Good News from Our Town Crier! Hear Ye, Hear Ye!

The spirit of St. Thomas More is alive and well in his Parish! The town crier is delighted to share the good news that our 2012 Gala raised $60,000 for St. Thomas More!

The Gala mood was festive, the fine feast was enjoyed by all, and there were libations to suit everyone's fancy!

We broke our attendance record that evening as well as raffle and live auction records. Keepsake photos will be mailed out this week!

Festivities continue with the Pastor's Dinner/Excursion on August 26, Scotch Tasting Party on September 23, and the Wine Tasting Party on October 5. Don't miss out on any of these fun activities! We are still counting and payments for all are welcome between now and the first week in August!

Thanks to everyone for such amazing support and to our committee and helpers, one and all!

Father's Day Quotable Quotes

"My grandfather always said that living is like licking honey off a thorn."

—Louis Adamic

"I talk and talk and talk, and I haven't taught people in 50 years what my father taught by example in one week."

—Mario Cuomo

"A king, realizing his incompetence, can either delegate or abdicate his duties. A father can do neither. If only sons could see the paradox, they would understand the dilemma."

—Marlene Dietrich

"My father always told me, 'Find a job you love and you'll never have to work a day in your life.'"

—Jim Fox

"A father is a banker provided by nature."

—French Proverb

"My father didn't tell me how to live; he lived, and let me watch him do it."

—Clarence Budington Kelland

"When I was a kid, I said to my father one afternoon, 'Daddy, will you take me to the zoo?' He answered, 'If the zoo wants you, let them come and get you.'"

—Jerry Lewis

Peter's Pence Collection for the Holy Father

The annual Peter's Pence Collection enables Pope Benedict XVI to offer emergency assistance to those suffering because of war, oppression, and natural disasters. The theme of the collection this year is Cast the Peace of Christ upon the World. Through works of charity, Catholics provide a quiet but powerful witness of love and deeds to empower the weak, the defenseless, and the voiceless, and to sustain those who suffer.

One beneficiary of the program is Nazareth Boys Town in Mbare, Rwanda, which received assistance from Pope Benedict XVI to take in abandoned orphans who are victims of genocide and civil war.

Envelopes were attached to the bulletin earlier this month, and you may return them any time during the month of June. Your prayerful consideration and generosity are much appreciated!

"People see Archie Bunker everywhere. Particularly girls; poor girls, rich girls, all kinds of girls are always coming up to me and telling me that Archie is just like their Dad."

—Carroll O'Connor

"Small boy's definition of Father's Day: It's just like Mother's Day only you don't spend so much."

—Anonymous

"A father is a guy who has snapshots in his wallet where his money used to be."

—Anonymous

"By the time a man realized that maybe his father was right, he usually has a son who thinks he's wrong."

—Charles Wadsworth

"For thousands of years, father and son have stretched wistful hands across the canyon of time, each eager to help the other to his side, but neither quite able to desert the loyalties of his contemporaries. The relationship is always changing and, hence, always fragile; nothing endures except the sense of difference."

—Alan Valentine

Happy Father's Day to all Fathers living and deceased!

Social Ministries/Outreach

La Posada de Guadalupe Men's Shelter

La Posada de Guadalupe Men's Shelter is located in our Parish boundaries and is run by Catholic Charities. Almost seventeen years have passed since La Posada opened its doors to offer not only food and shelter to homeless men, but help in achieving independence by providing tools such as money management, English instruction, assistance in finding jobs and permanent housing—all in a genuinely caring and inspiring environment.

The weekend of June 23-24, we will be selling raffle tickets to help support this most important outreach to men who have fallen on difficult times but who are determined to restore their lives.

Food Bank Contributions

Look for the blue barrels on the Plaza at weekend Masses to deposit your contributions for North County Community Services Food Bank in San Marcos. Thank you for your support! For more information, contact Ron Briseno at 760-758-4100 x153 or ronb@stmoside.org.

Thank You!

