ST. THOMAS MORE

To Celebrate our Patron Saint

Pastor's Column

As We Approach the Altar...

On this Feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, as we approach the altar, let us reflect upon the words of those who have gone before us:

St. Augustine

The Lord left us in this sacrament his body and blood. Now we are called to become his body, and through his mercy, we are what we receive.

Just as you see that the bread is one loaf, so may you be one body by loving one another, by having one faith, one hope, and undivided charity.

Thus too, the wine existed in many clusters of grapes, and now it is one. It is one in this cup after the crushing of the grapes in the wine press.

*And now, you, in the name of Christ,
have come to drink of the cup of the Lord.
There you are on the table, and there you are in the cup,
for you are one with us.
We receive together, and we drink together
because we live together.*

St. Ignatius of Antioch

*Come together in common,
one and all without exception in charity,
in one faith and in one Jesus Christ,
the Son of God and Son of man,
so that with undivided mind you may break one bread
which is the medicine of immortality
and the remedy against death,
enabling us to live forever in Jesus Christ.*

St. John Chrysostom

*God gave one house for all of us to dwell in.
It is called the world.
God distributed all created things equally.
God kindled one sun for all;
stretched above us one roof, the sky;
and set up one table, which is the earth.
But God also gave us a much greater table than this.
It is the table of one loaf and one cup.
We have been made rich and one in this bread and wine.
Then, whence comes the great inequality of conditions of life?
From greed and arrogance!
But let this be no longer.
Since we are made one in this meal,
let us not be driven asunder
by envy, greed, jealousy, and hatred.
All these are grand illusions for those who partake of the meal of eternal life.
May this meal we share preserve this unity unbroken.*

Memorial Item Donations

Memorials are a way of honoring those whom we love, whether they are living or deceased. Often, memorials are made for a special intention or in thanksgiving for a variety of blessings received from God.

Our Parish Campus will be a living memorial. All who help in building it will leave something to the community itself that will be used by generations to come. The good they do is not interred with them, but will remain to share in the divine activity of God here on earth.

Listed below are items still available for adoption.

All contributions will be recognized in a special memorial to be displayed in our Parish Memorial Garden.

A SENSE OF ORDINARY TIME AFTER PENTECOST

This time in our liturgical year is anything but ordinary!

Our Sunday Scriptures continue with the Gospel readings according to Luke, which nourish us with stories of the gifts of the Holy Spirit throughout the months ahead. Can you name the fruits and gifts of the Holy Spirit? Our newly confirmed youth will certainly be able to recite them all! The Gospel stories take us on a journey with Jesus and his ministry and teachings on discipleship. There is much to look forward to this long season of Ordinary Time.

Here are a few ways in which we can stay engaged when the long days of summer Sundays seem to run together:

- Start a gratitude journal—count your blessings
- Focus on God's abundance—it is good to stay on the sunny side!
- Put your faith in action—simplify, eliminate, give away excess
- Read something of moral value—books about God, faith, and the meaning of life
- Keep the Sabbath—start a new family tradition that you do every Sunday after Mass

Ordinary Time is a time to deepen our prayer life, read the Scriptures, unite more deeply with the Lord in the Eucharist, and become a more holy and whole person. Think about praying the Liturgy of the Hours. Resources (print, web, app) are available!

Ordinary Time is a period when people like you and me strive to become the extraordinary messengers of the Gospel that we have been commissioned to be through our Baptism.

Ordinary Time is a time to discern a ministry. Ministers of Holy Communion are needed not only at weekend Masses but also in the hospitals and nursing homes our Parish serves. Please inquire.

Ordinary Time is a special time for our Parish as we celebrate the Feast of our Patron, Saint Thomas More, in lieu of the Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time on June 23. The Parish will be praying a novena to St. Thomas More beginning June 14 and concluding June 22. Copies can be picked up in the Parish Office, and will be sent via email each day of the novena. Do we have your email address? Has your email address changed? Please update with the Parish Office. You do not want to miss a single message!

Family Night is Coming!

Clear the evening three Fridays from now, because on June 21, St. Thomas More will be throwing another big Family Night!!!

We can have many events for adults, teens, children, etc., but this is a great worship event that brings families together.

Family Night is a time for food, friends, and faith and everyone is invited to partake, so bring a friend! Bring a relative! (Bring your parents!) Bring your next door neighbor!

There's no better way to spend the evening (6:00-8:30pm) than getting in touch with STM families, sharing good food, and praying as one. Hope to see you there!!!

Christian Stewardship Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

On Sunday, June 2, Catholics in the United States celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. We used to call it the Feast of Corpus Christi ("Body of Christ"), a feast that celebrates Jesus' gift of himself in the Eucharist.

The feast originated in France in the mid-thirteenth century and was extended to the whole Church by Pope Urban IV in 1264. In much of the world, it is celebrated on the Thursday following Trinity Sunday. In the United States it is celebrated on the Sunday following that feast.

There are two major themes to this feast: the Body of Christ that is the Holy Eucharist and the Body of Christ that is our communion of faith, the Church. The Church is called the Body of Christ because of the intimate communion which Jesus shares with us, his disciples. This is expressed in the New Testament by using the metaphor of a body in which Christ Jesus is the head. This image helps keep in focus both the unity and the rich diversity of our family of faith.

When we gather for Mass, we become one with Christ and are transformed by his loving gift. We become one with Christ in the person we may not know sitting next to us in the pew; in the crowds walking in Eucharistic processions in the Philippines; in the victims of Parish bombings while at Mass in Nigeria; in the Polish students getting ready for World Youth Day; and in the children in Peru receiving their first Holy Communion, singing "Somos el Cuerpo de Cristo"/"We Are the Body of Christ."

The feast encourages us to embrace the Eucharistic reality that although we may be strangers sharing the one Lord's table wherever we are, we are one, just as the many grains of wheat make up one loaf of bread, and the many grapes make up the shared wine in the Lord's cup of blessing.

Although there are many divisions among Christians in the world today, as ambassadors of Christ, let us pray that God will show us the way to unity through our devotion to Christ in the Eucharist so that we can offer a more genuinely compelling and fruitful witness to a world in need of God's love and compassion.

Rev. Robert E. Barron

Two Disc Set

Our ultimate path to holiness is full of untold blessings!
Sharing in this series is just one of those untold blessings.

Visit with other Parishioners and make some new STM friends.

This time of fellowship will be followed by a 20 minute segment of Fr. Robert Barron's beautiful and mysterious image of what it takes to be a follower of "the One who is, Jesus Christ."

Deacon Tom and Patt Goeltz will facilitate a brief discussion following the video, so that we can allow the path to holiness to seep more deeply in our lives.

We hope you will calendar these dates as we continue our celebration of the Year of Faith.
