What Is a Homily?

Homily? What is it? Is it just a fancy word for sermon? Or is there a difference?

Yes. There is a difference. A sermon's purpose is to educate in regard to some facet or tenet of the Faith. A homily is more of a personal reflection of the Scriptures that are proclaimed that day in the Liturgy.

The primary purpose of the homily is to help the congregation in their reflection on the Scriptures: "What am I hearing in these Scriptures that can be related to the events of my life?" "How is this Scripture being fulfilled in my life?" The homilist's reflection assists the individuals of the congregation to reflect upon the movement of God in their lives. A homily attempts to bring together Faith and the ordinary events of our lives. In that sense, it is a very personal, subjective effort.

A sermon is much more objective and attempts to hand on the doctrines and tenets of the Faith. The sermon attempts to teach objectively more than to share personally.

There are times in which people express a desire to hear sermons rather than homilies: "How will Catholics know the Faith if it is not handed on objectively?" "At Mass, we need to be taught! Where else will people learn?"

The need for sermons belies an attitude of "one stop shopping," that is, it is an attitude of people who want to spend that one hour on Sunday and "get it all."

The Mass on Sunday, ultimately, is not about education. It is about worship. We come together to praise God and to enter into the Mystery of God's Presence. We delve into the Scriptures, the living word of God, to experience God's activity in our lives. Because we experience God's Presence in our lives and because we give God praise and glory, we desire to experience more. So, naturally, we desire to know and learn more about this God and about God's activity in the community, the Church. Now we have the need to be educated.

This education takes place not during worship, primarily, but in and through the life of the community during the week. Through adult faith formation, religious education classes, Parish organizations, small church communities, and reading and sharing with other Catholics who are on the same journey of Faith. This takes commitment, and involvement in the life of the community during the week. It means making Parish a way of life, not a "one-hour stopover" on Sunday.

St. Thomas More offers many opportunities in which Parishioners can grow in the understanding and knowledge of one's Faith. Take advantage of these opportunities.

Please don't expect to be educated (primarily) at Mass. Come to enter the Mystery of God's Presence and to worship in awe with the other members of the Parish Family. And because we desire to worship God, we will desire to be educated in God's ways. Because we desire to be educated in God's ways, we live our lives in union with a Parish, a community of people on the road of worship and education.

Happy Travelin'!

F. Mike

In Memoriam

Please pray for the repose of the soul of:

Howard B. Dawson, who died on July 21. His funeral celebration will be in Kansas. He is the father of Parishioner Sonny Dawson. Please keep the family in your prayers.

May his soul and all the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Looking for Information on the Catholic Faith?

Are you interested in learning more about Catholicism, becoming a Catholic, or returning to the Catholic Church after being away? You're invited to Inquiry Sessions, which meet on the first and third Thursdays of each month at 7:00pm at the Parish Center.

For information, call Kathleen Bell at 760-758-4100 x110.

Helping Seminarians

We continue to collect laundry supply items and personal hygiene items for our seminarian, Ricardo Juárez Frausto, and his fellow seminarians. Bring items to the Parish Office. Thanks!

Annual Catholic Appeal—Paying It Forward

The Diocese has assisted us greatly in helping to develop our Parish, and now we have the opportunity, and obligation, to help our 'sister Parishes in the Diocese.' Responses so far:

Total pledges to date: $49,605

Number of families contributing: 388

80% of the amount over our assessment of $48,000 will be returned to our Parish to help with our operating budget.

Thank you!

Social Ministries/Outreach

The Mission of the St. Thomas More Social Justice Committee is to:

- † provide awareness and education of Catholic social justice teaching;
- † participate in creating a society with more just laws and social structures;
- † work with other faith groups on justice issues within social, economic, and political structures.

JustFaith: A "Soul-Satisfying" Experience

When was the last time you had an experience that was "soul satisfying?" If you are looking to encounter your faith in a way that challenges you to reflect on how you are to live as a Christian in today's world, then JustFaith may be for you. The 30-week program includes weekly meetings in a small group setting, thought-provoking readings and discussions, retreats, and immersion experiences. The program begins the week of September 18. A potluck dinner and information meeting will be held Friday, August 26 from 6:00-9:00pm. Mark your calendar now! For further questions: call Sr. Maureen at 760-758-4100 x131.

