Pastor's Column

The Gift of the Holy Spirit

“When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were.

Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim.” (Acts of the Apostles 2:1-4)

Our Catholic Church proclaims seven gifts of the Holy Spirit that help us to sustain the moral life. These are permanent dispositions that make us docile in following the promptings of the Holy Spirit: Wisdom, Understanding, Counsel, Fortitude, Knowledge, Piety, and Fear of the Lord.

In faith, as we accept the gifts of the Spirit, we begin to see effects in our lives. These effects then make changes for the better in our lives and in the world. The tradition of the Church lists twelve fruits of the Holy Spirit, perfections that the Holy Spirit forms in us as the first fruits of eternal glory: Charity, Joy, Peace, Patience, Kindness, Goodness, Generosity, Gentleness, Faithfulness, Modesty, Self-control, and Chastity. (Catechism of the Catholic Church #1830, #1831, #1832)

“Come, Holy Spirit, fill my heart with your holy gifts. Let my weakness be penetrated with your strength this very day that I may fulfill the duties of my state in life conscientiously, that I may do what is right and just. Let my charity be such as to offend no one and hurt no one's feelings; so generous as to pardon sincerely any wrong done to me. Assist me in all the trials of life, enlighten me in my ignorance, advise me in my doubts, strengthen my weakness, help me in all needs and embarrassment, protect me in temptations and console me in all afflictions. Graciously hear me, O Holy Spirit, and pour your light into my heart, my soul and my mind. Assist me to live a holy life and to grow in goodness and grace. Amen.” (Samuel Cardinal Stritch)

On this Feast of Pentecost, may we each seek the gift of the Holy Spirit! Take time in prayer in these days of Pentecost to reflect upon the gifts and the fruits of the Holy Spirit.

In what area of your life are you in most need of the Spirit's help? Then beg the Spirit to touch you in that area of your life.

Allow God's great gift of the Holy Spirit to transform you!

Fr. Mike

Social Ministries/Outreach

Baby Bottle Boomerang for Culture of Life Family Services (COLFS)

Remember to return your baby bottles filled with coins, cash, or a check by this weekend to benefit COLFS, an organization that supports women in crisis pregnancies. There is a black deposit box on the upper level near the doors to the Plaza. Any questions, contact Jane Kelleher at 760-822-7041.

Get On the Bus Thank-You

“You’re angels sent by God to help us reunite” are the words spoken by a grandmother on the bus. Her family reunited this year for the first time in 16 years. What a wonderful outcome resulting from the many gifts you donated. Thank you for your many kindnesses to help reunite this family and many others. Your response for our pleas for help was truly overwhelming. You truly are their angels.

California Bishops Issue Statement in Support of Immigration Reform

As the U.S. Congress considers sweeping reform to the nation’s broken immigration system, the California Catholic Conference of Bishops issued a statement last week in favor of Immigration. “As people of faith, we are compelled to care for the least among us in loving response to Jesus who says to us: ‘I was a stranger and you welcomed me.’ We look forward to meeting with legislators and working to ensure that the final bill brings immigrants out from the shadows so that all of us together can make America stronger.”

The bishops outlined key priorities to be woven into reform:

1. An earned path to full legal status, and eventual citizenship, that is reasonable and attainable;
2. A provision for immigrants brought here as minors to swiftly gain legal status to continue their education and enter the workforce;
3. The reduction of immigration application backlogs so that families may be united more quickly;
4. A temporary worker program that is safe, workable for families, and fair to all workers, immigrants and non-immigrants, alike;
5. Restoration of due process protections for all immigrants involved with the immigration justice system;
6. The protection of refugees and unaccompanied immigrant children; and
7. A way of addressing the root causes of immigration.

For many years we have advocated for comprehensive reform of the nation’s immigration laws. Our country has a right and responsibility to protect its borders, and effective immigration laws are part of that enforcement. (For full text of the California Bishops statement and more information on this issue go to <http://www.cacatholic.org>.)

Next week’s bulletin will contain a flyer which offers you the opportunity to send a message to Representative Issa urging him to honor the points made in the California Bishops’ Statement.

Marriage & Family Life

Bringing the Celebration Home— Didn’t have time to join us in making Flaming Pentecost Cupcakes? Get the recipe with step-by-step photo instructions at: <http://enterundermyroof.blogspot.com>.

The Bishops’ Letter on Marriage— The Trinity and Marriage: “To be created in the image and likeness of God means, therefore, that human beings reflect not the life of a solitary deity, but the communal life of the Trinity. Human beings were created not to live solitary lives, but to live in communion with God and with one another, a communion that is both life-giving and loving.” To read the document, go to <http://www.usccb.org/loveandlife/>.

Marriage Moments— “How does each of us hear them in our native language?” (Acts 2:1-11) At Pentecost show the miracle of understanding different languages. Are you familiar with Gary Chapman’s The 5 Love Languages? Do you understand your spouse’s love language?

Parenting Pointers—As we near the end of a school year, children may look forward to more free time during the summer; maybe you do too. Summer can be more relaxed but also an opportunity to include your child in tasks you need help with. Consider starting the custom of a summer job jar. After their job is done, their time is free.

