Pastor's Column

What Is Your Image Of God?

On July 4, 2012, physicists said that they had discovered a new subatomic particle that looks like the "Higgs boson," a key to understanding why there is diversity and life in the universe.

The Higgs boson is also called the "god particle." The Higgs boson is the only manifestation of an invisible force field, a cosmic molasses that permeates space and imbues elementary particles with mass. Particles wading through the field gain heft the way a bill going through Congress attracts riders and amendments, becoming ever more ponderous.

Without the Higgs field, or something like it, all elementary forms of matter would zoom around at the speed of light, flowing through our hands like moonlight. There would be neither atoms nor life.

This new discovery reminded me of a Pastor's Column I wrote a few years ago. Here it is again.

The Spirit in Technology

—Tom Mahon

Instead of picturing God as a medieval monarch on a marble throne, imagine God as the living awareness in the space between the atoms, 'empty' space that makes up about 99.99% of the universe.

Thinking of God that way gets us past some of the great theological divides of the past. Is God immanent or transcendent, internal or external, composed or compassionate? Like the question of whether the atom is wave or particle, the answer is: yes.

The Call of Moses

—Exodus 3:11-14

But Moses said to God, "Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh and lead the Israelites out of Egypt?" God answered, "I will be with you; and this shall be your proof that it is I who have sent you: when you bring my people out of Egypt, you will worship God on this very mountain."

"But," said Moses to God, "when I go to the Israelites and say to them, The God of your fathers has sent me to you, if they ask me, what is his name? What am I to tell them?"

God replied, "I am who am." Then God added, "this is what you shall tell the Israelites: I AM sent me to you."

The two quotes above give us an image of God from within this decade and an image of God from 3,000 years ago. Years apart, but eerily similar!

What is your image of God? How do you imagine God to be? Your "mind picture" of God shapes your daily life, your prayer, your morality, your theology, your philosophy, your interaction with others, and your "place" in the universe.

Take time to reflect upon your image of God. Is your "God Image" helpful to you and others for this time and this place?

F. Mike

Social Ministries/Outreach

The Vatican and the LCWR

The Leadership Conference of Women Religious (LCWR) will be meeting in St. Louis, Missouri from August 7 to August 11, 2012 to begin deliberations in creating a response to the Vatican in regard to its concerns about the activities of the LCWR, which represents 58,000 nuns in the United States.

The LCWR has expressed its gratitude for the many prayer vigils that were held in May of this year in front of many diocesan cathedrals across the country.

Once again, the LCWR is asking for prayerful support from fellow Catholics for the guidance and the light of the Holy Spirit in the hope that there will be a constructive dialogue between the LCWR and the Vatican.

A prayer vigil will be held in front of St. Joseph Cathedral on Tuesday, August 7, at 4:45pm.

STM Parishioners will be carpooling from our parking lot at 3:30pm.

For further information please call Evi Quinn at 760-434-3710.

St. Bonaventure Clothing Drive

A clothing drive to benefit the St. Bonaventure Indian Mission and School will be conducted November 10-11. Begin now to save your clean, gently-used, clothing, blankets, and jackets. Ask your friends and neighbors to save, too. The clothing drive is conducted by the Knights of Columbus.

The Mission is solely dependent on donations to support its operations. St. Thomas More parishioners have been a major supporter through our annual clothing drives. Donated items are given directly to residents of the Navajo Reservation at the Mission's annual Christmas dinner and give-away event. Any remaining items are placed in their thrift shop.

Pennies from Heaven Collection

The annual Pennies from Heaven collection to benefit Birth Choice, our local pregnancy resource center, and their Growing Families program, will be the weekend of August 18-19. Start saving your coins and cash now! Representatives from our Culture of Life committee will be at all Masses to collect your donations. For more information, please contact Jane Kelleher at 760-822-7041.

Treasures 2012

This year's Treasures Flea Market will be Saturday, October 6. Save your gently used “treasures” for donation. In the last two years we have raised over $20,000. Help us turn clutter into cash, garage fodder into gold, and cast-offs into coins! Wait until you see the plant sale. It is shaping up to be another big success with over 45 nurseries donating and counting!