I was relatively new to North County when Sr. Maureen extended the invitation to join Just Faith at St. Thomas More Parish. My motivation for signing on for JustFaith was to get to know people more personally and to have time away from a challenging ministry operating Hope House, a residence for women rescued from human trafficking. Looking back, my decision to join Just Faith was perfect for me at this time.

We were a small but diverse group (men/women; working/unemployed/retired; struggling with health issues, with trying to sell a home; with looking for work; married/single/divorced/vowed religious; etc.). We differed in our political views and in how well versed we were in our theology. But these differences only enhanced what we brought to the evening discussions, since we kept the JustFaith rule of "being respectful listeners and learners."

And learn we did! The reading was current, broad-ranging, and balanced. We saw some excellent films. We had well-led sessions thanks to our dedicated co-facilitators and the good guidelines offered by Just Faith. There were opportunities to be exposed to social outreach and justice action locally and in the San Diego area. Just Faith is a rich experience!"

—Sr. Jean Schafer

Social Justice Email "Hotline"

Do you ever wonder where you fit in the social justice picture?

How do you respond as a Christian when a social justice issue arises?

Sign up to be on an email list to be informed about some of the issues the Parish Social Justice Committee is working on or be invited to participate in an event in North County.

Parish Events

Women's Guild News

Hope everyone is having a good summer. The Women's Guild Board is working on an excellent year of programs for you to enjoy. Remember to sign up for this year if you haven't done so. We want to see you.

Many of you signed up for "Hospitality." Please call me if you are interested in helping with our luncheons in that capacity.

Enjoy the summer and be safe!! —Vera Bayliss, President

St. Thomas More Parish Cookbook

While enjoying a meal during a recent parish campout, many commented on the unique and varied dishes that adorned the evening table. The discussion soon turned to the possibility of creating a cookbook.

Fr. Mike liked the idea and thought it appropriate that the cookbook reflect the tastes of the entire Parish and suggested that the project also raise money for our building fund.

To this end, we are asking each of you to send us your favorite family recipe. We would like to receive all recipes by mid-August. Please contact Bob Jacobson for additional information at jacobsonr@cox.net or Henny Jocelyn at 760-58-4100 x100.

Catholic Widows and Widowers of North County

Meets the second Sunday of each month for a general meeting and potluck. On the fourth Sunday of each month, we meet for Mass at various Parishes in North County followed by lunch at a nearby restaurant. Please RSVP if you're planning to attend the luncheon. Prospective members are welcome anytime. See the bulletin board on the lower level for our monthly newsletter of activities; contact Gerri Wilmott at 760-758-9949 or Carol Kope at 760-726-0533 for more information.

Marriage & Family Life Corner

The Bishops' Letter on Marriage—The Human Body: "Pope John Paul II's theology of the body speaks of the human body as having a spousal significance. This means that the human body by its very nature signifies that we humans are directed to relationship—that we are to seek union with others. It is only in relationship that we achieve a true wholeness as a communion of persons." To read the document go to <http://www.usccb.org/loveandlife/>.

Marriage Moments—What's the difference between constructive criticism and nagging? Repetition. Unless your spouse is hard of hearing, trust that saying your criticism once (or at most twice) is enough. If this doesn't work, suggest a hearing test. Of course it could be selective listening!

Parenting Pointers—Water: Part 5. At some times of the year and in some places we have too much water (floods) and at other times not enough (droughts) Pray at dinner for those whose lives are impacted by these extremes. Be thankful for what you have.

Got Costume Jewelry?

Parishioner Debbie Ipsen is getting a head start on next year's Golf Classic—she plans to design and create a Christmas tree wall hanging from costume jewelry similar to the one pictured and donate it as an auction item.

