Pastor's Column

On Living the Resurrected Life

As we mark the Feast of the Resurrection Sunday and begin our celebration of these “Great Fifty Days” of Easter, we are mindful that the Resurrection is not just a one-time event, not just a past event, but most importantly, it is a present reality, a faith context, in which we are called to live, move, and have our being.

“Did You Know?”

We ended our last fiscal year on June 30, 2011. Thanks to your contributions to our “Did You Know Campaign?” we ended the fiscal year in the black! But we did not resolve the $28,000 deficit which we incurred in FY 2009-2010 and which we carried over into FY 2010-2011.

We are now in FY 2011-2012. Your gifts to the “Did You Know Campaign?” make an important difference not only to keep us “in the black,” but help us to resolve the deficit we have been carrying from FY 2009-2010. When you have “a little extra,” please remember the “Did You Know Campaign?” It does make a difference!

I share with you the words of Rev. Henri Nouwen, taken from his book, Sabbatical Journey:

...As we claim our faith in the resurrection of the body, we come to see that the resurrection is not simply an event after death but a reality of everyday life.

Our care for the body calls us to unity beyond organization, to intimacy beyond eroticism, and to integrity beyond psychological wholeness.

Unity, intimacy, and integrity are the three spiritual qualities of the resurrected life.

Our Mission is to: worship God,

In addition to Mass, Reconciliation, and Eucharistic Adoration (see page 1 for schedules), there are opportunities to participate in liturgical and music ministries.

and serve God's people in word and deed.

*For further information, contact Chris Smith,
Director of Stewardship and Development, at 760-758-4100 x120 or chriss@stmoside.org.*

See page 10 or www.stmoside.org for more details.

We are called to break through the boundaries of nationality, race, sexual orientation, age, and mental capacities and create a unity of love that allows the weakest among us to live well.

We are called to go far beyond the places of lust, sexual need, and desire for physical union to a spiritual intimacy that involves body, mind, and heart.

And we are called to let go of old ways of feeling good about ourselves and reach out to a new integration of the many facets of our humanity.

These calls are calls to the resurrection.

Caring for the body is preparing the body for the final resurrection while anticipating it in our daily lives through spiritual unity, intimacy, and integrity.

May our participation in the celebration of these "Great Fifty Days" bring us all to greater unity, intimacy, and integrity!

A most blessed Easter Season!

F.A. Mike

Vocations...Vocations!

As we celebrate our risen Lord and the love our God has shown us, we need to keep in mind God's command to love Him above all and our neighbor as our self. What better way to do this than to be of service to God's people?

If you feel the Spirit calling you to service as a priest, permanent deacon, or consecrated religious, contact Deacon Tom at thomasg@stmoside.org or 760-727-8442.

Little Books for Easter

The Little WHITE Book is available to help you celebrate the Easter Season each day through Pentecost! These six-minute meditations reflect on the Sunday Gospels of Easter.

Your $2 donation helps cover the cost of the book. They are available at the information table on the Plaza or on the lower level of the Parish Center. There are a few in Spanish as well.

Looking for Information on the Catholic Faith?

Are you interested in learning more about Catholicism, becoming a Catholic, or returning to the Catholic Church after being away?

Help Establish STM's Archives

The STM Historian is looking for material from events and activities since our Parish was established in 1985. I am looking for photographs, newspaper clippings, brochures, fliers, reports, videos, drawings—anything that represents our congregational memory! Please check your drawers, file cabinets, and that 'creepy ol' box in the attic. You can drop off your donation at the Parish Office. Thanks!

Get On the Bus

Each year around Mothers Day and Father's Day, hundreds of children and their caregivers board buses and travel from cities all over the State of California to be united with incarcerated family members. St. Thomas More is co-sponsoring two buses with other Churches in North County to travel to the two women's prisons in Chowchilla on May 12 and one bus to the Men's Colony in San Luis Obispo on June 2. It costs $4,000 for each bus to cover all the expenses for the children, caregivers, and travel.

Our Parish will be participating again this year. Watch future bulletins for ways to be involved! One way will be monetary contributions. An envelope was attached to a recent bulletin, and they are also available at the information table on the Plaza.

