Proposition 34—California End the Death Penalty Act

The California Conference of Catholic Bishops is supporting Proposition 34 which will be on the ballot in the November Election.

Included in today's Bulletin is an insert stating the position of the California Bishops for your consideration as you prepare to vote in November.

I share with you a Pastor's Column that I wrote in May 2001. Through this reflection, I present one way which may help us to decide that the death penalty should be abolished.

Timothy McVeigh and "The Hound of Heaven"*

*"The Hound of Heaven," a poem, by Francis Thompson, 1859-1907

Timothy, my son! Why? For what reason? How could you, with such calm and reason, kill 168 innocent people, especially infants and children? Doesn't life mean anything to you?

I know that you were trying to make a point, trying to get your perspective across to the world. I know it had to do with Waco, Texas, and the Branch Davidians. But taking revenge on innocent people in Oklahoma City is not justifiable. I do not understand the logic. Two wrongs do not make a right! Killing people in order to say that killing people is wrong just doesn't make sense to me!

Timothy, I continue to love you. You are my son. I created you. I love you just as much as I love those 168 men, women, and children whose lives you cut short. They are with me now in my Reign, but they still had so much life to live! Some of them were going to make tremendous contributions to society.

You didn't know, of course, but one of the infants you killed was going to find the ultimate cure for cancer. Now it will take decades more before that happens. And another child would have created the technology to harness the sun's energy. In your lifetime, solar energy would have ended the need for nuclear power, coal, oil, and natural gas. Now it will take several more lifetimes before that happens. And in the meantime, nuclear waste is going to cause much damage to the human race and environment.

Did You Know?

The cost of water (landscape and domestic/drinking water) for the Parish Center and the rectory amounted to $29,962.65 for FY 2011-2012. It takes at least two Sunday collections just to pay for our yearly water bill!

Your gift to the "Did You Know?" Campaign will help us balance the Operations Budget.

Opportunity to Help Local Families in Need

North County Solutions for Change women and children's shelter needs volunteers for meal preparation, servers, and donations (food and paper goods). STM has committed to providing one meal per month for this ministry. In this way we answer the call of Jesus to feed the hungry and this is in our neighborhood. Any help you can provide is welcome!

Organizations as well as individuals are invited to participate with portions or entire meal preparation, drinks, desserts, and/or monetary contributions to offset the cost for those able to cook. Please prayerfully consider if you are able to help with this important ministry and call if you can help with one of the following available dates:

World Mission Sunday

Envelopes were attached to the bulletin last week for World Mission Sunday, an annual collection that allows us to support the missionary work of the worldwide Church. The Society for the Propagation of the Faith distributes all funds collected to mission dioceses for catechetical programs, seminaries, the building of chapels, churches, orphanages, and schools, and disaster relief. The envelopes may be returned any time during the month of October. Your prayerful consideration is appreciated!

STM Scrip News

Our Parish has 1,045 registered families. On average, each household will spend at least $200 per month on gas and groceries. That is collectively at least $200,000 a month. Using various scrip cards for gas and grocery could earn the building fund up to $7,500 per month. We buy groceries and purchase gas already. Together we can help build our church. Stop by the Scrip table or Parish Office to purchase your scrip cards today!

Check online for an updated Scrip list and online ordering system: www.stmoside.org, Contact Us, then Scrip.

Remember, Scrip is available for purchase FOUR ways!

1. Monday-Friday during business hours in the Parish Office
2. Online at www.stmoside.org, click on Contact Us, then click on Scrip
3. Email at scrip@stmoside.org
4. Phone at 760-758-4100 x150

Orders may be picked up after Mass on the weekend or at the Parish Office during the week.

You killed those gifts when you killed those children. You took away my rightful opportunities to work with and inspire those people on behalf of the human race that I love so much. You do not yet understand that life is my gift. Life belongs to me. It is not yours to take, for any reason.

Timothy, my son, you must be held accountable for your actions. I am compassion and love, but I also am justice. Your life spent for its entirety in prison is the price for your actions. It will never equal, in punishment and pain, what you did, but it is the most just response, from a human perspective.

You do not know this yet, Timothy, but your years in prison will be the space in which a great gift will be created and given to the human race. I am the Hound of Heaven. I am not going to give up on you. And you know what? Finally, after many years, you will open your arms wide to my love. You will experience an earth-shattering conversion. Your years in prison will be a time of great spiritual growth. Your discoveries about the gifts of my life and love will be shared with the world through the books you will write and the speeches you will give from your prison cell. Your immense sin will result in profound virtue and gift for the human race. Believe it or not, because of your unwavering witness to the gift of life from your prison cell, you will help more and more people to appreciate life. Amazingly, your witness will help to bring an end to the legalization of abortion in the United States, because the law will no longer reflect the beliefs of most Americans.

Oh, but Timothy, my son, this will never happen, because my people are doing to you what you did to my 168 loved ones! You are being killed in order to send the message that killing is wrong. That just doesn't make sense to me.

I am being deprived of my opportunity to be the Hound of Heaven and to bring you into my circle of light and love. I just need more time with you. They are taking that time away from me just as you took that time away from the 168 in Oklahoma City.