We will need lots of help to pull this off. 75 volunteers are needed over a two-day period. Once again, we will accept donations the Friday before and the morning of. Look for more details to come soon and save those treasures! Any questions or early volunteer sign ups? Contact Chairperson John Murphy at 760-497-6117.

Parish Events

Women's Guild News

We are in the middle of our membership drive now, and for your convenience, we will be on the Plaza the weekend of August 4-5. Please stop by our table and sign up for the Women's Guild of St. Thomas More. If you have your form already, you can place it in the collection basket and mark it "Women's Guild."

Our guild provides lots of fun, food, and fellowship at our monthly luncheon meetings. We offer prayers and spiritual growth for all our members. We are planning another awesome year of programs for you, so please join us—we will make it easy for you. We promise you'll have lots of activity for the year. Plus, you will be a part of a group that will give all our proceeds to the Building Fund.

Our dues are still only $5. You can join us in any of the activities and it just may be the best decision you make in 2012.

Seize the day, don't have regrets, and most importantly, stay close to friends and family.

Hope to see you soon.

—Vera Bayliss, President

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME*“And with Your Spirit”—You May Have the Wrong Idea

If you're not over fifty and you didn't take high school Latin to help improve your SAT score, you may not know what “et cum spiritu tuo” means; it translates into “and with your spirit”. Does it sound familiar now?

“And with your spirit” is the updated response resulting from the New Translation of the Roman Missal which replaces “and also with you”. So it's really not an update or new translation at all, but an accurate translation of what has been said since the early church. It corrects the “dynamic translation” which came about after the Second Vatican Council. In fact, “and with your spirit” has been the translation used by almost all of the other major languages. But you might say, “and also with you” was so easy and understandable, it really just meant “same to you” in response to the celebrants “the Lord be with you”. But that understanding and translation is misleading and perhaps incomplete.

Monsignor Charles Pope blogs that what we are really saying is that we acknowledge “the grace and presence of Christ who is present and operative in the spirit or soul of the celebrant [...] in a unique way in virtue of his ordination [, ... and] that is unlike any other non-ordained member of the congregation. The priest acts in persona Christi. That is, Christ personally ministers through him in such a way that we say that Christ is the true priest and celebrant of every Mass.

The phrase ‘and with your spirit’ is an acknowledgment and statement of faith in this fact.”

VBS Connects Kids to Justice

Malaria is one of the deadliest diseases impacting poor children around the world, particularly in Africa. Every 30 seconds a child dies from malaria . . . more than 2,000 children die from it every day.

So we invited our children at VBS to partner with Catholic Relief Services in an effort to protect children from this disease through the gift of simple mosquito nets.

Each day of VBS the children put their change into a big bucket and put a clip on the mosquito net hanging over the cot on the stage as a sign of their willingness to help.

For each $6, CRS can purchase one bed net that will protect two or more children. These specially treated nets, draped over a child's bed while he or she sleeps, can last up to four years and are a powerful weapon against malaria.

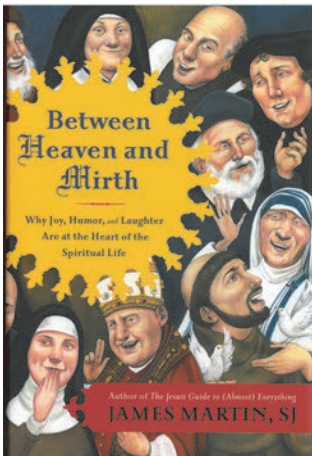

Over the five days of VBS, Anthony Barela shared stories about this project with the children and encourage everyone's help. As the week came to an end, the 260 of us contributed $762 which will purchase 127 nets to cover 254 or more children . . . truly,

Everything is possible with God!

Fr. Mike's Bookies

In June Fr. Mike wrote: "It is summer . . . change the normal routine . . . let July and August be different . . . be 're-created.'"