On behalf of our faith community, I want to thank our Women's Guild for their $18,000 donation to our Phase 2.1 Capital Campaign to build our Permanent Church and Parish Offices. These ladies work diligently all year with various projects that benefit St. Thomas More. Their Christmas raffle, quilt raffle, bake sales, fashion show, and game day are just a few of the ways they work together to support our Parish!

In gratitude, Rev. Michael Ratajczak

In Gratitude

To the Church of St. Thomas More,

Thank You! Debbie and I are just blown away! We are still trying to catch our breath and register in our heads all the events surrounding my ordination to the permanent diaconate. The reception, the love, and the excitement we have received from this Parish is truly incredible. We could not ask for a better place to call home and family!

So many people have expressed to us how happy they are that we would be serving at St. Thomas More; the reality is that it is an honor and privilege for us to be a part of this community and to serve it in our new capacity. Know that your love is recognized, appreciated and held dearly and I pray that I can return it seventy-sevenfold.

Blessings!

Deacon John & Debbie Fredette

If you are a graduate, please call the Parish Office with your name and the school from which you have graduated. Women's Guild at St. Thomas More provides lots of fun, food and fellowship at our monthly luncheon meetings. We offer prayers and spiritual growth for all our members.

We have many good times doing fund raising for our church. This year our amazing women raised $18,000 to donate to the Building Fund.

We know we have a spot for you. Our dues are still only $5. You can join us in any of the activities we have and it just may be the best decision you make in 2012.

Hope to see you soon.

LITURGY IS...

Each Church gathers regularly
to praise and thank God,
to remember and make present God's great deeds,
to offer common prayer,
to realize and celebrate the kingdom of peace and justice.
That action of the Christian assembly is liturgy.

ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The prophet Ezekiel, writing in exile from Babylon, speaks words of comfort and promise to the exiles. God speaks of transplanting a “tender shoot” (v 22) to his mountain. This shoot will “become a majestic cedar” (v 23), a tree known for its strength, and provide a place of refuge. These words offer Israel the hope that they will be restored as a nation and become a source of blessing for others.

Writing to the church at Corinth, Paul reminds us that “we walk by faith” (v 7); our destiny is in the hands of God. Because God has called us, we must strive to live as disciples of Christ as long as we are in this world. We long to be with the Lord, but as long as we are in this world and away from him, let us serve him faithfully.

Jesus's parables often employ agricultural imagery. In today's text we are presented with the parable of the seed that grows in secret. Though we have much better knowledge of the processes of germination and plant growth today, the process remains the same: we plant and the seed slowly comes to life if conditions are agreeable. The growth is gradual and predictable. So it is with the reign of God, Jesus tells us. God's word will produce a harvest, and to the outsider its growth is a mystery. But Jesus has revealed to his disciples that the growth is the consequence of cooperation between God and the believer. If we work with the word of God planted within us, then we will produce a good harvest. The mustard seed, starting out small, is destined to become a mustard plant. The church is called to become a mustard plant, where God's children can find refuge and welcome “in its shade” (v 32).

For Reflection: When have I experienced the hope of the exiles, knowing that in my darkest hour, God is still with me? How have I seen God at work in my spiritual growth and in my service to others?

Pope to Parents: Teach Children to Pray

VATICAN CITY

If children do not learn to pray from their parents, it will be difficult for them to ever learn to communicate with God naturally, simply and deeply, Pope Benedict XVI said. "In the family, children from the tenderest age can learn to perceive the sense of God thanks to the teaching and example their parents give of living in the presence of God," the pope said at his weekly general audience Dec. 28.

Continuing a series of audience talks on prayer, Pope Benedict looked at the Holy Family as a model of family life marked by faith, work, and regular moments of prayer together. "The Holy Family is the icon of the domestic Church called to pray together. The family is the domestic Church and must be the first school of prayer," he said.

While the Gospels do not give many details about Jesus' childhood, he said, the Bible is clear that Mary and Joseph were observant Jews, which means they prayed at regular times throughout the day and before meals.

Parents,

Look in the back of your child's Faith First book for prayers that could/should be memorized . . . a good summer project with an ice cream reward attached!

