In our continuing efforts to make our major yearly fundraiser fresh and exciting, we have decided to forgo the golf tournaments and to focus all of our attention on the evening events—dinner, raffles, silent and live auctions, the Champagne Diamond event, dancing, and much more!

Watch your mailbox for your invitation, or visit the Parish website, www.stmoside.org, and click on the Gala logo.

The Mark of a Christian

As we continue to journey through this Season of Lent, as we lose ourselves in the disciplines of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving, we ready ourselves to be refreshed and renewed in our Baptismal Promises.

On Easter Sunday, with renewed vigor, as we renew our Baptismal Promises, we take on again "The Mark of a Christian." May these words of St. Basil strengthen us in these efforts:

Pastor's Column (continued from page 1)

“What Is the Mark of a Christian?”

That we be holy and blameless
and so eat the Body of Christ and drink His Blood.

And what is the mark of those who eat the Bread and drink the Cup of Christ?

That they keep in perpetual remembrance
Him who died for us and rose again.

What is the mark
of those who keep such remembrance?

That they live not for themselves
but for him who died for us and rose again.

What, then, is the mark of a Christian?

That our justice abound in all things,
to watch daily and hourly
and to stand prepared in that state knowing that the Lord comes when we least expect Him.

So, then what is the mark of a Christian?
That we love one another
as Christ loves us.

What is the mark of a Christian?
To set the Lord always in our sight.

—St. Basil (329-379AD)

Continue to be faithful to your Lenten resolutions so that these days of Lent will help us to bear the mark of a Christian, to carry and wear the wounds of Christ Crucified!

F. n. Mike

Social Ministries/Outreach

Get On the Bus

When does it take place?

Each year around Mothers Day and Father's Day, hundreds of children and their caregivers board buses and travel from cities all over the State of California to be united with incarcerated family members. St. Thomas More is co-sponsoring two buses with other Churches in North County to travel to the two women's prisons in Chowchilla on May 12 and one bus to the Men's Colony in San Luis Obispo on June 2. It costs $4,000 for each bus to cover all the expenses for the children, caregivers, and travel.

"I got to see my Mom today and I adore her. There is no one in the world I have like my Mom." —Chris, age 14

Did you know . . .

- Children's odds of delinquency increase dramatically when visits with their incarcerated parent are denied.
- Children who are allowed regular visits with their incarcerated parent demonstrate better emotional and social adjustment; they can be assured they are loved and that their parents have not abandoned them by choice.

Our Parish will be participating again this year. Watch future bulletins for ways to be involved! One way will be monetary contributions. An envelope is attached to today's Parish bulletin.

—Excerpts from Get On the Bus Brochure 2011

Voter Registration

We will be setting up a table for voter registration after the weekend Masses April 15, 22, and 29 (for the primaries) and again in October (for the November election). We are looking for Parishioners who would like to help with registration, and we hope to get a tremendous response. You would only have to stay for a short while. If you're on board or have questions contact me at theberliner@sbcglobal.net or 760-434-3710. We will have a brief training session once I have your contact information. Thank you for your consideration.

—Evi Quinn, Parish Social Justice Committee

An Ecumenical Holy Witness

Join us for our first candlelight vigil on Sunday, March 25, 7:00pm, at the San Marcos Abortion Clinic, 120 Craven Rd., San Marcos. We will be meeting on the fourth Sunday of each month to pray for life.

Opportunity to Help Local Families in Need

North County Solutions for Change women and children's shelter needs volunteers for meal preparation, servers, and donations (food and paper goods). STM has committed to providing one meal per month for this ministry. In this way we answer the call of Jesus to feed the hungry and this is in our neighborhood. Any help you can provide is welcome!

For more information, contact Paul & Kalei Mendiola at 760-945-9042 or kaleiann@sbcglobal.net.

