As We Approach the Altar...

On this Feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, as we approach the altar, let us reflect upon the words of those who have gone before us:

St. Augustine:

The Lord left us in this sacrament his body and blood. Now we are called to become his body, and through his mercy, we are what we receive.

Just as you see that the bread is one loaf, so may you be one body by loving one another, by having one faith, hope, and undivided charity. Thus too, the wine existed in many clusters of grapes and now it is one.

It is one in this cup after the crushing of the grapes in the wine press.

And now, you, in the name of Christ, have come to drink of the cup of the Lord. There you are on the table, and there you are in the cup, for you are one with us. We receive together, and we drink together because we live together.

St. Ignatius of Antioch:

Come together in common, one and all without exception in charity, in one faith and in one Jesus Christ, the Son of God and Son of man, so that with undivided mind you may break one bread which is the medicine of immortality and the remedy against death, enabling us to live for ever in Jesus Christ.

Pastor's Column (continued from page 1)

St. John Chrysostom:

*God gave one house for all of us to dwell in.
It is called the world.*

God distributed all created things equally.

God kindled one sun for all;

stretched above us one roof, the sky;

and set up one table, which is the earth.

But God also gave us a much greater table than this.

It is the table of one loaf and one cup.

We have been made rich and one in this bread and wine.

Then, whence comes the great inequality of conditions of life?

From greed and arrogance!

But let this be no longer.

Since we are made one in this meal,

let us not be driven asunder

by envy, greed, jealousy, and hatred.

All these are grand illusions for those who partake of the meal of eternal life.

May this meal we share preserve this unity unbroken.

F. Mike

Peter's Pence Collection

This month we support the Holy Father in his charitable works. The Peter's Pence Collection is taken up worldwide to support the most disadvantaged: victims of war, oppression, and natural disasters and other in need of emergency assistance. Envelopes were attached to the bulletin at the beginning of the month and may be returned any time during the month of June. Thank You!

Marriage & Family Life Corner

The Bishops' Letter on Marriage—Marriage and the Kingdom of God: "A marriage that is truly in Christ, a marriage upon which his school of gratitude and openness has left its mark of joy and warmth, is a sign of the Kingdom that is coming. It is a blessing to the couple, to their children, and to everyone who knows them. It offers a sign of hope and a loving witness to human dignity in a world where hope often seems absent and human dignity is often degraded. It is a sign of the Kingdom because the love of Christ moves the married couple to ever greater heights of love." To read the document go to <http://www.usccb.org/loveandlife/>.

Marriage Moments—"In its maturity, sexuality is about giving oneself over to community, friendship, family, service, creativity, humor, delight, and martyrdom so that, with God, we can help bring life into the world." (Fr. Ronald Rolheiser, The Holy Longing) Making love takes more than an hour. Make it 24 hours a day.

Parenting Pointers—The January 2011 issue of Seventeen Magazine surveyed teens about premarital sex. Almost a fourth said their parents had not talked to them about it. 77% of teen girls said they got their information from other girls. Maybe your child isn't yet a teen, but don't be a wimp. 10 is not too young to talk.

COMMISSIONING OUR LITURGICAL MINISTERS

This weekend, as we celebrate the Feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, Fr. Mike will be commissioning the Liturgical Ministers of our Parish for the upcoming year.

Each week, as part of our dismissal from Mass, we are called to, "Go in peace to love and serve the Lord." These Parishioners' ministry at St. Thomas More is a powerful example of accepting this call to service, and we acknowledge their service and send them forth for the upcoming year with the strength of God our Father, the love of Jesus his Son, and the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

*God of glory,
 your beloved Son has shown us that true worship comes from humble and contrite hearts.*

*Bless our brothers and sisters,
 who have responded to the needs of our Parish and committed themselves to your service.*

*Grant that their ministry
 may be fruitful
 and our worship
 pleasing in your sight.*

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

CHRISTIAN STEWARDSHIP

How Well Do We Welcome Visitors?

Welcoming newcomers to our Parish is not just the job of the pastoral staff, ministers of hospitality, or greeters. It is everyone's responsibility. We strive to be warm and welcoming to all who worship at St. Thomas More.

Here are some things you can do to provide summertime (actually, year-round) hospitality in our Parish.

1. Cultivate the virtue of hospitality at Mass.

Sometimes Mass attendees tend to gather into little cliques and ignore those who are not members of their particular clique. They are not really inhospitable, just heedless of the need for hospitality. Make hospitality a habit when you go to Mass.

2. Come early, leave late.

Instead of rushing to Mass to be there on time, and then rushing out at its conclusion, make time to come a little early and then linger just a bit later. Make room in your busy life to greet and spend time with others at Mass.

3. Go in peace to greet someone!

Seek out someone you've not met before. Shake their hand, introduce yourself, and take a few moments to welcome them to your Parish home, God's house.

4. Welcome everyone.

Not only do visitors need your warm welcome, regular Mass attendees also need a friendly greeting. Develop a good handshake and be enthusiastic about your faith community. You are greeting others in the name of Christ.

5. Help newcomers connect.

While you are getting to know visitors, introduce them to other Parishioners as the opportunity presents itself. Also, feel free to invite visitors to sit next to you.

6. Avoid Parish business.

Avoid conducting Parish business with others just before or after Mass. Focus on visitors.

- † You are already coming to Mass ~ please consider greeting fellow worshippers as they arrive and later as they leave.
