We Are in Need of More Hospitality Ministers – How About You?

Here at St. Thomas More, a hallmark of our week-end liturgies is hospitality. The climate is one of care, concern, and a desire to know one another, especially the newcomer, the guest.

This spirit of hospitality does not just happen. It takes concerted effort and a commitment to do things differently—to be deliberate in our interaction with each other.

As a Faith Community, when we gather to celebrate, we commit ourselves to be welcoming to the stranger in our midst, to the one who may be with us for the first time.

Also, we dedicate ourselves to each other, who come week after week. We commit ourselves to getting to know each other, to share our stories, and to support each other on life's journey.

Hospitality is a hallmark of a Christian, an attitude that we are to carry with us in all the situations of our everyday lives.

I share with you some thoughts about hospitality from Fr. Henri Nouwen. These words are taken from his book, Reaching Out:

Hospitality means primarily the creation of a free space where the stranger can enter and become a friend instead of an enemy. Hospitality is not to change people, but to offer them space where change can take place. It is not to bring men and women over to our side, but to offer freedom not disturbed by dividing lines.

It is not to lead our neighbor into a corner where there are no alternatives left, but to open a wide spectrum of options for choice and commitment. It is not an educated intimidation with good books, good stories and good works, but the liberation of fearful hearts so that words can find roots and bear ample fruit.

Opportunity to Help Local Families in Need

North County Solutions for Change women and children's shelter needs volunteers for meal preparation, servers, and donations (food and paper goods). STM has committed to providing one meal per month for this ministry. In this way we answer the call of Jesus to feed the hungry and this is in our neighborhood. Any help you can provide is welcome!

Organizations as well as individuals are invited to participate with portions/or entire meal preparation, drinks, desserts, and/or monetary contributions to offset the cost for those able to cook. Please prayerfully consider if you are able to help with this important ministry and call to find out which months are available.

For more information, contact Kevin & Lyn Leahy at 760-643-0872 or [kleahy12@cox.net](mailto:k Leahy12@cox.net).

It is not a method of making our God and our way into the criteria of happiness, but the opening of an opportunity to others to find their God and their way.

The paradox of hospitality is that it wants to create emptiness, not a fearful emptiness, but a friendly emptiness where strangers can enter and discover themselves as created free; free to sing their own songs, speak their own languages, dance their own dances; free also to leave and follow their own vocations.

Hospitality is not a subtle invitation to adopt the life style of the host, but the gift of a chance for the guest to find his own.

One of the most important first steps in hospitality is the greeting that comes as one enters the Plaza toward the Church.

The Hospitality Ministers are the "frontline" that greet and welcome the people to St. Thomas More Parish.

A smile, a hello, a welcome, and the giving of a Worship Aid are the beginnings of creating an environment of hospitality.

We are in need of more Hospitality Ministers!

Please think about whether the Spirit is calling you to this ministry. If so, please give Douglas Lynn, our Director of Liturgy and Music, a call to let him know. His phone number and email address are on page 6 of the bulletin.

We need you!

Let us continue to challenge each other to make hospitality a way of life here at St. Thomas More!

Vocations

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells his disciples not to prevent others from doing good deeds in his name, saying "whoever is not against us is for us." His discipleship is open to good people who honestly wish to bring about the Kingdom. The need for followers to bring forth the Kingdom remains. If you wish to explore the possibilities of working to promote God's Kingdom as a priest, deacon, or religious, contact Deacon Tom at thomasgoeltz@aol.com or 760-727-8442.

Social Justice Committee Update—

DACA: Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals

This month, a meeting was held by Catholic Charities, with the support of the Diocese, and in conjunction with SDOP (San Diego Organizing Project) to inform Parish Leaders in regard to the ways in which Catholic Charities will help undocumented youth apply for "DACA." "Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals" does not give legal status or a visa, but rather it provides a decision by the Department of Homeland Security to not deport someone who does not have a legal right, at this time, to remain in the United States.

These are people who were brought here by their parents or other family members as infants and children and who do not know any other place than the U.S. to call home. They presently live in the shadows of our society absolutely through no fault of their own!

What DACA is NOT!

- It is not a law.
- It is not amnesty.
- It is not a lawful immigration status.

What are the benefits of DACA?

- Provides eligibility for a work authorization
- Provides eligibility for a valid social security number
- Defers deportation for a period of 2 years
- Stops accrual of "unlawful presence"
- Offers ability to travel outside U.S. with prior approval after DACA
- May qualify for certain state benefits. For example, driver's license, loans, grants
- Enables a life outside the shadows and fear of deportation during DACA.

There are also many risks to presenting oneself to the authorities, especially if the appeal is denied and the person is placed in removal. This program is temporary with no guarantee that it will be extended. It could be revoked by future Presidents and could be terminated at any time. Yet many immigrant youth are willing to take these risks in order to live as responsible and productive members of our society.

St. Francis of Assisi Parish will be offering this program and St. Thomas More Parish will assisting in this project. Please contact Sr. Maureen at the Parish Office (760-758-4100 x131) for further information.

