In Memoriam

Please pray for the repose of the souls of:

Robert Jacobson, Sr., who died on March 26. His Funeral Mass will be celebrated on Friday, April 11, at 11:00am at St. Thomas More. Please keep his son, Bob, and his family in your prayers.

Kathy Salter, who died on February 18. Her Memorial Mass will be celebrated on Saturday, April 12, at 11:00am at St. Thomas More. Please keep her husband, Charles, and her family in your prayers.

May their souls and all the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Vocations

Think you may have a calling to the priesthood, diaconate, or religious life? The Lenten Season is an excellent time for prayer and quiet reflection. It is a time when we celebrate the Passion, Death, and Resurrection of our Lord. A time when we contemplate that which makes us Christian...Catholic. If you wish to explore a calling, contact Deacon Tom at thomasgoeltz@aol.com or 760-727-8442.

Heartnotes

Eighty percent of medical emergencies occur in a family setting. Fewer than 25 percent of victims will receive immediate CPR even though it only takes about three hours to learn this lifesaving skill.

There will be an Adult CPR/AED class on Saturday, April 12, 9:00am-12:00noon. This will be the last Adult CPR class until September. The cost is $37 per person.

Contact: 760-732-1414 or drphilg@cox.net to reserve a place in the class.

The St. Thomas More program is easy!

Call us, and we'll have it picked up operational or not!

You get the tax deduction!

We can accept vehicles without current registration and can file for replacement title if it has been lost.

What Is Get On the Bus?

Get On the Bus brings children and their guardians/caregivers from throughout the state of California to visit their mothers and fathers in Prison. An annual event, Get On the Bus offers free transportation for the children and their caregivers to the prison, provides travel bags for the children, comfort care bags for the caregivers, a photo of each child with his or her parent, and meals for the day (snacks on the bus, lunch at the prison, and dinner on the way home) all at no cost to the children's family. On the bus trip home, following a four-hour visit, each child receives a teddy bear with a letter from their parent and post-event counseling.

"I noticed things about my mother: she was pretty and she looked like me. I found something in common with all the children on the bus. They have a mother in prison too."

—Natasha, age 7

An estimated 856,000 children in California have a parent currently involved in California's adult criminal justice system, nearly 9% of the state's children.

—"Children of Incarcerated Parents" Simmons, Charlene Wear. California Research Bureau, CRB Note. Vol. 7, No.2, March, 2000

—excerpts from Get On the Bus Brochure 2009

An envelope is attached to the bulletin this week if you would like to make a contribution! In addition, you may contribute backpack items for youth ages 12-17 (to entertain themselves on the bus) and individually packaged snacks (no peanuts), which may be dropped off after Masses the weekend of April 26-27.

In Gratitude

"I give thanks to my God every time I think of you . . . rejoicing!" (Phil. 1:3)

Dear friends,

I am still "on a high" thinking about last weekend as we gathered to thank God for my religious vocation of 50 years and for God's fidelity to me as I try to live my vowed life more and more fully each day! I can only do that because of your love and fidelity to me and to our community here at STM.

As I open each card, I am taking a few minutes to reflect on each relationship and to give thanks to God for you in my life.

I want to especially thank Fr. Mike and the very loving and generous ways he and the Parish provided for the entire day! I thank Douglas and the combined choirs who sang and played so beautifully. Thanks to Henny, the entire staff, and so many who helped plan and provide for the celebrations throughout the day! I love showing off our STM community to my family and my CSJ family of sisters who were able to attend!

With love and deep gratitude,

Sr. Maureen, CSJ

Don't forget to invite your children and grandchildren. They will enjoy the treats, lunch, and door prizes while playing their favorite games with you. That's why it is held on a Saturday. Invite your friends and neighbors. They will enjoy it too.

May we experience many extra blessings during these coming holy days. —Ann Buko, president

Memorial Item Donations

Memorials are a way of honoring those whom we love, whether they are living or deceased. Often, memorials are made for a special intention or in thanksgiving for a variety of blessings received from God.

Our Parish Campus will be a living memorial. All who help in building it will leave something to the community itself that will be used by generations to come. The good they do is not interred with them, but will remain to share in the divine activity of God here on earth.

Listed below are items still available for adoption.

All contributions will be recognized in a special memorial to be displayed in our Parish Memorial Garden.

A WAY OF SEEING

Scripture Themes for April

by Patricia Datchuck
 Sánchez and Rafael
 Sánchez Alonso,
 from Celebration
 April 2014,
 with permission.

Why did Jesus die? When author and theologian N.T. Wright put that question to a group of sixth-graders in Montreal, they thought for a few moments and then began to respond. About half of the students gave historical reasons: Jesus died because he clashed with the chief priests; he died because the Romans regarded him as a threat; he died because the Pharisees didn't like him. Others gave more theological responses: Jesus died for the forgiveness of our sins; so that we would be saved; to show us how much God loves us. Wright said that he spent the next hour with the children discussing and making sense of their responses. "I still believe," insisted Wright, "that the putting together of the two sides of that great question—the historical dimension and the theological one—is one of the most important tasks we can engage in when studying Jesus" (The Challenge of Jesus). This month, as we remember and celebrate the passion, death, and resurrection of Jesus, we will be called upon to consider for ourselves: Why did Jesus die? In all our prayerful considerations, we will be drawn more fully and more deeply into the great mystery of all that God has revealed to us in Jesus.

Our journey into that mystery begins on April 6, with Jesus making the words of Ezekiel come to life. What the prophet had promised ("I will open your graves and have you rise from them...I will put my spirit in you that you may live"), Jesus fulfilled. "Lazarus, come out!" Jesus ordered, and he who had died was alive again. What Jesus said to Lazarus, he says to all of us. Come out from the tomb of sin and live. Be no longer dead but alive and in love with the God of life.

