Principles of Dialogue

The word “polarized” is often used today to describe the reality of our world and Church. People seem to be at opposite poles on so many crucial issues.

How do we talk to one another? How do we find solutions to our problems? How do we find “common ground?”

I share with you these “Principles of Dialogue” taken from the Catholic Common Ground Initiative. These principles can help us, I believe, structure a conversation that brings people together to find common solutions to the differences that confront us.

The Principles of Dialogue

1. We should recognize that no single group or viewpoint in the church has a complete monopoly on the truth. While the bishops united with the Pope have been specially endowed by God with the power to preserve the true faith, they too exercise their office by taking counsel with one another and with the experience of the whole church, past and present. Solutions to the church's problems will almost inevitably emerge from a variety of sources.
2. We should not envision ourselves or any one part of the church a saving remnant. No group within the church should judge itself alone to be possessed of enlightenment or
- spurn the mass of Catholics, their leaders, or their institutions as unfaithful.
3. We should test all proposals for their pastoral realism and potential impact on living individuals as well as for their theological truth. Pastoral effectiveness is a responsibility of leadership.
4. We should presume that those with whom we differ are acting in good faith. They deserve civility, charity, and a good-faith effort to understand their concerns. We should not substitute labels, abstractions, or blanketing terms – “radical feminism,” “the hierarchy,” “the Vatican” – for living, complicated realities.
5. We should put the best possible construction on differing positions, addressing their strongest points rather than seizing upon the most vulnerable aspects in order to discredit them. We should detect the valid insights and legitimate worries that may underlie even questionable arguments.
6. We should be cautious in ascribing motives. We should not impugn another's love of the church and loyalty to it. We should not rush to interpret disagreements as conflicts of starkly opposing principles rather than as differences in degree or in prudential pastoral judgments about the relevant facts.

7. We should bring the church to engage the realities of contemporary culture, not by simple defiance or by naïve acquiescence, but acknowledging, in the fashion of Gaudiam et spes, both our culture's valid achievements and real dangers.

Help Establish STM's Archives

The STM Historian is looking for material from events and activities since our Parish was established in 1985. I am looking for photographs, newspaper clippings, brochures, fliers, reports, videos, drawings—anything that represents our congregational memory! Please check your drawers, file cabinets, and that creepy ol' box in the attic. You can drop off your donation at the Parish Office. Thanks!

For more information and questions, please feel free to contact: Brandon at 760-845-5450 or brandon.oswald@gmail.com.

When a Loved One Dies

Call the Parish Office first, before you call the funeral home.

Call anytime, night or day!

Our Parish has a wonderful Bereavement Team that is available when a loved one dies. They are available to assist the family with many arrangements related to the funeral, which might include meeting with the family to pray, helping to plan the funeral, and providing bereavement support afterwards.

In addition, those who like to plan ahead may meet with a Bereavement Team member to pre-plan preferences and place them on record, which can be a great help for children or other family members when the time comes.

If you have any questions, call Sr. Maureen at 760-758-4100 x131.

Social Ministries/Outreach

St. Bonaventure Clothing Drive

A clothing drive to benefit the St. Bonaventure Indian Mission and School will be conducted November 10-11. Begin now to save your clean, gently-used, clothing, blankets, and jackets. Ask your friends and neighbors to save, too. The clothing drive is conducted by the Knights of Columbus.

The Mission is solely dependent on donations to support its operations. St. Thomas More parishioners have been a major supporter through our annual clothing drives. Donated items are given directly to residents of the Navajo Reservation at the Mission's annual Christmas dinner and give-away event. Any remaining items are placed in their thrift shop.

Food Bank Contributions

Look for the blue barrels on the Plaza at weekend Masses to deposit your contributions for North County Community Services Food Bank in San Marcos. Thank you for your support! For more information, contact Ron Briseno at 760-758-4100 x153 or ronb@stmoside.org.

SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In every age the people of God have seen both corruption and sanctity among their shepherds. The prophet Jeremiah speaks words of judgment to those “shepherds who mislead and scatter the flock of my pasture” (v 1). God promises to raise up good shepherds for his people and a “righteous shoot to David” (v 5). Jeremiah goes on to say that the people will recall the goodness of God, “who brought the descendants of the house of Israel up from the land of the north” (v 8) — that is, Babylon — as he once brought them out of Egypt. God’s goodness extends from age to age.