St. Bonaventure Clothing Drive

A clothing drive to benefit the St. Bonaventure Indian Mission and School will be conducted November 10-11. Begin now to save your clean, gently-used, clothing, blankets, and jackets. Ask your friends and neighbors to save, too. The clothing drive is conducted by the Knights of Columbus.

Parish Events

Women's Guild News

Our meeting on October 8 will host a wonderful baker, Jerry Peralta. Jerry will be giving us "Baking Tips for the Bake Sale" and other baking projects. Call me, Vera Bayliss at 760-295-0059 or Siggie Ogan at 760-994-4727 to make reservations so we know how much to cook for our lunch. Meeting starts at 11:00am on the lower level of the Parish Center. We will have a great lunch waiting for you.

Also in October we will be holding our semi-annual Bake Sale and our one-time "Small Quilted Items Sale." The date is October 20-21 for both events. Our quilted items have all been hand made and donated. Remember all those birthdays ahead and Christmas, too! Please stop by our tables before or after each Mass that weekend.

Give people more than they expect and do it cheerfully.

Social Justice Committee: Immigration Survey

We thank all of you who responded to the immigration survey in print and on line in June, 2012. About 20% (198 people) of about 1000 Parish families answered the questions and told their stories, and thus helped to give a snapshot of our Parish. (Twenty percent is considered a good response.)

We developed this survey, because we wanted to share the excitement we felt last year (2011) when our Parish hosted an Immigration Reflection Day. Listening to each other's stories helped us get in touch with what we held in common and what was unique to each family.

Next week, look for a flyer in the bulletin that will summarize the results of the survey.

Here are some previews of the results and questions to provoke your thinking:

- Some of our families have ancestors who came to what would be the U.S. in the the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries. When did the majority of our families arrive?
- Some people came because they were escaping a war and genocide or because they wanted to be reunited with family. What do you think drew most of our families to the United States?
- Most people who took the survey had ancestors who came from Europe, with Ireland and England as the second place of origin. What Asian countries are represented?

Thank you for supporting this survey. Watch for the results next week!

—Cathy Blecki, Social Justice Committee

Knights of Columbus Entertainment Books

The Knights of Columbus will be selling Entertainment Books for $40 on the Plaza after weekend Masses, and the proceeds will go to helping our church and community. Please contact Matt Perun at 760-734-1934 if you are interested or have any questions.

Thank You!

...for your generosity in the toiletry/underwear drive for Brother Benno's. Your continued support helps God's people in need.

Men's Fellowship Retreat

The St. Thomas More Men's Fellowship is having their second annual Men's Retreat on October 12-14 in Julian. If you attended last year's retreat, you know what a great time it was, and if you have never been before, come see what you have been missing. The theme of the retreat is based on Romans 7:18: "The will to do what is right is present within me, but in my sinful nature, the power to carry it out is not." Our featured speaker will be Cy Kellett. Get your registration form here and drop it off at the Parish : www.stmoside.org/men/MensFellowshipRetreat2012.pdf or call Deacon John Fredette for more information at 760-758-4100 x132.

Treasures 2012

This year's Treasures Flea Market will be Saturday, October 6. Save your gently used "treasures" for donation. In the last two years we have raised over $20,000. Help us turn clutter into cash, garage fodder into gold, and cast-offs into coins! Wait until you see the plant sale. It is shaping up to be another big success with over 45 nurseries donating and counting!

We will need lots of help to pull this off. 75 volunteers are needed over a two-day period. Once again, we will accept donations the Friday before and the morning of. Look for more details to come soon and save those treasures! Any questions or early volunteer sign ups? Contact Chairperson John Murphy at 760-497-6117.

POUSTINA WITH THE WORD

Scripture Themes for October

by Patricia Datchuck
Sánchez and Rafael
Sánchez Alonso,
excerpted from
Celebration
October 2012.,
with permission.

Are you a poustinik? Do you have a poustinia? Poustinia is the Russian word for a small, sparsely appointed room or cabin where a poustinik may go to pray and fast and experience the presence of God in solitude. Etymologically, poustinia finds its roots in the Russian word for desert or wilderness.

Originally a Russian Orthodox tradition, the poustinia was introduced to Western spirituality by the social activist Catherine de Hueck Doherty. In the book Poustinia: Christian Spirituality of the East for Western Man (Madonna House, Ottawa, Canada, 1975), Doherty said, "To go into the poustinia means to listen to God. It means entering into kenosis—the emptying of oneself." Although the poustinik regularly prays alone, he or she remains available to others to share not only spiritual treasures and experience but also to serve the physical needs of others. Conrad Hoover suggested that believers might follow Doherty's example and create poustinias in our homes ("No Choice but to Pray," Sojourners, June 1977). If we did so, if we watched and waited alone with the Lord, then we would come to know the poustinia in our hearts where Jesus is always present to us and goes with us into a wounded and worried world.

Built right into our liturgical calendar is a weekly (or, for some, daily) experience of poustinia. Each time we gather around the table of the Lord and listen to the living, breathing word of God, we commune with God. We are fed, body and soul, and equipped to share in the ongoing process of redeeming and gracing our world with the love of God. At the very heart of our poustinia experience this month (Oct. 14), the eloquent author of Hebrews will remind us that the word of God is as penetrating as a two-edged sword, capable of discerning all that is within the human mind and heart and spirit. As we stand before this word, open to its truth, there can be no dissembling, no hiding, no excuses. This word is God-breathed, i.e., inspired by the Spirit, who also inspires those who hear that word and empowers them to translate it into their lives.

