On Living the Resurrected Life

As we mark the Feast of the Resurrection Sunday and begin our celebration of these "Great Fifty Days" of Easter, we are mindful that the Resurrection is not just a one time event, not just a past event, but most importantly, it is a present reality, a faith context, in which we are called to live, move, and have our being.

I share with you the words of Rev. Henri Nouwen, taken from his book, Sabbatical Journey:

...As we claim our faith in the resurrection of the body, we come to see that the resurrection is not simply an event after death but a reality of everyday life.

Our care for the body calls us to unity beyond organization, to intimacy beyond eroticism, and to integrity beyond psychological wholeness.

Unity, intimacy, and integrity are the three spiritual qualities of the resurrected life.

We are called to break through the boundaries of nationality, race, sexual orientation, age, and mental capacities and create a unity of love that allows the weakest among us to live well.

We are called to go far beyond the places of lust, sexual need, and desire for physical union to a spiritual intimacy that involves body, mind, and heart.

And we are called to let go of old ways of feeling good about ourselves and reach out to a new integration of the many facets of our humanity.

These calls are calls to the resurrection.

Caring for the body is preparing the body for the final resurrection while anticipating it in our daily lives through spiritual unity, intimacy, and integrity.

May our participation in the celebration of these "Great Fifty Days" bring us all to greater unity, intimacy, and integrity!

A most blessed Easter Season!

Fr. Mike

Social Ministries & Outreach

Get On the Bus

During the month of May, many youngsters from infancy through age 17 will be travelling by bus to see their imprisoned mothers and fathers in prison. St. Thomas More Parish, along with other churches throughout San Diego County, are sponsoring five buses. In total, 46 buses will be taking children to see their parents in prisons throughout California. Due to finances and the long distances, this is often the only time the children see their mothers or fathers.

In order to make this happen, we need your help! An envelope was attached to the bulletin recently for contributions to cover the cost for these events. We have also been asked to donate the following items for the children on the bus:

- Entertainment items for youth, ages 12-17 (books, magazines, brain teasing workbooks, small hand held games, sketching books, etc.)
- Individually wrapped snacks (no peanuts or raisins)

These items may be dropped off at the Parish Office during the week or after all Masses the weekend of April 26-27 or May 3-4.

If you would like to donate homemade cookies for the children, please give Sr. Maureen a call at (760) 758-4100 x131. They will be needed the morning of May 8.

Baby Shower!

The Parish Culture of Life committee will be hosting a baby shower for Birth Choice, our local pregnancy resource center, the weekend of May 17-18 at all Masses. Formula, diapers, new baby clothes, and donations will be appreciated. For more information contact Jane Kelleher at (760) 822-7041.

Mission of Social Ministries & Outreach

The Mission of the St. Thomas More Social Justice Committee is to:

- † provide awareness and education of Catholic social justice teaching;
- † participate in creating a society with more just laws and social structures;
- † work with other faith groups on justice issues within social, economic, and political structures.

ALLELUIA!!! HE IS RISEN! Now we can rejoice and bask in the glory of the season. One way to celebrate is to enjoy Game Day a week from Saturday on May 3. If you haven't bought your $10 ticket for the lunch, door prizes, snacks, games, and opportunity baskets, you can do so NEXT weekend after Mass. Look for our table on the plaza. And while you are marking your calendar you might as well add the date of our May meeting on May 12. Sometime before then please call Vera Bayliss with your lunch reservation (760) 295-0059.

At the May meeting we will be having a book exchange in case you want to exchange some of the books you've read for some new ones. Even if you don't bring one you can choose a book or two. They are all free for the taking. Dr. Phil Goscienski will be our guest and will share about the book he has written. It is also the meeting at which we will hold our annual election of officers and review our year with a slide show of pictures taken at our meetings and events all year. Be sure to mark your calendar and call in your reservation.

