Pastor's Column

Let Whoever Is Simple Turn in Here!

"Let whoever is simple turn in here!" (Proverbs 9:4) This one line is taken from today's First Reading.

I think it would make a great message for a sign in front of our Church or any Church, for that matter!

But I wonder how many people would turn in because of it? Would more people "turn away" rather than "turn in" because they would not want to be considered "simple?"

"Simple" has a negative connotation in our world today. When we say that someone is "simple-minded," it describes a person who seems to be unable to fully cope with life; someone who has less than what is necessary to properly navigate through the waters of this life.

Yet, here is the dictionary definition of "simple:" ...easy to understand, deal with, use; not elaborate or artificial; not ornate or luxurious; unaffected, unassuming, modest; not complicated.

Reflecting upon that definition, I would be happy to call myself "simple," and I would see "simplicity" as a goal worthy of achievement!

Wisdom calls: "Let whoever is simple turn in here." To the one who lacks understanding, she says, "Come, eat of my food, and drink of the wine I have mixed! Forsake foolishness that you may live; advance in the way of understanding."

This piece of Scripture tells us that if we are to enter into God's presence and to be fed and nourished by our God, we must let go of artificiality, ornamentation, luxuriousness, and to experience God, we must be unaffected, unassuming, modest, and not complicated.

All of this so goes against the world in which we live! We create artificial shells in which we live, and we pride ourselves in trying to have more, be more, and do more than others. We live in an environment of competition rather than in a spirit of cooperation.

We are constantly comparing and judging others against ourselves. Material possessions, educational background, income status, titles and degrees, all seem to be the qualities by which we judge ourselves and others.

And yet, all of this is foolishness! None of it lasts. None of it is important in the eyes of our God.

All that matters is our "simplicity." Our willingness to accept life on its terms and not ours, to see ourselves as pilgrims on a journey of faith, to realize that we have come from God and that we are making our way back to God.

"We are spiritual beings having a human experience, not human beings having a spiritual experience." (Rev. Pierre Teilhard de Chardin)

Along the way, we need to be fed and nourished, and this is what our God desires to do for us, and will do for us, if we heed the advice of Wisdom, as she speaks to us: "Let whoever is simple turn in here!"

Little Rock Scripture Study

Wednesday, September 19 at 9:00am or Thursday, September 20 at 7:00pm we begin our 14-session study of Paul's letters to the Galatians and the Romans. These sessions are open to all who would like to spend time in a small group growing in love for the scriptures through study and discussion.

Galatians and Romans are pivotal for those seeking to understand the faith and teaching of the Apostle Paul. Many of Paul's themes are shared by Galatians and Romans, but the tone and length of the two works differ sharply.

Galatians addresses Paul's understanding of Christian freedom and justification by faith. He reprimands the Galatians for deserting the Gospel by seeking justification through circumcision rather than through faith in Christ, who achieved our salvation by his sacrifice on the cross. Romans is the longest of Paul's letters. It addresses the universal reality of sin in the world and the need for salvation in Jesus Christ. It explores both the strength and limits of the law of Moses. Paul examines the new life attained in the Holy Spirit as God's gift and proclaims the mystery of God's plan to save Israel. Romans also highlights the ethical demands of the gospel.

Plan to join us as we discover why the scriptures offer us reasons for hope and joy. For more information, contact Kathleen Bell at 760-758-4100 x110 or kathleenb@stmoside.org.

Vocations

As we enter into the last weeks of summer and prepare to enter into the hectic pace of our normal lives, we should ask ourselves: Are we satisfied with our current choices of a life vocation? Are we doing that which God is calling us to do? Are we being fulfilled by the vocational choice we have made? If your answer to any of these questions is "no," and if you have an inkling that maybe God is calling you to serve Him and His Church by becoming a priest, deacon, or religious, contact Deacon Tom at thomasgoeltz@aol.com or 760-727-8442.

TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Bread of Life Discourse—Week Three

The Book of Proverbs consists of material that spans many centuries of biblical Israel's history, primarily the days of the monarchy from the 11th to the 6th centuries BCE. The first nine chapters, including today's reading, are thought to be from a later century when the writings were compiled, sometime after the Exile. These texts, along with other "Wisdom" writings, give us some insight into the centuries leading up to Jesus. Wisdom is personified as a woman who is hosting a feast. She invites the naive to partake of her banquet and "advance in the way of understanding". As an ancient textbook for young men living in Israel, the book encourages them to choose the better of the two ways: the way of life. Wisdom is offered to all, but not everyone accepts the invitation. Early Christianity came to understand Wisdom as a foreshadowing of the Word-made-flesh, Jesus Christ.