So, here's a great book for just that purpose:

Between Heaven and Mirth
by James Martin, SJ

Available for review or purchase ($15) outside the Faith Formation Office.

Steubenville San Diego

80 teens and chaperones from St. Thomas More participated this weekend in an awesome three-day retreat experience known as Steubenville San Diego.

It is held at USD and attended by over 4,000 Teens and Youth Leaders for a weekend of fun, friendship, and faith. There are great music, incredible speakers, time for prayer, and good food.

Please keep our STM participants in your prayers that their weekend is fruitful and the experience lasts for a long time to come.

Chocolate

The Youth Justice Foundation will return to the Plaza next weekend, August 4-5 with a variety of 3.5 oz bars of Equal Exchange Fairly Traded Chocolate for $4 each.

Stewardship & Development

Serve God's People

Gratitude Is a Solid Foundation for Christian Stewardship

It is important to remember that God is at work when we share the gifts God has bestowed on us. Today, with the story of the multiplication of the loaves and the fish, is a good time to review our reasons for giving.

Guilt-giving (give until it hurts).

Sometimes people become involved because they feel guilty. You've heard it said: "It is easy to get Catholics to give. All you have to do is make them feel guilty."

But guilt is not participation in the mission of the Church. It is compensation for something people feel bad about—in other words, a preoccupation with self. People do give out of a sense of guilt, but when the guilt is gone, so is the stewardship.

Need-giving (give if someone else hurts).

People also give because they perceive a specific need. Father will ask for contributions to repair a leaky roof or patch a weathered parking lot, and people will give money and talent to fix the problem.

This approach has been called "pothole" giving. This approach is fine, but when the need is gone, so is the stewardship.

Thanksgiving (give until it feels good).

The strongest foundation for giving is gratitude. The unique quality of thanksgiving emphasizes the need of the Parishioner to give, rather than the need of the Parish to receive.

Thanksgiving is a way of life.

Christ didn't say, "Come follow me until we fix this particular problem, and then we'll disband." He said, "Come follow me."

—Partially excerpted from The Body of Christ: How Can I Make A Difference (with permission)

Start by doing what is necessary, then what's possible, and suddenly you are doing the impossible.

A WAY TO GIVE ~ A WAY TO RECEIVE

DESIGNATED BANK ACCOUNTS, WILLS, LIVING TRUSTS, STOCKS, LIFE INSURANCE, MUTUAL FUNDS, REAL ESTATE, ENDOWMENTS

Planned Giving is a generic term that covers the many ways an individual can give to a charity while, in many cases avoiding taxes. A few examples of Planned Giving are: Designated Beneficiary Accounts, Wills, Living Trusts, Stocks, Life Insurance, Mutual Funds, Endowments, and Real Estate.

This program is one way of helping the Parish raise the resources necessary to continue our campus build out and also help plan for our future needs (i.e., Tower of Faith participants). Gifts of this nature are beneficial and much appreciated by St. Thomas More.

Marriage & Family Life Corner

The Bishops' Letter on Marriage—Domestic Violence: "In some cases, divorce may be the only solution to a morally unacceptable situation. A specific example is a home where the safety of a spouse and children is at risk. As the Catholic bishops of the United States, we reiterate what we said in our pastoral message on domestic violence, When I Call for Help, namely, that no one in a marriage is obliged to maintain common living with an abusing spouse. We want to assure people who are caught in the tragedy of an abusive marriage that the Church is committed to offering them support and assistance." To read the document go to <http://www.usccb.org/loveandlife/>.

Marriage Moments—Have you ever had to feed a large crowd? Perhaps more guests came than you planned. Yes, plan ahead, but when circumstances surprise you, take what you have, give thanks, and offer it. It will be enough. Don't fight with your spouse over who didn't plan enough.

Parenting Pointers—Learn about the stages of child development. Having appropriate expectations of your child will help both of you avoid frustration. For example, trying to toilet-train your child too early or expect him to sit quietly for long periods of time will only frustrate you both.

For more information, visit www.diocese-sdiego.org/Ministries/Marriage & Family Life or call Jen Frost at 760-758-4100 x100.