How the world suffers and deprives itself of what I can do for it when anyone cuts life short.

I am so sad. I want to love all of you into peace, joy, and freedom, but you, humans, keep killing my chances to help.

Please, please, my people! Stop depriving me of my opportunities to be the Hound of Heaven.

Please let me be God!

What to Do in a Medical Emergency If You Don't Know CPR

Sunday, October 14, 1:00pm on the lower level of the Parish Center. A 90-minute PowerPoint presentation that explains how to recognize an emergency even before a collapse, how to properly and quickly get trained medical responders to the scene, and what to do while waiting for the ambulance to arrive.

Vocations

In today's Gospel, Jesus promises that those who give up everything to follow him will receive goods a hundred times more in the present and eternal life in the age to come. Do you hear a calling to cast aside the things of this life to follow Christ? Do you want to explore the life of a priest, deacon, or religious as your life's vocation? If so, contact Deacon Tom at thomasgoeltz@aol.com or 760-727-8442.

St. Bonaventure Clothing Drive "Surprise Barrels"

The St. Bonaventure Mission and School, located near Gallup, NM, serves poverty-stricken families in the southeast portion of the Navajo Indian reservation. The School provides a free Catholic education for over 200 students. The Mission provides essential services such as food, transportation for the elderly, and water delivery in 55-gallon barrels.

When there are excess items from a clothing drive, the Mission assembles "surprise barrels." For a few dollars, a family gets a new water barrel that is filled with an assortment of needed clothing. The needy Navajo families look forward to receiving your donated clothing and the "surprise barrels." Support the clothing drive scheduled for November 10-11.

Christmas Angel Ministry 2012-2013

Isn't it irritating when someone tells you there's only 71 days left 'til Christmas? Well, would it help if you knew Christmas Angels has one to two weeks less than that to deliver items for our holiday gift-giving program? So, the first meeting for the Christmas Angel Ministry is Tuesday, October 23, at 7:00pm on the lower level of the Parish Center. Please join us to see how easily you can help with this rewarding ministry. With several volunteers completing small tasks, none too difficult or time consuming, we can assure this year's success. We will discuss changes and improvements, plan our calendar schedule, and prepare ornaments for the tree. Help us make this year even better than the last!

Knights of Columbus Tootsie Roll Drive

There are 330,000 children and adults in California with Intellectual disabilities, and they need our help. Nationwide, 60,000 members of the Knights of Columbus in California and their volunteers will conduct their annual fund raising drive in communities across the state to raise funds to benefit People with Intellectual Disabilities. Our goal this year is to raise $1,000,000 in California.

The drive at St Thomas More will be held the weekend of November 3-4 after all Masses. Knights of Columbus volunteers will be easily visible because of the bright yellow aprons they will be wearing, and the canisters and candies set up on the table in the courtyard after Mass. We are asking for your donations for this worthy cause. For every contribution you will receive a free piece of candy. Other than the cost of the candy, expenses are negligible so your contributions will go directly to those who need it.

The funds we raise will be donated to a local non-profit organization called The Arc of San Diego. For more information on the Arc of San Diego please visit: www.arc-sd.com. Last year, thanks to the generosity of the Saint Thomas More community, we raised just over $800 in one weekend after Masses!

People with Intellectual Disabilities need the support of the general public so that they can develop and be productive contributing members of society.

If you have any questions or are interested in more information please contact Andy Frost, Drive Chairman, at 858-245-6305.

ASKING THE RIGHT QUESTIONS

In a couple of weeks, I will be traveling to Chicago and Pittsburgh to interview five people who were instrumental in creating the Catholic Church's first modern American hymnal, and I will be inquiring about how and why they went about that journey.

Questions will be asked and answers given, but the most important part of each interview will happen immediately after I ask a question. At that point, it is my job to sit and listen—ears open, mouth shut, mind engaged. It will be important for me not to worry about the next question—and there are many questions on my prepared list—but rather to listen carefully to what my colleague is saying.

So often, our conversations seem more like those of actors on stage; each person knowing what the other is going to say next, reciting lines from a script. Acting is difficult for many reasons, but I have always thought the most difficult part is reciting lines night after night as if it was the first time one says them, every ... single ... time.

For my interviews, I will not know what the person across from me will be answering, but I might be in such a hurry to get to the next question on my list that I forget to listen to what they are saying. And if that happens, I might miss the most important part, the nugget of information or insight or history that wasn't really part of the original question, but which turns out to be the best part of the story behind the creation of this wonderful hymn book.

In our Gospel this weekend, we hear the story of a man who asks the question, "What must I do to inherit eternal life?" and then insists he has done everything the law requires. Jesus replies, "You are lacking in one thing. Go, sell what you have, and give to the poor and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me."

The Gospel relates that at this point that the man's face fell, "and he went away sad, for he had many possessions."

I always wonder if the man actually heard anything after Jesus told him to sell everything. Did he hear Jesus' assurance that he will have treasure in heaven? Did he hear Jesus' invitation to join him on the journey to everlasting life? Or, did he just turn away without hearing the best part of the answer?