The Ephesians are warned not to live foolishly but to be wise, "making the most of the opportunity, because the days are evil." Today's reading exhorts the community to dedicate itself to striving to grow in wisdom and acting in holiness in their relations with one another. We too need to heed these words as we are also called to be God's light to the world.

In the Gospel today, Jesus tells us that he is "the living bread that came down from heaven". But John tells us that some had a hard time understanding this. Since Jesus has not yet instituted the Eucharist, they think that he means they must eat and drink his actual flesh and blood. John's church understands this, as their weekly celebration of the Lord's Supper is a sharing in the body and blood of Christ. Jesus says that there are two benefits in eating his flesh and drinking his blood: it unites the believer to him, and it leads to eternal life.

Our First Christian Steward: The Blessed Virgin Mary

On August 15 we celebrated the Feast of the Assumption; the day we recall Our Blessed Mother being assumed into heaven and crowned queen. The Gospel reading on that day proclaims once again the Canticle of Mary, recorded in the Gospel of Luke (1:46-55). It is the Virgin Mary's song of joy in response to her cousin Elizabeth's greeting (Luke 1:41-45) and summarizes Mary's deep faith and trust in God.

This joyous song is also known as the Magnificat, from the opening line of scripture's Latin translation which means "My soul magnifies the Lord" (Magnificat anima mea Dominum). The Magnificat is a beautiful stewardship prayer used by the Church every day since the fifth century. It is a hymn at Evening Prayer in the Liturgy of the Hours.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches us that the Magnificat:...is the song both of the Mother of God and of the Church; the song of the Daughter of Zion and of the new People of God; the song of thanksgiving for the fullness of graces poured out in the economy of salvation and the song of the "poor" whose hope is met by the fulfillment...(#2619).

Among the many stewardship themes in this reading, the prayer helps us realize that God's stewardship plan turns the world's values upside down. And for those who entrust their lives to the Lord, they are filled with good things.

As a very young woman, humble and poor, Mary becomes an interpreter of God's plan of salvation, she reveals to us the fundamentals of good stewardship, and she becomes a prophetic witness to social justice for all future generations who "will call me blessed" (Luke 1: 48).

Mary was the first disciple, the first Christian steward of God's plan. Consider its implications for your life.

- † How do you magnify the Lord?
- † How do you make God "bigger" in your day-to-day world?
- † How do you bring God's compassion to the poor?

—excerpted from ICSC Parish Stewardship, August 2012 (with permission)

Mary said "Yes" to God, unconditionally.
How do we respond to God?

Annual Catholic Appeal—We're Almost There!

To date, $47,152 has been pledged by 371 families, with an average of $127.10 per family. We need about $850 more to meet our assessment of $48,000—can you help?

If 17 families pledge $50 each, we'll reach our goal!

This annual appeal from the Diocese is our opportunity to "pay it forward" and help other Parishes as we have been helped, as well as support Diocesan charitable outreach and education efforts. Your prayerful consideration is appreciated! Packets are available at the information table on the Plaza.

Marriage & Family Life Corner

The Bishops' Letter on Marriage—Imitating Christ: “Christian spouses are called to this imitation of Christ, an imitation that is possible only because, in the Sacrament of Matrimony, the couple receives a participation in his love. As a sacrament, marriage signifies and makes present in the couple Christ’s total self-gift of love. Their mutual gift of self, conferred in their promises of fidelity and love to the end, becomes a participation in the love to the end by which Christ gave himself to the Church as to a Spouse (see Jn 13:1).” To read the document go to <http://www.usccb.org/loveandlife/>.

Marriage Moments—“Live, not as foolish persons but as wise.” (Eph 5:15) Who is the wisest (not smartest) living person you know? Who is the most foolish? Do you and your spouse share the same opinion of these people?

Parenting Pointers—“The best message that parents can send children is ‘I love you but I expect you to behave properly.’” (Mary Pipher) Parents get tired and it’s tempting to overlook bad behavior because it takes energy to hold our children accountable. Summon up an ounce of energy the next time you need to hold your child accountable.