If you have any costume jewelry you would like to contribute to this project, please bring it to the Parish Office during the week. Any items not used for the project will be forwarded to the Treasures 2011 Mega Flea Market. Visit www.stmoside.org/golf to see a full color rendition of the sample.

MENTORS

by Patricia Datchuck
Sánchez and Rafael
Sánchez Alonso, Celebration
August 2011.
with permission.

Each time he led the service at the cathedral, a preacher famous for his eloquence always drew a capacity crowd. Whenever he spoke, an eccentric, elderly lady sat in the front row, directly beneath the pulpit. She took every opportunity to mumble complaints and contradictions—just loud enough for the preacher to hear and understand that he wasn't as wonderful as he was reputed to be. Others seated near her glowered with annoyance and tried to hush her. But she went right on needling the preacher to her heart's content.

When the old woman died, the congregation was astounded at the depth and sincerity of the preacher's grief. When asked about his sorrow, he replied, "Now who will help me to grow?" This story, speaks poignantly to all who seek out the sacred texts week after week, year after year, in search of their truth and wisdom. Both preachers and the people who gather with them to pray and to celebrate have mentors like the elderly woman in the story. These are the authors of the texts, and the faith communities who have interpreted, preserved, and passed on these texts to future generations of believers. If we listen carefully, these mentors will clarify the meanings of the texts, point out their challenges, and encourage us to find the courage and strength that are necessary to allow these living words to set our agendas and prompt our growth.

On August 7, that living word, mediated by the authors of Kings, will speak of the tiny whispering sound or the still small silence that Elijah experienced in God's presence. To recognize and know God's presence requires a quiet calm and uncluttered heart—a heart that surrenders to the experience of prayer as a dialogue that originates with God, rather than a monologue in which I am the sole speaker and petitioner. God's presence in the word speaks to the heart of who we are and invites our noblest responses.

Thomas Merton referred to the divine whispers of God as words of liberation and transforming power (Opening the Bible, 1970). The basis of this power, said Merton, is the word's ability to answer the question "What is this word?" with another: "Who is this who reads it?" The message of God's word is bound up with determining the true identity of its readers, a process that includes acknowledging and entering into a relationship with God.

On August 14, our mentors and the word they mediate will affirm the universal embrace of the God who loves us all. Isaiah will defend the rights of foreigners to come to God, to serve and keep covenant; the prophet will also declare that God's people all are welcome to find shelter and pray in God's house. In a similar vein, the Matthean Jesus will minister to a Canaanite woman's daughter and praise the woman's great faith. As they hold out this word to us, our mentors invite us to consider our own attitude toward the "foreigners" among us. Do we see them as God does—as beloved images of their divine Lover—or are they beyond the parameters of our love, our concern, our compassion?

Those called to the service of leadership are specially mentored on August 21. Isaiah will insist that when leaders prove unworthy, irresponsible, and neglectful of those in their care, others should be entrusted with the keys of authority. In the Gospel, the Matthean Jesus will entrust Peter and the other disciples with the care of all who believe. This responsibility was rooted in Peter's faith, which enabled him to identify Jesus as the Christ, and in his willingness to be identified by Jesus as a rock on whom others could rely and in whose care they would find safe shelter.

Jeremiah's mentoring will surprise us on August 28 with his description of the word as a seductress whose power he could not resist, and whose message he could not desist in proclaiming. Graced and made gutsy by that word, Jeremiah endured the consequences of persistently speaking an unpopular and unwelcome word to often-hostile listeners. Jeremiah's experience offered a prelude to that of Jesus, who understood that his words would lead to his demise, but spoke them nevertheless. As August draws to an end, the Matthean Jesus will charge his disciples to shoulder their cross, to always speak the truth, to work for justice, and to mentor and minister to all others with his message of love, peace, hope, and joy.

Fr. Mike's Bookies

Discussion of The Future Church
by John Allen Jr.

It is getting "curious-er and curious-er" that each time we re-schedule this book conversation, Fr. Mike's health progress takes a step back!