As I prepare for these interviews with people who made musical history in the Catholic Church, I pray for guidance in listening so that I too may hear the best part of the story—even if I haven't asked the right questions.

EDGE

EDGE is the name of the LifeTeen curriculum for middle school. We have adopted it to name our religious education program for 6th, 7th, and 8th graders.

Like our other children's programs, they meet here at church two Sundays a month from 5:00-6:30pm.

These 60 youth meet in small groups with parent and teen volunteers and in a whole group with a core of catechists. Experiencing the faith and coming to know Christ is exciting and thought-full.

EDGE-Lite is an additional youth group opportunity for middle schoolers, both those enrolled in EDGE, and any other Parish tween or friend who would like to join in.

EDGE-Lite meets on the other Sundays of the month at the same time and offer tweens more time to experience community and find Christ in shared friendship and fun.

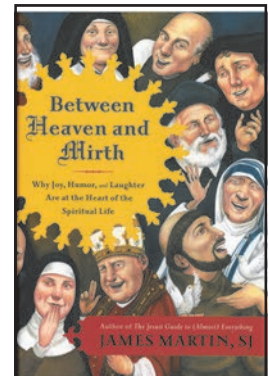

All are welcome!

Fr. Mike's Bookies

Between Heaven and Mirth
by James Martin, SJ

"Not only is this book on to something good, but it is on to something foundational. I have never met a somber believer who does much good for others in the long run. I have met joyous believers, who heal, change, and transform the world. Jim Martin will tell you why this is true!"

Richard Rohr, OFM

Available for review or purchase ($15) outside the Faith Formation Office.

Post your comments or favorite quotation on Facebook (search Fr. Mike's Bookies and ask to join if you are not already a member of the group.)

"Jim is a Jesuit priest and a funny guy. I'm grateful to know both of him."

A Christian Stewardship Prayer for October

On October 11, 1962, Blessed Pope John XXIII prayed the following prayer to open the Second Vatican Council. Thereafter, the bishops at the Council continued to pray this prayer together before every session.

We stand before you, Holy Spirit, conscious of our sinfulness,
but aware that we gather in your name.

Come to us, remain with us, and enlighten our hearts.

Give us light and strength to know your will,
to make it our own, and to live it in our lives.

Guide us by your wisdom, support us by your power, for you are God, sharing the glory of Father and Son.

You desire justice for all:
enable us to uphold the rights of others;
do not allow us to be misled by ignorance;
or corrupted by fear or favor.

Unite us to yourself in the bond of love
And keep us faithful to all that is true.
As we gather in your name
may we temper justice with love,
so that all our decisions may be pleasing to you, and earn the reward promised to good and faithful servants.

You live and reign with the Father and the Son,
one God, forever and ever.
Amen.

"Let us touch the dying, the poor, the lonely, and the unwanted according to the graces we have received and let us not be ashamed or slow to do the humble work."

—Blessed Mother Teresa

Marriage & Family Life Corner

The Bishops’ Letter on Marriage—Growing Together in Virtues: “There is another way to look at growth in marriage: namely, as growth in virtue. As a couple grows in virtue, they grow in holiness. In other words, the couple acquires, by prayer and discipline, those interior qualities that open them to God’s love and allow them to share in his love more deeply. Couples instinctively understand this when they speak about their marriage being a means of leading each other to heaven.” To read the document go to <http://www.usccb.org/loveandlife/>.

Marriage Moments— “God made them male and female.” (Mk 10:6) How do you fit the stereotype of your gender? i.e., males are strong, females are sensitive. How do you differ? Would your spouse agree with you?

Parenting Pointers—Kids’ self-doubts are never ending. Am I good enough? smart enough? pretty enough?... One way to Counsel the Doubtful is to help your child recognize his/her genuine strengths—not the superficial ones. Reinforce them as they struggle to be true to their best convictions.

Proposition 34 End the Death Penalty

The Bishops of California endorse Proposition 34

Summary: Proposition 34 would:

- Replace the death penalty as the maximum punishment for persons found guilty of murder with life imprisonment without possibility of parole
- Apply retroactively to persons already sentenced to death
- Create a $100 million fund to be distributed to law enforcement agencies

Reflections on Church Teaching:

The nature and extent of the punishment ought not to go to the extreme of executing the offender, except in cases of absolute necessity...Today, however, as a result of steady improvements in...the penal system, such cases are very rare if not practically nonexistent. —Pope John Paul II, Evangelium Vitae #56 (1995)

If...non-lethal means are sufficient to defend and protect people's safety from the aggressor, authority will limit itself to such means, as these are more in keeping with the concrete conditions of the common good and more in conformity with the dignity of the human person. —Catechism of the Catholic Church #2267

Ending the death penalty would be one important step away from a culture of death and toward building a culture of life. —U.S. Bishops, A Culture of Life and the Penalty of Death (2005)

In light of Catholic teaching, the BISHOPS ask that you carefully and prayerfully consider your vote on PROPOSITION 34, which will appear on California's NOVEMBER 6, 2012 BALLOT.

A summary of the text and the arguments of the proponents and opponents of PROPOSITION 34 as well as links to more information on Catholic teaching can be found at www.cacatholic.org.
