Join us for some bagels at our first meet-up of the Moms and Kids ministry on Monday, January 6, at South Buena Vista Park (on South Melrose) from 10:00am-12:00noon. See you there!

Bishops' Letter on Marriage—Relativism: “By attempting to redefine marriage to include or be made analogous with homosexual partnerships, society is stating that the permanent union of husband and wife, the unique pattern of spousal and familial love, and the generation of new life are now only of relative importance rather than being fundamental to the existence and well-being of society as a whole.” To read the document go to <http://www.usccb.org/loveandlife/>.

Marriage Moments—The Epiphany “Go and search diligently for the child.” (Mt. 2:8) The wise still seek him. What wisdom can you learn from a child today? Perhaps your own child will teach you patience. Perhaps a neighbor child will give you an opportunity to serve a child in need as a team. Seek. By Susan Vogt, www.SusanVogt.net.

Parenting Pointers—It's resolution time, but long range resolutions are hard to keep. How about resolving to play with your child this weekend? If your child is far away play virtually or remember fond childhood memories together. By Susan Vogt, www.SusanVogt.net.

Memorial Item Donations

Memorials are a way of honoring those whom we love, whether they are living or deceased. Often, memorials are made for a special intention or in thanksgiving for a variety of blessings received from God.

Our Parish Campus will be a living memorial. All who help in building it will leave something to the community itself that will be used by generations to come. The good they do is not interred with them, but will remain to share in the divine activity of God here on earth.

Listed below are items still available for adoption.

All contributions will be recognized in a special memorial to be displayed in our Parish Memorial Garden.

For more information or to adopt an item, contact Chris Smith

On Heaven and Earth
by Pope Francis

From the man who became Pope Francis, Jorge Mario Bergoglio shares his thoughts on religion, reason, and the challenges the world faces in the 21st century with Abraham Skorka, a rabbi and biophysicist.

For years Cardinal Jorge Mario Bergoglio, archbishop of Argentina, and Rabbi Abraham Skorka were tenacious promoters of interreligious dialogues on faith and reason. They both sought to build bridges among Catholicism, Judaism, and the world at large.

The hardcover book is available at the Parish Office for $16. It is also available for $9.78 on Kindle through Amazon.com, as well as other electronic formats.

Our Life Journey of Stewardship ~ 2014

Another Beginning

*I will not wish thee riches nor the glow of greatness, but that wherever thou go
 some weary heart shall gladden at thy smile,
 or shadowed life know sunshine for awhile.
 And so they path shall be a track of light,
 like angel's footsteps passing through the night.*

—Words on a Church Wall in Upwaltham, England

The Epiphany celebrates the coming of the Magi, who were non-Jews, to worship the child Jesus. It is thus a missionary feast because Jesus is not only the Jewish Messiah but also the Savior of the whole human race.

But the Epiphany is a stewardship celebration, as well, for the Magi did not come empty-handed. They brought gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh to offer him. Gold represents the Treasure that we present to our spiritual King for the spread of the Kingdom of God. Frankincense symbolizes our Time that we devote to prayer and the worship of God. And myrrh conveys our willingness to offer our Talent to serve others, for it is used in preparing bodies for burial, a service the Church has identified for centuries as one of the corporal works of mercy.

The Epiphany, then, challenges us to be good Christian stewards and to bring our time, talent, and treasure to worship Jesus, just as the Magi did, and to invite others to join us in worship.

—Eric McArdle: Communicating the Spirituality of Stewardship, Catholic Stewardship Consultants, Inc. January (with permission)

“ . . . And so thy path shall be a track of light, like angel's footsteps passing through the night.”