Memorial Item Donations

Memorials are a way of honoring those whom we love, whether they are living or deceased. Often, memorials are made for a special intention or in thanksgiving for a variety of blessings received from God.

Our Parish Campus will be a living memorial. All who help in building it will leave something to the community itself that will be used by generations to come. The good they do is not interred with them, but will remain to share in the divine activity of God here on earth.

Listed below are items still available for adoption.

All contributions will be recognized in a special memorial to be displayed in our Parish Memorial Garden.

GIFTS, SERVICE, WORKINGS

Making a difference in our small part of the world

There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. (1 Cor 12:4-6)

The free-will offering by the audience and choirs at our recent Spring Sing benefitted Interfaith Community Services. We were able to send a full load of food items—thanks to Joe Garcia for transporting them in the bed of his truck to the Oceanside Service Center—in addition to the money collected.

In this case, the gift of music and our Parish's commitment to service allows the workings of beneficial organizations like Interfaith Community Services to make a difference in our neighborhood and beyond. God bless you all.

1982 - 2012

Dear Friends,

Your help is sincerely appreciated! Thank you for sending your gift received on 4/16/2013. We appreciate your continuing participation as a member of Interfaith's donor family.

Spring arrived with an unusually large number of people coming through our doors in need of help. Thank you for opening your arms in welcome! None of us know when we might find ourselves in their shoes. We work very hard to make sure Interfaith will be here when it is needed.

Interfaith is currently involved in an important time of strategic planning for each our services. Our goal is to enhance Interfaith's role as one of the best service organizations in our region – and this planning process will enable us to reevaluate and revise our plans over the next three years.

With your help, Interfaith accomplishes such great work – it is a profound privilege to work here every day. You, our donors, staff, volunteers and faith centers, all play vital roles in helping to serve people in great need.

As an active donor, you are helping to make our regional community a healthier, happier and safer place. Your gifts make a world of difference to those who have so little.

Sincerely,

Robert A. Adams
Director of Development

RE.A.CH
Religious Education for Adolescents and Children

Dear Families,

Today we conclude our 2012-2013 season of RE.A.CH:

18 Church Sessions + 18 Home Sessions dedicated to forming our children in faith.

I wish God's choicest blessings on the parents who have taken so seriously this responsibility and privilege given to them at the Baptism of their children.

"To everything there is a season" and so I encourage you to form faith in the weeks ahead by your continuing response:

- Celebrating Mass each and every week . . . the major source of nourishment for the faith life of your family.
- LIVE what you believe
  - * by your choices for recreation during the summer
  - * by strengthening family life through shared meals and common activities
  - * by praying as a family ~ before a meal, at bedtime, and learning BY HEART the basic prayers of our Catholic faith
- BE a sign of peace for one another!

Special thanks to the dedicated Catechists who have given of their time, talent, and treasure in faithful service throughout this year~

With you in ministry,

Kathleen

Stewardship & Development

Serve God's People

Chris Smith
Director of Stewardship & Development
chriss@stmoside.org; 758-4100 x120

Christian Stewardship:
In the Name of the Father, the Son,
and the Holy Spirit ~ Amen.

In today's first reading we encounter the Holy Spirit, who at Pentecost came rushing in over Jesus' followers like a powerful wind. It must have been a frightening experience for them.

But their great acts of prophetic witness began when the Spirit drew them out of their "comfort zones."

Jesus said the Holy Spirit, like the wind, blows where it wills; into the lives of good stewards, empowering them to perform wondrous acts of healing, reconciliation, and evangelization; encouraging them to proclaim the Gospel with boldness and confidence.

All of that is a little beyond the comfort zone where most of us live our lives. Take time this week to reflect on how the Holy Spirit may be calling you out of your personal comfort zone.

—ICSC Stewardship, May 2013 (with permission)

Opportunity Knocks! Hospitality Ministers (a.k.a. Ushers)

- † Greet fellow worshippers as they arrive and later as they as they leave. You arrive 20-25 minutes before Mass and leave by 10 minutes after Mass! This is less than one hour once or twice a month to welcome all to St. Thomas More!
- † Hand out worship aids/collect them after Mass.
- † Help with the Offertory Collection.
- † Assist with seating, directions to restrooms, etc.
- † Distribute bulletins after Mass.
- † The 8:30am Mass is in need of several more Hospitality Ministers. More help is also always welcome at the 5:00pm and 10:30am Masses.

To be a vital part of our welcome spirit at STM please contact:
Chris Smith, 760-758-4100 x120 or chriss@stmoside.org

News and Information from the Larger Church

Vocations—A question often asked secretly by many young men is, “How do I know that God is calling me to priesthood?” Too often, because of a lack of dramatic evidence, many of the subtle hints and gentle nudges which accompany the call to priesthood can easily be overlooked or misinterpreted. Reading 1 Kings (19:11-13) we see that the great prophet Elijah heard God’s call, not in an earthshattering event, a mighty storm or blazing fire, but in a tiny whispering sound. So, if the notion of priesthood gently passes your mind from time to time, sit up and take notice. It could be a hint. For more information, visit www.SerraVocationThought.org.

Day Trip to Prince of Peace Abbey—Thursday, May 23, 11:00am, 650n Benet Rd., Oceanside. Cost is $10. For more information, contact Vikki Ramey at 760-803-6267.