Once again we will be postponing our discussion until further notice. Procrastinators like me will have no excuse for not having completed the reading!

For Fr. Mike's return to a strong back, we pray to the Lord.

High School ✦ IGNITE

Steubenville was amazing, and I pray that the Holy Spirit moved through all your hearts! This week, we are going to bring that same energy and give God everything we've got, because that is who we are called to be. WE want you here! Monday @ 7:00pm!

✦ LEAD

LEAD meetings are still every Thursday at 7:00pm. It's time to get ready for Retreat, so let's begin to look at where the Spirit will lead us in helping in this ministry. Let the Holy Spirit use YOU to make a difference in the world through our community.

✦ Mass on the Beach

We are going to Mass on the Beach in Huntington Beach on Monday, August 8!!! This event has had over 1,000 teens attend our local shores in our greatest prayer. If you would like to come to this event, sign-up today! We will be leaving early morning to claim a fire-pit, enjoy a day at the beach, and attend Mass, then back home! The cost of this event is $20 for food and transportation for the day! Let's go!

✦ Confirmation 2

Confirmation Interviews for our candidates this year begin this week! Confirmation students, please remember your scheduled times. Please pray for our teens as they begin this journey! God Bless.

Stewardship & Development

Serve God's People

Chris Smith
 Director of Stewardship & Development

Stewardship Is All about Christ

Contrary to popular belief, stewardship is not about raising money. It's not even about building up our Parish ministries and increasing participation. Stewardship is all about Christ. That is the most important thing to remember.

The true steward makes a commitment to the Lord . . . He gives his life to God because he wants to follow him, and everything else—his time, his talent, and his treasure—follows suit.

That being said, however, it is important to recognize that some Parishioners may come to conversion through participation in Parish ministries. One Parishioner, for example, may love to knit, so when she hears of the Prayer Shawl ministry, she decides to join, merely because it gives her an opportunity to do what she loves. Meanwhile, as she does so, she is bound to interact with other Parishioners who have given their lives to the Lord as His disciples. Their examples will inevitably have an impact on her. She is bound to see the joy in selfless giving. She is bound to recognize Christ working through her fellow Parishioners, and, in that, she and many others will grow closer to Christ.

Christ is what it's all about—in our prayer times, in our ministries, and even in our offertories.

My parents taught me, at a very early age, that our lives belong to God, that we are merely stewards of our lives and of the many gifts we have, and, thus, we must live our lives for Him. I watched as they did just that. They made family prayer time a daily practice in our home. They loved and cared for my siblings and me selflessly. They were highly involved in the life of our Parish community—giving both their talents and their finances.

And they did it all with a deep joy, a sincere gratitude, feeling as though it was a blessing that they were able to live for the Lord. We talked about what it meant to be a Catholic—to be a follower of Christ, but what spoke louder than their words, to me, were their examples. I saw how much they loved the Lord. I saw how much they gave back to Him. And I saw the joy that they received as they gave of themselves so selflessly. I learned, very early on, what it means to be a disciple of Christ.

—excerpted from Msgr. Thomas McGread,
The Catholic Steward, July 2011 (with permission)

From arrival, to outdoor Mass and sign of peace, to mealtime and beyond, the annual STM campout was a wonderful time and experience for all!

Nothing, and I mean nothing, takes the place of a good example.

A WAY TO GIVE ~ A WAY TO RECEIVE

DESIGNATED BANK ACCOUNTS, WILLS, LIVING TRUSTS, STOCKS, LIFE INSURANCE, MUTUAL FUNDS, REAL ESTATE, ENDOWMENTS

Planned Giving is a generic term that covers the many ways an individual can give to a charity while, in many cases avoiding taxes. A few examples of Planned Giving are: Designated Beneficiary Accounts, Wills, Living Trusts, Stocks, Life Insurance, Mutual Funds, Endowments, and Real Estate.

This program is one way of helping the Parish raise the resources necessary to continue our campus build out and also help plan for our future needs (i.e., Tower of Faith participants). Gifts of this nature are beneficial and much appreciated by St. Thomas More.