As our journey continues, we find ourselves with Jesus about to enter Jerusalem, where the historical and theological dimensions of his life will come to a gut-wrenching climax on the cross (April 13). We will be humbly grateful for the love that led Jesus to his death, and we will be passionately joyful that his death was not the end of his story. On the contrary, Jesus' dying was the passage unto resurrected life. As a consequence of Jesus' passage, every human being has been offered a new way of seeing and of perceiving not only death, but every aspect of life. In his book And Now I See: A Theology of Transformation, Robert Barron explains that believers in Jesus see differently, and that is why our prayers, our actions, and our way of being in the world have a distinctive accent and flavor that flows from our belonging to Jesus, who passed through death to life for our sake. Barron also quotes Origen of Alexandria, who once said that holiness is seeing with the eyes of Christ.

This new way of seeing was clearly reflected in the lives of the earliest believers in Jesus. As we are reacquainted with them during the Sundays of Easter (April 20, 27, etc.), we will witness how they were transformed by the experience of seeing Jesus suffer and die and then appear to them as their risen, glorious Lord. We will watch them as they begin to see that their former way of looking at gentiles (as unclean outsiders) had to be replaced by new and transformed insights. "Everyone who believes in him will receive forgiveness of sins through his name," said Peter (April 20). We will notice the growth in the first believers as they went forth to continue Jesus' ministry, gathering all, indiscriminately, unto God and salvation.

We will also notice that their new way of seeing led to a radical transformation of their lifestyle (April 27). United in prayer, faithful to the teachings of the apostles and to their life together, they remembered and celebrated Jesus in the breaking of the bread. On the strength of that holy sharing, they were able to do many signs and wonders, not the least of which was divesting themselves of property and possessions so as to hold all things in common. All were cared for according to each one's need. United in prayer, in hope, and in service, the growing community had such a positive impact that others sought them out, eager to see and believe as they did.

As we come full circle to the question with which we began—"Why did Jesus die?"—we might add to our historical and theological responses. Jesus died and rose and remains with us through the Spirit so that we can see as he did, live as he did, love as he did, serve as he did, and, when our time has come, make the same passage he once pioneered, from death to everlasting life.

TOWERS OF FAITH

Future Support & Estate Planning Options

Towers of Faith is a movement that has arisen due to the visionary leadership and generosity of several of our Parishioners. We stress that this is not about the gift amount, but rather the love and thought behind the gift.

These individuals (several anonymous) have included STM in their estate planning. This helps to ensure their ongoing support and a legacy for our Parish. Towers of Faith is a valuable portion of our future support.

Examples of the various future planning vehicles are:
Designated Beneficiary Accounts,
Last Will and Testament, Living Trust, Life Insurance, Stocks and Bonds, Real Estate, and Endowments.

Any Parishioners who have already included STM in their estate plans are Towers of Faith participants. If you are interested, please contact us. Your participation is most welcome and appreciated!

Chris Smith at 760-758-4100 x120, or chriss@stmoside.org.

Do two people in your family know the location of your will and/or living trust?

Christian Stewardship Awareness

This is a story about a monk who found and saved a ring encrusted with valuable gemstones.

Later, he met a beggar on the road and was so conflicted about having the gem when someone else so obviously needed it, that he gave the man the gem.

The beggar was stunned and just sat there, amazed by his sudden good fortune. But the more he thought about it, the more he realized he needed something else.

He ran after the monk and said, "Give me something more precious than this gem."

"I have nothing more to give you, my friend," said the holy man.

"Oh, yes, you do," said the beggar. "Please give me what moved you to give me this gem."

If you were the monk, would you be willing to freely give a precious gem to the beggar? Certainly, it would require a heart that has taken seriously the command of Christ to put others' needs ahead of our own.

For this monk, it did not require a certain season of giving, like Christmas, for him to freely part with material wealth. He was a servant of Christ and gladly shared what he had out of obedience to his Lord.

God prizes generosity, especially joyful generosity. Perhaps we need to break the habit of giving so conservatively, so carefully. Maybe we even need to "scare" ourselves with acts of generosity . . . going out on a limb, as it were, and genuinely trusting God to honor our financial faith.

—Parish Publishing LLC, March 2014 e-bulletin (with permission)

It is always moving to hear stories of generosity and gifts freely given. We can't take anything with us when we die. God takes us as we are. Lent is the best time to ponder that and concentrate on how we live our lives. Is there room for improvement?

The poem below is a favorite of mine and I try to use it once a year with all of you. Wishing you all these things ~ Chris

Another Beginning

*I will not wish thee riches nor the glow of greatness, but that wherever thou go
some weary heart shall gladden at thy smile,
or shadowed life know sunshine for awhile.
And so thy path shall be a track of light,
like angel's footsteps passing through the night.*

—Words on a Church Wall in Upwaltham, England

Join us for our annual Butter Lamb Workshop!

Saturday April 19 at 10:00am
(stay for the Blessing of Easter Food at 11:00am)

We're doing it again! This Easter, come learn how to create a lamb made of butter for your Easter table. Jesus is our Paschal Lamb, and using your lamb as a centerpiece reminds us of this.

Bring: (1) two sticks of VERY COLD butter, (2) a small cooler to keep the butter cold, (3) a sharp paring knife, (4) a small plate for your lamb to sit on, and (5) if you have one, a garlic press.

To register, contact Jen Frost at jenf@stmoside.org or 858-692-7438.
