Quotable Quotes About Fathers

This weekend we celebrate the National Holiday of Father's Day. In honor of this day, I share with you a variety of quotes about Fathers. Some are serious and sincere, some are in jest, and some are painfully true. All are meant to call attention to Fatherhood, its importance, and to encourage all men to be faithful to their responsibilities to be good husbands and fathers.

Charles Wadsworth (1814-1882): "By the time a man realizes that maybe his father was right, he usually has a son who thinks he's wrong."

Mark Twain (1835-1910): "When I was a boy of fourteen, my father was so ignorant I could hardly stand to have the old man around. But when I got to be twenty-one, I was astonished at how much the old man had learned in seven years."

Robert Frost (1874-1963): "The father is always a republican toward his son, and his mother is always a democrat."

Peter De Vries (1910-1993): "My father hated radio, and he could not wait for television to be invented so that he could hate that too."

Robert Orben (1927-): "Life was a lot simpler when what we honored was father and mother rather than all major credit cards."

Spike Milligan (1918-2002): "My father had a profound influence on me, he was a lunatic."

Sigmund Freud (1856-1939): "I cannot think of any need in childhood as strong as the need for a father's protection."

Charles Lamb (1775-1834): "I am determined that my children shall be brought up in their father's religion, if they can find out what it is."

Rev. Theodore Hesburgh (1917-): "The most important thing that a father can do for his children is to love their mother."

Clarence B. Kelland (1881-1964): "My father didn't tell me how to live; he lived, and let me watch him do it."

In prayer, we remember all our fathers, living and deceased.
Happy Father's Day!

Fr. Mike

Social Ministries/Outreach

Support La Posada Men's Shelter

La Posada de Guadalupe Men's Shelter resides in our Parish boundaries and is run by Catholic Charities. Almost nineteen years have passed since La Posada opened its doors to offer not only food and shelter to homeless men, but help in achieving independence by providing tools such as money management, English instruction, assistance in finding jobs and permanent housing—all in a genuinely caring and inspiring environment.

Each year we support La Posada by participating in their Independence Day Raffle. Almost every year, one of our Parishioners wins one of the prizes! This year may be your turn! Tickets will be sold after all Masses this weekend. Suggested donation: $5 per ticket.

Sad News from New Orleans

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Fr. Michael Jacques, the Pastor of St. Peter Claver Parish in New Orleans, who died of heart failure on June 6. Many of our Parishioners went to New Orleans and worked with Parishioners from St. Peter Claver in rebuilding their homes after hurricane Katrina from 2007 -2009. Fr. Michael and our Fr. Mike traded Parishes one weekend, so many of you may remember Fr. Michael when he came here. Fr. Michael was a dedicated, inspiring, and energetic leader not only of his Parish but in the total rebuilding of New Orleans.

May he rest in peace. Please keep Fr. Michael's family and Parishioners in your prayers.

Annual Catholic Appeal

The Diocesan Catholic Appeal (ACA) continues. Money raised throughout the Diocese supports the ongoing ministries of the Diocese. Our fair share assessment is $48,000. Presently we have raised $46,403, given by 366 families. Thanks to all who have contributed! We still need $1,597—can you help?

STM Vehicle Donation Program

Do you have a vehicle you want to donate?

The St. Thomas More program is easy!

Call us, and we'll have it picked up.

You get the tax deduction!

All we need is clear title. Non-operational is OK!

Since 2006 we have netted over $37,350

from this program. Thank you donors!

Women's Guild News

Thanks to all our members and friends for all the support for the two years that I was president of the STM Women's Guild. It was a fabulous time and I can't thank you all enough for making this a very memorable experience. We were successful in all our events this year thanks to members of the STM Women's Guild and all the members of STM. We have passed last year's donation to the church for the building fund and were able to present Fr. Mike with a check for $20,000!

People will forget what you did, they will forget what you said, but they will not forget how you made them feel. My hope is that I made you feel welcome and happy as you have to me.

You will be hearing from our new President, Ann Buko, about our membership drive within the next few weeks. Please come and join us.

—Vera Bayliss, President

Need Help with Transportation to Church!

Volunteer drivers are needed in our Parish. Some Parishioners would like to attend Mass and cannot drive themselves. Please prayerfully consider helping some of our fellow Parishioners. If you can help in any way with this service, please contact Ann Eriksson 760-599-7151 or eriksson1@mindspring.com.

Vocations

The lazy days of summer are upon us. A traditional time for relaxation. It is also a good time to look at ourselves and our vocations in life. Satisfied? Want something more than what you are doing? What about a life of service to God and His people as a priest, deacon, or religious? It can be a challenging and rewarding life. If you feel a calling, contact Deacon Tom at thomasgoeltz@aol.com or 760-727-8442.

Would You Like to Be an Altar Server?

