and Chastity. (Catechism of the Catholic Church #1830, #1831, #1832)

“Come, Holy Spirit, fill my heart with your holy gifts. Let my weakness be penetrated with your strength this very day that I may fulfill the duties of my state in life conscientiously, that I may do what is right and just. Let my charity be such as to offend no one and hurt no one's feelings; so generous as to pardon sincerely any wrong done to me. Assist me in all the trials of life, enlighten me in my ignorance, advise me in my doubts, strengthen my weakness, help me in all needs and embarrassment, protect me in temptations and console me in all afflictions. Graciously hear me, O Holy Spirit, and pour your light into my heart, my soul and my mind. Assist me to live a holy life and to grow in goodness and grace. Amen.” (Samuel Cardinal Stritch)

On this Feast of Pentecost, may we each seek the gift of the Holy Spirit! Take time in prayer in these days of Pentecost to reflect upon the gifts and the fruits of the Holy Spirit. In what area of your life are you in most need of the Spirit's help? Then beg the Spirit to touch you in that area of your life.

Allow God's great gift of the Holy Spirit to transform you!

Peter's Pence Collection

This month we support the Holy Father in his charitable works. The Peter's Pence Collection is taken up worldwide to support the most disadvantaged: victims of war, oppression, and natural disasters and other in need of emergency assistance. Pope Benedict XVI has said, “It is necessary above all that every person be motivated by the authentic spirit of peace” (Homily, January 1, 2011). Cast the peace of Christ upon the world—please be generous. Envelopes were attached to the bulletin at the beginning of the month and may be returned any time during the month of June. Thank You!

In Memoriam

Please pray for the repose of the souls of:

Dora Karpowicz, who died on June 4. Her Funeral Mass will be celebrated on Saturday, June 18, at 11:00am at St. Thomas More. Please keep her family in your prayers.

Frank Flood, who died on May 25. His Funeral Mass will be celebrated on Friday, June 24, at 11:00am at St. Thomas More. Please keep his family in your prayers.

Jeffrey Guyer, who died recently. He and his family are long-time friends of Parishioners Dottie and Bob Petruzzo. They are grateful for your prayers while he was on our prayer list, and please continue to keep the family in your prayers.

May their souls and all the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Attention All Graduates!

The Parish Family of St. Thomas More would like to recognize the achievements of those among us who are graduating this year from grade school, high school, college, or beyond. If you are a graduate, please call the Parish Office with your name and the school from which you have graduated. You will be remembered in prayer, especially in the liturgies on the weekend of June 25-26. We are proud of your accomplishments and will continue to support you in all of your future endeavors.

Catholic Widows and Widowers of North County

CWWNC meets the second Sunday of each month for a general meeting and potluck. On June 12, the group gathers here on the lower level at 2:00pm—an easy opportunity to meet others if you're a Catholic widow or widower! On the fourth Sunday of each month, we meet for Mass at various Parishes in the North County followed by lunch at a nearby restaurant. Don't forget you must RSVP if you're attending.

See the bulletin board on the lower level for our monthly newsletter of activities; contact Gerri Wilmott at 760-758-9949 or Carol Kope at 760-726-0533 for more information.

General Message—Widowed, Divorced, or Separated? This is the time to make a reservation for the Beginning Experience Weekend to be held July 15-17, at the Prince of Peace Abbey in Oceanside. The weekend interactive retreat is for widowed, divorced, and separated men and women who are ready to move beyond their grief. If you are ready to put your feelings of grief behind you and are seeking a new beginning, this weekend may be for you. For more information call Maureen Schultz at 619-447-0622 or Cathy Savel at 619-222-9093 or email Mymom54@aol.com

The Bishops' Letter on Marriage—Journey in Faith: "Getting married does not, therefore, magically confer perfection. Rather, the love to which the spouses have been configured is powerful enough to transform their whole life's journey so that it becomes a journey toward perfection. In this journey, the spouses are ever more conformed into the likeness of Christ so that they can ever more perfectly love one another as Christ loves his Church." To read the document go to <http://www.usccb.org/loveandlife/>.

Marriage Moments—"I got gaps; you got gaps; we fill each other's gaps." (from the movie Rocky) What gap do you count on your spouse to fill?—a sense of direction, remembering names, keeping track of appointments, injecting humor when you're discouraged...

Parenting Pointers—"Now parents have trouble because there is too much information. It arrives continuously in a chaotic way. The job of good parents becomes to siphon meaning from a flood of dross." (Mary Pipher) Wisdom requires us to discern what is important and urgent versus what is psychobabble and hype. Prayer helps us sort it out.

THE FIFTIETH DAY

The Season of Easter comes to its glorious conclusion with the great feast of Pentecost.

In the Jewish tradition, Pentecost was a harvest-feast, celebrated fifty days after Passover (hence the name Pentecost, which means “fiftieth” in Greek). At this feast, bread made from the newly harvested grain would be offered to God. Later, this feast also became associated with the giving of the law on Mount Sinai. The latter view of the feast is clearly in the mind of Saint Luke, as his description of the Pentecost event evokes the giving of the law to Moses.