Parish Events

Knights of Columbus Fish Dinners

Every Friday during Lent, 5:30-6:30pm. Join us on March 30—last one, so don't miss it! Menu includes baked cod, potatoes, vegetables, or cole slaw, beverages, and Bob Wong's famous dessert bar.

Women's Guild News

Game Day is reserved for Saturday, April 14. We will be on the Plaza for this event this weekend, so please stop by to purchase your ticket for some fun with us and good food, too. It will be a fun day of games and prizes. Everyone is welcome--all members of the parish, men and women, friends and relatives!! Hope to see you all there. If you have any questions, please call one of Game Day's chairpersons, Mary Vernaci at 760-727-2318. Vikki Ramey is also available for questions and to get you a ticket. We are working hard so you all can join in and have a good time.

Our nominating committee is also in progress for next year's board. Names of officers elect will be announced in April. We will not have a meeting in April because of Game Day, but we will have a board meeting on Monday morning, April 2, 10:30 am, on the lower level of the Parish Center.

Wishing you all a blessed week.

—Vera Bayliss, President

Holy Thursday Dinners on April 5 after Mass

Our Parish has a tradition on Holy Thursday to have dinners in Parishioners' homes after the liturgy. Loaves of bread and bottles of wine are blessed at Mass for consumption at these dinners. We need "Hosts" who provide the setup and main dish in their home, and "Guests" who will be assigned to those homes and bring a dish to share. Host families determine the number of Guests they can accommodate and if their home is suitable for children. This is a random assignment of Guests to Host homes, meant as a way to meet new fellow Parishioners as well as extend the blessings and meaning of this holy night.

If you would like to organize your own gathering with friends on this day, please feel free to let us know the numbers of guests participating and we will include you in our numbers and offer you blessed bread and wine to take home after Mass.

Deadline for signups: Tuesday, March 27. For more information, contact Henny at 760-758-4100 x100.

Catholic Widows and Widowers of North County

Did you know that CWWNC is not a bereavement program, but we do understand and support the grieving process? On the fourth Sunday of each month, we gather for Mass at various North County Parishes followed by lunch in Oceanside. On April 15 our general meeting and potluck will be in Escondido. For more information call Carol Kope at 760-726-0533 or Gerri Wilmott at 760-758-9949. See the bulletin board on the lower level for our complete monthly calendar of social activities including dining out, dancing, bowling, golf, and theatre. RSVPs are recommended.

A MIND TO MAKE OUR OWN

Scripture themes for April

by Patricia Datchuck
Sánchez and Rafael
Sánchez Alonso,
excerpted from Celebration
April 2012.
with permission.

As we make our way through the sacred texts next month, and as we remember and celebrate, yet again, the salvific gifts of God in Jesus, we will benefit from the many guides God has placed along our path. Prophets, evangelists, and epistolary writers work together, sharing their insights and teaching the lessons that they themselves learned through their believing.

One voice, however, seems to stand out among all the rest: That voice is Paul's.

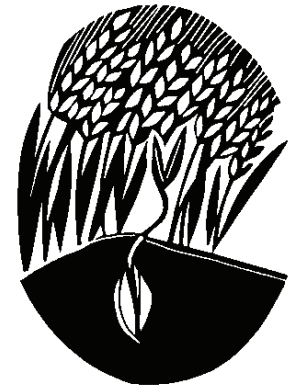

On April's first Sunday, when the community marks Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem as well as his suffering, passion, and death, Paul sounds the clarion call: "Have this mind in you which was also in Christ Jesus" (Phil 2:5). Like a drum major who sets the pace for the rest of the marching band, Paul encourages believers not merely to remember what God has done for sinners in Jesus but also to let that redemptive action transform our hearts so that we will make our own the very mind and attitude of Christ.