In Ephesians we are told, “you who once were far off have become near by the blood of Christ” (v 13). Through Christ’s death we are reconciled to God — both gentiles and Jews, the author says. Christ has both reconciled us to God and united us in faith through his death. Because of this we “have access in one Spirit to the Father” (v 18).

The disciples return from their mission and report to Jesus. No doubt there was much joy and some disappointment in their reports. Jesus then invites them to join him in a “deserted place [to] rest a while” (Mk 6:31). Even the apostles need a vacation. But Jesus’s reputation is such that he continually attracts large crowds, so they had to escape by boat across the Sea of Galilee. Even then, Mark tells us, people rush ahead to greet him. When the boat gets to the other side of the lake, Jesus and the apostles are met by a crowd. His “heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd” (v 34). Sheep are lost without their shepherd, and so Jesus will minister to this crowd as well. But his invitation to rest is one that we should take seriously. There will always be work to do in God’s vineyard, but the workers sometimes need to rest so as to refresh themselves.

THE LORD IS
My Shepherd
 I SHALL NOT WANT

For Reflection:

Is vacation something I work into my schedule? Something I can miss?

Do I see taking time off as an opportunity to minister to myself?

Do I pray for and support the shepherds of the flock, asking God to keep them strong and faithful?

While you are away this summer, don't forget your parish family! Keep us in your prayers as we keep you in ours... and remember, wherever you roam, there's no place like home!

Travel safe!

Christian Stewardship Food for Thought

The growing of a bountiful crop of peas requires not only hard work, but also careful planning. Before a farmer gathers his harvest, there are several things he must do. The Apostle Paul was not a farmer, but he outlined a program of stewardship that might be compared to a farmer's rows of peas.

In I Corinthians 16:2, he said that our stewardship should be:

Periodic: "Upon the first day of the week . . ." What better time to reflect upon our blessings than the day set aside for worship.

Personal: "lay by him in store . . ." Using all that God blessed us with is not wise stewardship. We should honor God first, not last. Taking God's portion our first keeps us from spending all that we have and then thinking about God.

Proportionate: ". . . as he may prosper . . ." God never requires a set amount. Instead we are to recognize God's blessings, and then give as we have been blessed. If God required a certain amount, many could not give it.

Preventive: ". . . That no collection be made when I come." If everyone gave, there would always be sufficient funds to meet every need. Nothing would be left undone. There would be no need for special offerings, mission offerings, etc. The treasury would run over.

Following the Apostle Paul's plan of church finance will bring in a great harvest. His five rows of "P's" will produce a fine crop every year if each member will practice this kind of farming.

Ultimately, good stewardship is an attitude of faith, trusting that everything tangible and intangible belongs to God and eventually will return to God. Certainly, the concept of stewardship ought to govern the way we financially support our church.

Stewardship also means that we take what we need to live and share part of our income, as well as our time, to serve the kingdom of God.

TOWERS OF FAITH Future Support & Estate Planning Options

Towers of Faith is a movement that has arisen due to the visionary leadership and generosity of several of our parishioners. We stress that this is not about the gift amount, but rather the love and thought behind the gift.

These individuals (several anonymous) have included STM in their estate planning. This helps to ensure their ongoing support and a legacy for our Parish. Towers of Faith is a valuable portion of our future support.

Examples of the various future planning vehicles are:
 Designated Beneficiary Accounts,
 Last Will and Testament, Living Trust, Life Insurance,
 Stocks and Bonds, Real Estate, and Endowments.

Any parishioners who have already included STM in their estate plans are Towers of Faith participants. If you are interested, please contact us. Your participation is most welcome and appreciated!

Marriage & Family Life Corner

The Bishops' Letter on Marriage—Relativism: "By attempting to redefine marriage to include or be made analogous with homosexual partnerships, society is stating that the permanent union of husband and wife, the unique pattern of spousal and familial love, and the generation of new life are now only of relative importance rather than being fundamental to the existence and well-being of society as a whole." To read the document go to <http://www.usccb.org/loveandlife/>.

Marriage Moments— "Why" questions are fine for inquisitive minds but can be an obstacle during marital arguments. Why? It can sound accusatory. "Why did you do that?" "Why don't you just..." Be careful of "Why" questions disguised as innocent queries.

Parenting Pointers—Have faith in your child. Giving your child the message that you believe that he or she can succeed will increase the odds of it happening.