This month, the living, penetrating, and inspired word of God will invite us to look at four very important aspects of the human experience, each of which holds challenges that cannot be minimized as well as blessings that cannot be measured.

On Oct. 7, our poustinia with the word will center on marriage and divorce. In a society where half of all marriages end in divorce and same-sex marriage is hotly debated, this is never an easy issue to tackle. Nevertheless, the word of God with its penetrating truth does not permit us to approach it cafeteria-style, taking only what we find attractive and doable while avoiding what is hard to hear and even harder to live. Jesus never shied away from an issue that was sure to spark controversy and resentment. Neither can those in the pews or in the pulpit sugarcoat the word of God in order to avoid conflict.

Riches will be the issue the word of God addresses on Oct. 14. While material wealth can give us opportunity to alleviate the needs of others, it can also be an impediment to authentic discipleship. Aware of this, the Marcan Jesus will invite a rich man to sell what he has, give it to the poor, and then come and follow him. Mark tells us the man's face fell and he went away sad, for he had many possessions. Will we, too, go away sad from this poustinia experience because we place more value on what is in our pockets and purses than on what Jesus has to offer?

With the request of James and John on Oct. 21, the praying assembly will be invited to ponder their propensity for unbridled ambition. These two wished to share in his glory and be seated at places of highest honor; Jesus challenged them to set aside their desire for greatness in order to place themselves at the service of others. Leadership through service and sacrifice was the way of Jesus, but it has yet to become the way of all his followers. For this reason, we return again and again to pray, to listen, to believe, and to be graced.

On the last Sunday of October (Oct. 28), the sacred texts will ask us to consider illness, healing, and faith. Jesus will tell Bartimaeus that his faith in Jesus' power enabled him to see. Similar faith helped to effect the healings of many in Jesus' day: the deaf, the lame, the diseased, the possessed. Today, Jesus' followers are to minister to the needs of the physically, spiritually, and mentally ill. When healing cannot be achieved, then we can create for the ill, the broken, and the wounded a poustinia of peace and acceptance where they may know the support of our prayers, the security of our care, and the warmth of our love until faith carries them home to God.

Christian Stewardship Seeing a Need

One afternoon in Chicago, officials gathered to await the arrival of the new Nobel Peace Prize winner. When he arrived, the officials came to greet him.

The man thanked them, and then looking over their heads, asked if he might be excused for a moment. He walked through the crowd until he reached an elderly woman who was struggling to carry two large suitcases to a bus. He picked up the bags and escorted the woman to the bus, then returned to the welcoming committee.

Later, a member of that committee was telling a friend about the event. He summed it up by saying, "I think that was the first time I ever saw a sermon walking."

The man who had delivered that graphic sermon was the missionary doctor who had spent his life helping the poor in Africa, Dr. Albert Schweitzer.

Seeing the need, then doing what Jesus would do. That is stewardship of our time. It will say more to those around us than our position or our words. And it gives anyone a chance to be a walking sermon!

—Stewardship, September 2012, Parish Publishing LLC (with permission)

This weekend we are having a New Member Reception for all who have registered St. Thomas More since March. These events are always a lot of fun as we have new members meeting Parish leadership, staff and several of our Welcome Ministers.

The reception and luncheon put on by our terrific Membership Committee is excellent. Welcoming hospitality is their specialty!

Additionally, however, the opportunity for everyone to meet, mix, and mingle is a positive experience. Many of our new members have already stepped into a ministry of choice! For those who have not, this event gives everyone a better idea of the many opportunities we offer at STM to be "walking sermons" in our time and place!

—Chris

Marriage & Family Life Corner

The Bishops’ Letter on Marriage—Marriage in the Church: “As a vocation, or call from God, marriage has a public and ecclesial status within the Church. Catholic spouses ordinarily exchange marital consent within a church setting, before a priest or deacon. The living-out of marriage takes place within the whole Body of Christ, which it serves and in which it finds nourishment.” To read the document go to <http://www.usccb.org/loveandlife/>.

Marriage Moments—“What were you arguing about?...If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last.” (Mk 9:33, 35) This teaching of Jesus parallels the perennial marital argument about who is right. Arguments can often be shortened if you can give up the need to be right—every time.

Parenting Pointers—One of the Spiritual Works of Mercy is to “Counsel the Doubtful.” Parents can sometimes doubt whether they are being too strict or too lenient with discipline; too generous or too tight with giving their kids money... Check your doubts with other wise parents.

Nick, a single American Italian, has been living with the grandparents in New Jersey since his parents moved to Florida. Now he has to say goodbye, because he has been offered a job in Seattle. To say his grandparents are unhappy is an understatement. In what resembles a C.I.A. operation, the grandparents call in back ups: his other grandparents! Together these four fired-up Italians make it their goal to keep Nick at home. No matter what!! A hilarious family comedy.