Have in you the mind of Jesus, who knew that the very people who revered and recognized him as Son of David on Palm Sunday would be shouting for his death on Good Friday. Have in you the mind of him who was willing, nevertheless, to suffer for these very people and for you and for me (April 1). Have in you the mind of Jesus, who went about doing good to all. In his greatest act of goodness, he died and rose from the grave so that everyone who believes in him will know their sins to be forgiven. Have in you the mind of him who accepted to be the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth as well as the paschal lamb by whose sacrifice our bond with God is sealed and secured (April 8).

Have in you the mind of Jesus, who, with no thought about their weakness in abandoning him in his hour of need, appeared to his disciples with gifts of peace and forgiveness. His peace, his breath, his Spirit conferred upon them and upon us the power to continue his ministry of healing and forgiveness. With Thomas, we may, at times, allow doubt to dissuade us, but the Spirit of Jesus abides within and offers the coping skills we need to continue to believe in Jesus and forgive one another (April 15).

Have in you the mind of the risen Jesus, who strengthened the nascent and shaky faith of his disciples by appearing to them after his death and rising. Through the grace afforded them in the resurrection appearances, those early believers were able to reflect on all that Jesus had said and done and to begin to comprehend the salvific plan of God as revealed in both testaments and as fulfilled in Jesus. Through those appearances, the risen Lord revealed the several means by which his presence would remain with his own—through the Spirit, through the sacred word, in their eucharistic sharing and through the bonds of communal love that strengthened and united them (April 22).

From the first to the 21st centuries, believers have communed with their risen Lord through these same venues until he comes again. This sacred communion stirs our faith, feeds our hope, and inspires our loving service on behalf of all God's precious poor ones. For those whose faith falters, our own belief offers strength. When others sink into hopelessness, our firm hope offers them a foothold from which to make a new start. To all who feel unwanted and unloved, our own efforts on their behalf extend the love and care we are privileged to know in Jesus. Most of all, our continuing communion with the risen Christ prepares us for the fullness of communion we will know beyond the grave in eternity.

But ours is not a mind that is content to wait and see or grin and bear it here and now since there will be "pie in the sky when we die." On the contrary, we who grow daily into the mind and attitude of Jesus Christ are privileged to taste and touch and know the experience of the everlasting in the present moment. These experiences are possible because, amid the cacophony of voices that may divert our attention or lure us elsewhere, the voice of our one true and loving Shepherd Jesus continues to call us forward into the future. We are of kindred minds and spirits. We know that we are his and he is ours. He will not lead us into any place where grace does not also enter with us. He who has laid down his life for us and has taken it up again is ever at our side, with rod and staff, to give us courage. It is at his table that we are fed and in his presence that we will always find repose and refreshment. Have in you his mind, his heart, his spirit, now and forever (April 29).

The Easter Vigil

The community of St. Thomas More continues to be essential mentors for Greg Abrahms, Kalei Cornejo, Amanda Splinter, and Jennifer Thieme as they approach the day of fulfillment for which they have longed.

The Great Vigil of Easter is the “night of nights” during which the Church keeps vigil for the Resurrection of Jesus. During the Easter Vigil, the sacraments of Baptism and Confirmation are celebrated, and our new members are welcomed into the Church and receive the Eucharist for the first time.

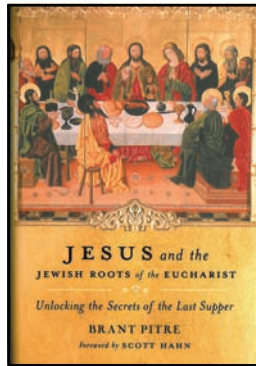

Through ancient rituals, this “most blessed of all nights” celebrates the central mysteries of our faith. Yes, it’s a long celebration, but it’s also the heart of the Church’s worship, and the powerful and abundant signs speak to our hearts and fill us with the joy of the Resurrection.

Consider joining in this celebration on Saturday, April 7, at 8:00pm.