Voter Registration

We will be setting up a table for voter registration after the weekend Masses April 15, 22, and 29 (for the primaries) and again in October (for the November election). We are looking for Parishioners who would like to help with registration, and we hope to get a tremendous response. You would only have to stay for a short while. If you're on board or have questions contact me at theberliner@sbcglobal.net or 760-434-3710. We will have a brief training session once I have your contact information. Thank you for your consideration.

—Evi Quinn, Parish Social Justice Committee

New Construction Update—March 2012

This is the third of what will be monthly updates to keep all Parishioners informed in regard to the progress of the construction of our Permanent Church and Parish Offices.

1. Substantial conformity submittal, a requirement of St. Thomas More's conditional use permit which contains proposed site plan and exterior elevations of the Church and Parish Offices has been reviewed and approved by the Oceanside Planning Department as of 02/24/2012.
2. The proposed Church plans are currently being priced to ensure the budget is maintained as the design moves forward.
3. Structural design continues with various cost effective foundation options being reviewed.
4. The location of the shear walls that support the Church's roof have been finalized.
5. The proposed roof structure of the Church is currently being studied by an acoustical engineer.
6. Engineering and structural requirements for the future pipe organ is complete.
7. Electrical engineering continues with interior and exterior site lighting options.
8. Final location and design of energy efficient heating and air handling units have been coordinated with the structural and architectural design. This will allow for cost effective heating and cooling of the Church from floor up rather than ceiling down.
9. The IDT has selected the artist, Claire Wing, to create the Marian Shrine.
10. The Interior Design Team (IDT) is interviewing artists who may be selected to create the main Crucifix/Crucifixion Scene for the Church.
11. The IDT continues to discuss the selection of the artist/s for the St. Thomas More Shrine and the Stations of the Cross.

Each Sunday at Mass we pray for all the people who are working "behind the scenes." As you can see much is happening, and soon, and very soon, construction will begin!

Continue to pray for the success of our building program. Also if you have not yet made your pledge or given your gift to this year's "Our Journey Into The Future . . . Together" Phase 2.1 Capital Campaign, now is the time! We need you!

For all that has been, "Thank you!"
For all that will be, "Yes!"

EASTER

A sense of the season

Easter is the greatest season of our church year, the heart and foundation of our Catholic faith, worship, and practice. The Easter season celebrates the completion of an intense forty days of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving, days of spiritual struggle, self-denial, and sacrificial gifts to the poor.

The Easter season also marks the end of our journey through the Three Days, the Triduum, in which we celebrated Jesus giving us the Eucharist on Holy Thursday, walked the Way of the Cross on Good Friday, and came together to celebrate New Life, New Hope, and New Beginnings at the Easter Vigil and on Easter Sunday.

During this Easter season, we also celebrate the newest members of our faith, our Neophytes, those who were baptized and confirmed at the Easter Vigil.

Empty Tomb or Open Door?

*On the first day of the week,
Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning,
while it was still dark,
and saw the stone removed from the tomb.*

We remember the bible accounts from all four Gospel writers and we recall the wonder of the Empty Tomb—He is not here! He is risen! Jesus' grief-stricken disciples and followers had not understood that he had to rise from the dead. But the Empty Tomb brings us to belief. It is an Open Door, we need only enter to experience first-hand the joy and wonder of this New Life we are called to live! If we are stubborn in our belief, embracing faithfully all that is visible and invisible, we become aware that Jesus does not ask any of us what he himself has not first embraced.

What began in darkness at the Easter Vigil breaks into bright Easter Joy! The liturgical color for Easter is white. Our liturgical environment will be extra festive for fifty days, with its central focus being the wonderful painting by our own liturgical artist, Mary Castle. Many thanks to the entire team who faithfully prepares our worship environment inside and out through the changing seasons! Even though the chocolate Easter bunnies and yellow Peeps have all but disappeared from the stores and malls, Easter continues through Pentecost! This is no Ordinary Time; we celebrate the "fullest" fullness of these fifty days! God is so gracious to us!

Showing the Joy!

So how do we show our Easter joy? It is impossible to celebrate and not share it with others! Our Parish is rich with opportunities for your involvement both big and small. Do you have a warm, sunny smile? Become a Hospitality Minister and put it to great effect. Can you hum a tune? Our Music Ministry welcomes new voices. Join one of our Social Justice Ministries, sit quietly with the Blessed Sacrament, welcome our newcomers and seekers of a spiritual home with genuine gladness...this bulletin has all the information you need to help with your continuing transformation as an Easter person!

