Women's Ministry: Sustaining Relationships Save the Date: Friday, April 5, 7:00pm

The program will examine ways to build, maintain, and sustain lively and life-enhancing relationships. Participants will have an opportunity to consider their own relationships and learn and share aspects of building healthy and lasting bonds with their loved ones. We have many crucial relationships throughout our lifespan and the program will allow thoughtful discussion of our various relationships at different stages of our lives: marriage, friendships, parenting, grand parenting, siblings, parenting of adult children, and caring for aging loved ones. We all are experiencing our lives in relationship and in context with other people. Join us for a heartfelt discussion of relating to one another in a deep and sustaining way. Susan Lagasse, Ph.D., a clinical psychologist and long-time Parishioner, will lead the program. For more information, contact womensministry@stmoside.org or Shannon Oswald at 760-889-1469.

If you can help in any way with this service, please contact Ann Eriksson 760-599-7151 or eriksson1@mindspring.com.

Holy Thursday Dinners

It is a tradition in our Parish on Holy Thursday to have dinners in Parishioners' homes after the liturgy. Loaves of bread and bottles of wine are blessed after Mass for consumption at these dinners. We need “Hosts” who provide the setup in their home, and “Guests” who will be assigned to those homes to bring a dish to share. Host families determine the number of Guests they can accommodate and if their home is suitable for children. This is a random assignment of Guests to Host homes. This is meant as a way to meet new fellow Parishioners as well as extend the blessings and meaning of this holy night. Sign ups to be a Host House or Guest will take place after each Mass the weekend of March 16-17. The last day to sign up will be Tuesday, March 19. If you would like more info call Henny Jocelyn at 758-4100 x100 or 760-726-1177.

Day of Recollection

Sponsored by Spirited Seniors/Women's Guild

Tuesday, March 19, 9:00am-2:30pm, led by Kathleen Flanagan, a teacher of Contemplative Prayer and Spirituality of Aging from Mission San Luis Rey. The theme is “Living Life More Abundantly.” All men and women of the Parish and friends are invited. Fr. Mike will celebrate Mass. A brown bag lunch and beverage will be provided. The day will end with Stations of the Cross. Cost is $15 per person or $25 per couple. Make checks to “STM Women's Guild” and return to the Parish Office or offertory collection in an envelope marked “Lenten Day of Recollection.” Questions—contact Ann Buko at 760-726-8831 or Judy Buoniconti at 760-758-5113. Cost is never a deterrent.

Marriage & Family Life

Bringing the Celebration Home—Create a tomb (and boulder) stained glass, covering the tomb with the boulder on Good Friday and removing the boulder on Easter Sunday to reveal the beautiful glass artwork!

Want to Help Plan a Party? Are you the “hostess with the most-est”? Want to help plan a party? We are looking for a few Parishioners (who know how to have a good time!) to help form a Party Planning Crew in preparation for three celebrations we will be having through the year. Contact Lisa Attardo at: lisaattardo@yahoo.com or Jen Frost at: jennifermfrost@aol.com for more information or to join the Party Planning Crew!

Mark Your Calendars! This Easter, come learn how to create a lamb made of butter for your Easter table! Jesus is our Pascal Lamb, and using your lamb as a centerpiece reminds us of this. This fun event will start at 10:00am on the lower level on Holy Saturday, and will lead into the Easter Food blessing at 11:00am. To register, contact Jen Frost at jennifermfrost@aol.com or 858-692-7438. There is no cost, and all you need to bring to participate are four things: two sticks of VERY COLD butter, a small cooler to keep the butter cold, a sharp paring knife, a small plate for your lamb to sit on, and (if you have one) a garlic press.

The Bishops' Letter on Marriage—Natural Family Planning: “Natural family planning (NFP) methods represent authentic family planning. They can be used both to achieve and to postpone a pregnancy. NFP makes use of periodic abstinence from sexual intercourse based upon the observation of the woman's natural signs of fertility, in order to space births or to limit the number of children when there is a serious reason to do so. NFP methods require that couples learn, accept, and live with the wonders of how God made them. This is essentially different from contraception.” To read the document go to <http://www.usccb.org/loveandlife/>.

Marriage Moments—If you have children living at home, a marriage challenge is to negotiate child care responsibilities and still have the energy to be lovers. Consider starting the custom of a weekly date. Even if you don't have children, it's not a bad idea; in fact it's easier. by Susan Vogt, www.SusanVogt.net.

Parenting Pointers—St. Patrick's Day is today. St. Patrick is said to have explained the mystery of the Trinity by using the shamrock. Which person of the Trinity—Father (creator), Son (redeemer), or Holy Spirit (sustainer) do you most identify with? Ask your child the same question. Is there anything mysterious about your child that you are still trying to understand? by Susan Vogt, www.SusanVogt.net.

Memorial Item Donations

Memorials are a way of honoring those whom we love, whether they are living or deceased. Often, memorials are made for a special intention or in thanksgiving for a variety of blessings received from God.

Our Parish Campus will be a living memorial. All who help in building it will leave something to the community itself that will be used by generations to come. The good they do is not interred with them, but will remain to share in the divine activity of God here on earth.

Listed below are items still available for adoption.

All contributions will be recognized in a special memorial to be displayed in our Parish Memorial Garden.

JOURNEYING TO THE EASTER VIGIL

Signs and Symbols of the Holy Night

The Easter Vigil in the Holy Night is greatest and most noble of all the Church's liturgical celebrations. As part of our Lenten journey, I offer these meditations on the signs and symbols we will encounter during this most holy night.