Fr. Mike’s Bookies

Jesus and the Jewish Roots of the Eucharist

by Brant Pitre

Available NOW in the Faith Formation Office for review and purchase. ($15)

In recent years, Christians everywhere are rediscovering the Jewish roots of their faith. Every year at Easter time, many believers now celebrate Passover meals, seeking to understand exactly what happened at Jesus’ final Passover, the night before he was crucified.

This book shines fresh light on the Last Supper by looking at it through Jewish eyes.

Reading this book will add great depth to your celebration of Holy Week.

Discussion is available online if you wish.

You can add your comments about the book, ask questions, and respond to others.

Our Work is Loving the World: A Lenten Stewardship Reflection

Insightful stewardship expressions can be found in any number of poems we read reflectively. In the poem Messenger for instance, the poet Mary Oliver writes: "My work is loving the world."

What does the poet mean by her use of the word "work" in relationship to "loving?"

How can Christian stewards make prayerful use of this reflection during the season of Lent? Being reminded to take a meaningful and substantive spiritual "pause" in our lives for forty days is a gift in itself.

As we imagine that Jesus must have done in the desert for forty days, we have the opportunity to examine our lives and vocation, as well as our strengths, weaknesses, and temptations.

Sometimes, we have good intentions to improve our spiritual lives. But we tend to put it off.

The season of Lent begins by reminding us of the brevity of our lives, and then presents us with the immediacy of forty days to focus more intensely on our life in Christ.

This is the first step toward embracing Christian stewardship as a way of life.

Oliver probably realizes that if most of us are asked what our "work" is, we would reply with a description of how we earn our paycheck or take care of our family. In a sense, this is correct. We all have to support ourselves and provide for our families.

Oliver would hardly reject that necessity. But her poem also suggests that, no matter how we spend our lives, there must be a deeper dimension to our life's purpose; a way of engaging the world with our loving presence.

Indeed, there is a Catholic worldview that encourages us to pray for and to act in ways that make a difference in a world that is hungry for Christ's love.

Bringing Christ's loving presence into our work and our workplace is necessary in order to live in the world as disciples of the Lord. It is key to living the Christian life in our world today.

The very word "work" connotes a certain obligation. This rings true in Oliver's simple line. As Christian stewards, we have a fundamental obligation to love and embrace the world as ambassadors of Christ.

The season of Lent provides us with a singular opportunity to examine how well we're doing and to make an even greater commitment to exercising good stewardship of all the Lord has entrusted to us.

Marriage & Family Life Corner

The Bishops’ Letter on Marriage—What Is Marriage? “Marriage is a lifelong partnership of the whole of life, of mutual and exclusive fidelity, established by mutual consent between a man and a woman, and ordered towards the good of the spouses and the procreation of offspring.” To read the document go to <http://www.usccb.org/loveandlife/>.

Marriage Moments— “Unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains just a grain of wheat; but if it dies, it produces much fruit.” (Jn 12:24) Has anyone close to you died who has enriched your life? Loss is always hard, but having a life partner to share it with makes it bearable.

Parenting Pointers—Parenting does not only involve caring for the younger generation but for many it also calls us to care for our own aging parents. Is it time for a call, a visit, to forgive a past hurt, watch a TV show or movie together. Take a child along.

Uniting children with their mothers and fathers in prison

www.getonthebus.us

What is Get On The Bus?

Get On the Bus brings children and their guardians/caregivers from throughout the state of California to visit their mothers and fathers in prison. An annual event, Get On the Bus offers free transportation for the children and their caregivers to the prison, provides travel bags for the children, comfort care bags for the caregivers, a photo of each child with his or her parent, and meals for the day (breakfast, snacks on the bus, lunch at the prison, and dinner on the way home)—all at no cost to the children's family. On the bus trip home, following a four-hour visit, each child receives a teddy bear with a letter from their parent and post-event counseling.

How you can help

Our Parish will be joining this very important endeavor. There are many ways to become involved in this program, including making a donation using the envelope attached to the bulletin this weekend.

Please watch upcoming bulletins to learn other ways you can help.