For us, Pentecost is the great celebration of the Holy Spirit. The contrast between the giving of the law and the giving of the Holy Spirit could hardly be greater. At Sinai, Moses alone went up to receive the immutable word of God carved on tablets of stone. One the day of Pentecost, the Holy Spirit comes down to the people and rests on each of them in a play of wind and fire. For us revelation is never a closed book. Though, as the Constitution on the Divine Revelation says, revelation of God on Jesus Christ is complete, the “Holy Spirit constantly perfects faith by the Spirit’s gifts, so that revelation may be more and more profoundly understood.” By the power of the Spirit, “there is growth in insight into the realities and words that are being passed on.”

Throughout the Church’s history, the dynamic—even playful—quality of the Holy Spirit has been expressed in the liturgy of Pentecost. In the French cathedrals of the Middle Ages, wind instruments would fill the church with sound, while roses and other flowers would be dropped on the assembly during the singing of the Veni, Sancte Spiritus. In other places, live doves would be set free to fly throughout the church. These and many other colorful customs speak to the nature of the Holy Spirit: gentle, yet impossible to contain or control.

✦ EPIC

(Encrypting People in Christ)

It was awesome seeing you last week—we meet again on Sunday, June 26! Bring more people as soon as summer begins!

High School

✦ IGNITE

Just like the Wizard of OZ! there is no place like home. No matter where we travel and where we have journeyed in our lives, the source of who we are comes from home. Come and bring more people to this family—let's share our faith with the people closest to us. I know schedules are opening up with summer coming! Now is the time to come be with us! WE want you here! Monday @ 7:00pm!

"I love being around people who are on fire for their faith. The people I have met are amazing, and they have become a family to me. Everyone has become a breathe of fresh air. We do things differently, which continually keeps things interesting and always wondering what is next. The way the youth group dives into their faith makes it interesting."

✦ Friday Night Lights

Thank you to everyone who came to worship on Friday. I hope and pray that the experience allowed you to see Christ and our faith in a whole new way. Stay tuned, as we will be mentioning the next event soon!

✦ Steubenville San Diego

The second part of the payment for this event is due on June 26—minimum amount of $50.00 or the rest of the payment is welcome. Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns. I will also be emailing events and meetings as we begin to prepare for this amazing experience.

Congratulations to our Confirmation Class of 2011! Come Holy Spirit, Come! I pray that the Spirit has moved you this year and will continue to guide you and bless you! This is not graduation, it is time to make a difference in the church. Now that you are Confirmed you can help with LEAD. Please contact me if you are interested in this opportunity. We will begin looking at the new members of this group in July!

CHRISTIAN STEWARDSHIP

Blessed Pentecost!

Gracious God,

So often you attempt to offer us
 a peaceful awareness of your presence.

It is always there, but we do not slow down enough to become aware of it.

Help us to slow down and appreciate this gift,
 and come to a deeper understanding of the movement of your Spirit in our lives.

Help us recognize those moments when you rescued us, healed us, and reconciled us.

Increase our trust in you, show us
 how to reach beyond ourselves to minister to others, and give us the wisdom to be better
 stewards and sacraments of your presence each day.

We pray this in Jesus' name.

Amen.

This weekend we celebrate the Feast of Pentecost and the coming of the Holy Spirit among the believers of the early Church. Saint Paul reminds us of the special power the Holy Spirit has bestowed upon us and how that power gives us the potential to live extraordinary lives of faith. Good stewards recognize this power and use their gifts, through God's channel of grace, to transform their lives and the lives of others, and thus hasten God's Kingdom.

Opportunity Knocks! Bereavement Ministry

We are in particular need of folks who will:

† Donate salads or desserts for funeral receptions held at St. Thomas More. Items can be delivered to the Parish in the morning.

† Serve in the capacity of Hospitality as a Greeter or Usher for funerals held in our Parish.

To be a vital part of this special ministry at STM please contact:

Sr. Maureen Brown at 760-758-4100 x130
 or maureenb@stmoside.org

STM Vehicle Donation Program

Do you have a vehicle you want to donate?

The St. Thomas More program is easy!

Call us, and we'll have it picked up.

You get the tax deduction!

All we need is clear title. Non-operational is OK!

Since 2006 we have netted over $21,000 from this program. Thank you donors!

For more information, contact the Parish Office:

Do You Have an Inspiring Story about Your Faith?

Today, for every person who joins the Catholic Church, four people leave. Young Catholics need examples of how genuinely to live the Faith and reasons to do so. We are looking for individuals to share personal stories/reflections about the positive role the Catholic Church has played in their life. How has Catholicism shaped the way you view the world and how you live your life? What advice would you give to young Catholics? Why should young Catholics stay in the Catholic Church? Please focus on your personal experience and story. Please send submissions (no more than 500 words) for this book project to: catholicinspires@gmail.com. Thank you.