If you are in 4th to 10th grade and would like to become more involved during Mass by being an Altar Server, there will be an Altar Server Training on Saturday, June 22, at 11:00am.

For more information please call Rebecca Eyer at 760-216-6553

Calling All 2013 Graduates!

The Parish Family of St. Thomas More desires to recognize the achievements of those among us who are graduating this year. Graduations may be from grade school, middle school, high school, college, and beyond.

If you happen to be one of these graduates, please call the Parish Office by June 25 with your name and the institution from which you have graduated. We will be compiling a list that will be published in the bulletin the weekend of June 29/30. You will be remembered in prayer at all of the three liturgies on that weekend.

Know that your Parish Family is proud of your accomplishments, and that we will continue to support you in all your future endeavors. —Rev. Michael Ratajczak, Pastor

Memorial Item Donations

Memorials are a way of honoring those whom we love, whether they are living or deceased. Often, memorials are made for a special intention or in thanksgiving for a variety of blessings received from God.

Our Parish Campus will be a living memorial. All who help in building it will leave something to the community itself that will be used by generations to come. The good they do is not interred with them, but will remain to share in the divine activity of God here on earth.

Listed below are items still available for adoption.

All contributions will be recognized in a special memorial to be displayed in our Parish Memorial Garden.

For more information or to adopt an item, contact Chris Smith

Director of Liturgy and Music douglasl@stmoside.org; 760-758-4100 x140A BLESSING FOR FATHERS

We bless you and we praise you, God of our fathers!
 You are the God of Adam, father of the human family.
 You are the God of Abraham, our father in faith,
 who was ready and willing to give up everything to be faithful to you.
 You are the God of Isaac, who was born of laughter and old age, and the God of Jacob, whose clever trick gained an inheritance for twelve tribes of sons and daughters.
 You are the God of Jesse, from whose loins a nation sprang,
 a sturdy family tree of monarchs, prophets, and priests.
 You are the God and Father of Israel,
 your child whom you love with all your heart.
 You are the God of Zechariah,
 who fathered the Baptist and taught him the Torah,
 and of Joachim, the grandfather of Jesus.
 You are the God of Joseph, who loved and raised Jesus as his own.
 You are the God and Father of Jesus,
 and our Father in heaven, too: Holy is your Name!
 We thank you, God, for the gift of our fathers,
 for grandfathers and godfathers and fathers-in-law, too.
 Send your Holy Spirit upon our fathers, in whose laps we were cradled, on whose knees we were bounced,
 by whose hands we were fed, instructed, at times corrected,
 in whose company we learned to work and play and pray,
 at whose side we hear your word and celebrate your mysteries.
 Heal their pains and disappointments.
 Forgive all that needs to be forgiven.
 Give to them the good that they have given others.
 Welcome into your arms those who have died.
 Fill this world, O God, with a father's love!
 We ask this through your Son Jesus Christ,
 who taught us to pray to you as Abba.
 He lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, who is Father of the poor, one God forever and ever. Amen.

Stewardship & Development

Serve God's People

Chris Smith
Director of Stewardship & Development
chriss@stmoside.org; 758-4100 x120

CHRISTIAN STEWARDSHIP

You are unique!

Every day we have many opportunities to use the gifts God has given us. As the parable of the talents shows, two servants took risks with the money they were given; they invested it and earned a good return. The third was afraid to take any risks, and so he hid the money safely and returned it to his master at the first opportunity (Matthew 25:14-30).

Like the first two servants, we are also called to take risks for the Kingdom of God, stepping out in faith and watching to see God move as we trust in him.

God did not give us gifts and talents so that we would hide them or turn them to selfish ends. Every one of us has a role in the advancement of God's kingdom, using all the resources God has given us. Whether it is money, abilities, or time, nothing is irrelevant.

We can be assured that personal encounters with God's love, as well as our convictions based on scripture and the church's teaching, we will learn to integrate the two, drawing on both when we are tempted to doubt his love, or when we are called to love others.

Remember that you are a steward of your talents.

God has equipped you with just the proper talents and commissioned you to serve Him in this world and in your church family.

Develop the talents inherent in yourself. The talent that is used to the best of your ability grows and will bring light into your life.

—Parish Publishing LLC, Stewardship June (with permission)

In everything you do, put God first and He will direct you and crown your efforts with success.

A WAY TO GIVE ~ A WAY TO RECEIVE

DESIGNATED BANK ACCOUNTS, WILLS, LIVING TRUSTS, STOCKS, LIFE INSURANCE, MUTUAL FUNDS, REAL ESTATE, ENDOWMENTS

Planned Giving is a generic term that covers the many ways an individual can give to a charity while, in many cases avoiding taxes. A few examples of Planned Giving are: Designated Beneficiary Accounts, Wills, Living Trusts, Stocks, Life Insurance, Mutual Funds, Endowments, and Real Estate.