Children from age 3 should be able to make the Sign of the Cross (properly).

Teach your children to pray spontaneously as well . . . not just to ASK when in need (though this is good!), but to PRAISE and THANK as we recognize "God Sightings" everyday.

The Measure of a Good Steward

An old priest who had visited the Holy Land as a younger man described how he saw Jesus' example put into actual practice. Women came to the market for grain, he said, and they would be wearing flowing garments covered by a large apron. They would sit and hold their aprons open and the merchant would pour their measure of grain into the apron. If the woman had found a good and generous merchant, he would allow her to shake down the grain to make room for more; he would pack it in until the apron was ready to overflow.

Jesus was masterful at using examples with which his listeners could identify. And cannot the Christian steward readily identify with the women at the market? When we encounter someone who goes out of their way to be generous with us, it warms the heart. We feel a glow of gratitude that brightens our day and propels us to pass on that generosity.

We are bathed in generosity by a God who never fails to give more than we expect or deserve. With a grateful heart, we thank God for these gifts by extending a full measure, a good measure, of our lives' resources to serve Him in others.

Jesus concluded by saying, "For the measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you." Jesus wasn't just assuring us of some heavenly reward, some pie-in-the-sky benefit to generosity. He was declaring that the generous heart of a steward is rewarded every day by a growing awareness and closeness to the God who can never be outdone in generosity.

In today's Gospel, Jesus compares the beginning of God's kingdom to a mustard seed. This tiny seed, which fits in the palm of a hand, can grow to fifteen feet with sprawling branches!

Like the mustard seed, the Christian community had a tiny, seemingly insignificant beginning. The church, which began with about 120 followers, added 3,000 people on Pentecost Day following the descent of the Holy Spirit. Since then, the number of Christ's disciples has grown incalculably and continues to grow throughout the world. Good stewards go about God's business of "planting seeds" among all those they encounter.

What will we do this week to add to God's kingdom?

—ICSC Catholic Stewardship, June 2012 (with permission)

Give and gifts will be given to you; a good measure, packed together, shaken down and overflowing, will be poured into your lap. For the measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you.

—Luke 6:36

Marriage & Family Life Corner

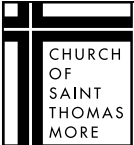

It's Fathers Day! Whether it be a home-made card from your kids or a sweet note from your spouse, help make dad feel extra special today!

The Bishops' Letter on Marriage—Responsible Parenthood: "[Finally], living according to God's design for love and life does not mean that married couples cannot plan their families. The principle of responsible parenthood describes the way spouses can work with God's gift of fertility. Spouses can recognize their own duties towards God, themselves, their families and human society as they decide when to try to achieve a pregnancy or conclude that there are sufficiently serious reasons to justify postponing one." To read the document go to <http://www.usccb.org/loveandlife/>.

Marriage Moments—This Wednesday (June 20) is the official beginning of summer and the longest day of the year. Take advantage of the daylight and do something fun, foolish, or refreshing. Maybe run through a sprinkler together or soak your honey with a squirt gun.

Parenting Pointers—Father's Day "Fathers, do not provoke your children, or they may lose heart." (Colossians 3:21) It's not easy being a father, trying to straddle that delicate balance between firmness and compassion. How did your own father do it? Well or imperfectly? I know you're trying. Keep it up.

The Women's Guild of the Church of St. Thomas More 2012-2013

This is an invitation to the women of the Parish of St. Thomas More. It's time to renew your membership or to add your name to the list of members in the Women's Guild.

Join us for fun, food, and fellowship at our monthly luncheon meetings. For spiritual growth we offer prayers for one another in troubled times and the annual Day of Recollection. We put "fun" in fund raising—the Spring Fashion Show, Game Day, Quilt Raffle, and Bake Sales support our efforts to donate the money we promised for our permanent church.

Annual membership dues are still only $5, payable in cash or check to the Women's Guild. You can place it in the collection basket, or look for the Guild table after Mass and meet with one of the members and learn more as you drop off your membership fee.