—Douglas

Luke 15:19

LAYING ON OF HANDS

Sometimes there simply are no words. Before deep sorrow, ecstatic joy, profound awe, or intense love, ordinary words give way to poetry and song, and sometimes even these must give way to music, to dance, to silence. We sit with a loved one near death, or grieve with a friend in her loss, and all we can do is silently touch a hand. A mother gazes quietly into the eyes of the contented baby she holds in her arms, and it is enough. Lovers linger in a silent embrace, listening only to each other's heartbeats, and time stops.

In our sacred rituals, there are times when words cannot convey the deep mystery being celebrated. At those moments, the ritual often prescribes the laying on of hands, a slow, deliberate placing of the presider's hands on the top of the head of the person on whom our prayers are focused. The touch that humans naturally use to soothe and forgive becomes a symbol of God's of healing and forgiveness in our sacramental rites. The welcoming embrace and fond touch of the face become the touch of the hand prescribed at baptism and confirmation, and at the same time it is the touch of God's Holy Spirit, transforming and empowering all that is touched.

The Bells! The Bells!

Notre Dame Cathedral in Paris has new bells. Nine new bronze bells were on display in the cathedral until February 25, when they were lifted into the towers to replace older bells—some made with inferior metal—that have become discordant. The new bells are scheduled to ring on March 23 to herald the arrival of Holy Week. The oldest bell at Notre Dame, a bourdon or “great bell” named Emmanuel—the only bell at Notre Dame to survive the French Revolution—will remain to complete the ten-bell harmony originally envisioned for the cathedral during the middle ages. The arrival of the new bells is part of the celebration of the cathedral's 850-year history.

*It's Easy to Die for a Cause...
Are You Willing to Live for One?*

If this winter season has not made you sick yet, then you aren't human. I'm sorry, but there was no other way of breaking the news to you. This might seem like a blessing to you, but because I'm envious of your superior health I want to make you feel guilty.

Feeling like I'm going to die, I ask myself—What am I living for? Death seems so safe, and I realize that in many ways I choose to die every day.

By not taking risks, by not maximizing my time, by not improving myself, I say, "No," to my own life. Am I already dead? I sure hope I'm living for our Lord, the Author of Life.

I'll end this bulletin now... I have to quickly come up with my alibi should the time come I need to give Him one. Then again, I could choose to live for Him...

HELP NEEDED

There is great enthusiasm in our teen community to participate in the Steubenville experience, but some are not able because of the $215 cost.

If you are a Parishioner who could provide a scholarship, either full or partial, for a Parish teen, please direct it to Kathleen Bell, payable to STM.

This is truly a way to share your faith and will be deeply appreciated!

Christian Stewardship The Coming of Spring: A Call to Joy

"I will turn their mourning into joy, I will console and gladden them after their sorrow" (Jeremiah 31:13). This reading, given to us on a Lenten Saturday in March, comforts us: Just as the spring rains begin to fall, the promise of Easter's comfort and joy will soon be upon us.

For some people, Lent is a glum time. Perhaps a childhood memory of deprivation, with no real understanding of the reason for the sacrifice, clouds their memory of Lent. For some, after a purposeful march to the altar to receive ashes on Ash Wednesday, the discipline of Lent fades.

Not so for the Christian steward. The steward remains faithful to the season, but he also remains faithful to joy. After all, what is Lent but a reminder of our salvation?

It's not accidental that Lent occurs just as we begin to realize, that once again, the light and color of spring are returning. As Easter nears, the leaves of spring flowers speak of Resurrection. Lent demands discipline, but also inspires joy. As Christians, we know how the story ends.

St. Patrick's Day ~ Patrick (385-461), Bishop

Born in Great Britain, St. Patrick was the son of a Roman official. When he was 16, he and some of his father's slaves were kidnapped by Irish raiders and sold into slavery in Ireland. In time, Patrick escaped and spent a number of years in France, where he studied for the priesthood and eventually became a bishop. In 432, he returned to Ireland as a missionary, a task he saw as a gift in spite of its difficulty.

How did so great and salutary a gift come to me, though at the cost of homeland and family? I came to the Irish people to preach the Gospel and endure the taunts of unbelievers, putting up with reproaches about my earthly pilgrimage, suffering persecutions, even bondage, and losing my birthright of freedom for the benefit of others.

Making himself one with the people and learning their language and customs, St. Patrick's efforts to evangelize Ireland were wonderfully successful. Using his gifts in the service of the Church, he himself became a gift to the Church in Europe in later centuries as the faith that he planted in Ireland bore fruit in the lives and vocations of Irish missionaries who left their homeland to be in Christ's service in every corner of the world.

A Blessed and Happy St. Patrick's Day to all!

Office of the Bishop

STATEMENT OF BISHOP ROBERT BROM
ELECTION OF POPE FRANCIS

With the Catholic Church worldwide, all of us in the Catholic Diocese of San Diego embrace with love our new universal pastor, Pope Francis.

We look to Pope Francis to be a humble instrument of unity and peace in the Church and in the world.

We pray that he will be led by the Spirit of Jesus to champion a new evangelization in order to place God at the center of all human life and cultures.

We pray that he will address problems in the Church and in the world by promoting those values and practices which, true to St. Francis of Assisi, will bring about a civilization of love.

We anticipate that Pope Francis will manifest the same shepherd's care which we found in Pope John Paul II and Pope Benedict XVI, and for which we are grateful.