We invite all to enter our doors, here you will find faith, here you will find fellowship, here you will find a purpose.

The door is open; all are welcome, all are welcome, all are welcome in this place!

Christian Stewardship Celebrating our Salvation

Today we celebrate the greatest event in all of history – Christ's resurrection from the dead. It is the greatest mystery of all time and, therefore, today is the highest celebration of the liturgical year.

As Christian disciples, we not only rejoice in the reality of the resurrection, but, as St. Peter tells us in his speech in the first reading today, we are commissioned to proclaim the good news.

We proclaim Christ to the world by the way we live our lives. Filled with sheer gratitude and joy for what Christ has done, we put Him first in our lives, committing to love and serve Him before all else.

We recognize our time, talents, and treasure as gifts from Him, and we use them to give Him glory.

Then, those who bear witness to our lives see the beauty of Christ in us, and we invite them to live to love and serve Him as well.

This is what it means to be a disciple. We rejoice in the good news, and we proclaim it to all the world!

—excerpted from The Catholic Steward, April 8, Deacon Don McArdle (with permission)

We, at St. Thomas More, are blessed to be in the company of kindred Parishioners, who are like extended family.

This happens in large part because we share the experience of being joyful stewards of God's gifts.

To those who already give so much of your time, talent and treasure ~ thank you. To those who are ready to join us in our wide variety of opportunities, welcome! Contact me anytime to get on board (information at top of the page).

God's peace, blessings and joy this Easter. ~ Chris

Marriage & Family Life Corner

Special Message—Happy Easter! While Easter can sometimes appear to be bunnies, chocolate, and baskets to the younger children, there are ways to build and ensure that the real meaning of Easter shines through. Father Rich Lewandowski wrote a beautiful book for you to share with your family. It's the charming story of a bunny who witnesses the Passion, death, and Resurrection of Jesus. With childlike simplicity, this tale turns our eyes to the true meaning of Easter.

The Bishops' Letter on Marriage—Two Become One: "Marriage, the clinging together of husband and wife as one flesh, is based on the fact that man and woman are both different and the same. They are different as male and female, but the same as human persons who are uniquely suited to be partners or helpmates for each other. The difference between man and woman, however, cannot be restricted to their bodies, as if the body could be separated from the rest of the human person. The human person is a union of body and soul as a single being. Man and woman are two different ways of being a human person." To read the document go to <http://www.usccb.org/loveandlife/>.

Marriage Moments—It's Easter. Celebrate new life today! Recall a hardship in your marriage that is now history. Rejoice that you've weathered it together. Remember this, and Jesus' resurrection, in future tough times.

Parenting Pointers—This Friday will be Friday the 13: Feeling lucky or unlucky often depends on what you focus on. No matter how bad or unlucky your life seems, think of at least one thing for which you are grateful—your health, your freedom to worship, a friendship, the fact that you didn't have an accident today...

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

IN SERVICE TO ONE. IN SERVICE TO ALL.

To: The Men of St. Thomas More Parish
From: Jim Baker, Grand Knight

Who are the Knights of Columbus? The Knights of Columbus are a worldwide organization with over 1.8 million members that donated more than $151 million and 69 million volunteer hours last year to charitable and Church causes. We are Eucharistic ministers, readers, and choir members. Recently, the Knights helped with the ground breaking celebration, conducted the St Bonaventure clothing drive, the mental disabilities tootsie roll drive and prepared meals for North County Solutions for Change. The monies we generate from the Sunday Breakfasts, Lenten Fish Fries, Christmas cards, and Entertainment books sales go right back into the parish to help with the building fund, Right to Life, and other parish organizations.

Does any of this interest you? Have you been looking for a way to be of service to others? Are you interested in meeting other men and families with similar interests in our parish? We can help you to fulfill these goals, live your faith, and get closer to the Lord. The time required to this commitment is the time you're able to give. That is, it doesn't involve any more time than what you have available. We meet on the first Tuesday of the month at the lower level of church and we invite you to our social hour which starts at 6:30 before our general meeting. For more information, ask any Knight or give me a call (760-630-2471). You will be surprised on what you find out and how much we are all alike. Thanks for taking the time to read this and please let any Knight know if you have any questions. We would love to have you join us!

Jim Baker, Grand Knight, St. Thomas More