In the meantime the Quilt Group has been busy creating some beautiful quilts for the annual quilt raffle in June. They will be displaying them later on in May.

Have a happy Easter week as we Rejoice in the Lord's Resurrection. —Ann Buko, president

Memorial Item Donations

Memorials are a way of honoring those whom we love, whether they are living or deceased. Often, memorials are made for a special intention or in thanksgiving for a variety of blessings received from God.

Our Parish Campus will be a living memorial. All who help in building it will leave something to the community itself that will be used by generations to come. The good they do is not interred with them, but will remain to share in the divine activity of God here on earth.

Listed below are items still available for adoption.

All contributions will be recognized in a special memorial to be displayed in our Parish Memorial Garden.

For more information or to adopt an item, contact Chris Smith (760) 758-4100 x120 or chriss@stmoside.org

JESUS CHRIST IS RISEN TODAY

Jesus Christ is risen today, Alleluia!
 Our triumphant holy day, Alleluia!
 Who did once upon the cross, Alleluia!
 Suffer to redeem our loss. Alleluia!

Hymns of praise then let us sing, Alleluia!
 Unto Christ, our heavenly king, Alleluia!
 Who endured the cross and grave, Alleluia!
 Sinners to redeem and save. Alleluia!

But the pains which he endured, Alleluia!
 Our salvation have procured; Alleluia!
 Now above the sky he's king, Alleluia!
 Where the angels ever sing. Alleluia!

Sing we to our God above, Alleluia!
 Praise eternal, as his love; Alleluia!
 Praise him, now his might confess, Alleluia!
 Father, Son, and Spirit blest. Alleluia!

John 20:2

Alleluia is the perfect word for Easter Sunday. It simply means, "Praise the Lord." It is used throughout Scripture, especially in Psalms and Revelation, to glorify God for the mighty acts God has done. And what mightier act is there than this: the resurrection of Christ from the dead.

Interestingly, this hymn speaks more about Christ's death than his new life. Both are vital aspects of God's redeeming work. Christ endured the cross and rose from the dead. His death and resurrection are inseparable, and hymn singers exult in all of it. During this Easter season, let us praise the God who made it happen. Alleluia!

Wishing everyone a joyful Easter Season! —Douglas

Praise Team

The liturgies Holy Week and Easter utilize more than 150 volunteers. Ministers of the Word, singers and instrumentalists, ministers of hospitality and Holy Communion, altar servers, thurifers, and sacristans—all support the Mass with grace and style and love. Behind the scenes, the teams that create and install our environment, wash the linens, and provide general housekeeping number more than thirty members. There are many volunteers who produce our worship aids, stuff and organize our bulletins, and prepare all the liturgical supplies—unsung but so very necessary for our celebrations. And let's not forget our Priests, Deacons, and Sister!

This weekend and throughout the year, let us thank God and pray for all our ministers. May we each walk in the footsteps of Christ and bring the love of God into the lives of all those we encounter. Amen.

Good Christian Stewardship = Responsibility

Every gift from God comes with three responsibilities:

- ✝ we should receive our gifts gratefully;
- ✝ use our gifts wisely;
- ✝ and, we are called to share our gifts generously.

Once again we see the power of gratitude in our lives. We in North America are indeed richly blessed. However, our riches are only a blessing when they are rightly and wisely used. This is called good stewardship.

The most important responsibility that we all face is to be responsible with ourselves. We each have been given the awesome gift of free will—a gift that comes with great responsibility. We must strive to be responsible with our thoughts, and our choices. We are bombarded every day with images in the media that attempt to direct the choices we make; and, our choices have consequences.

In between the visual stimuli imposed on us by media images and the resultant consequences, is "Choice." We will enjoy a much more abundant and stress-free life when we choose responsibly. Then we will be ready to look outward; to be responsible with our spouses, our families, our community, and the world.

At the Archdiocese of Winnipeg we have a popular stewardship prayer, and in the middle of the prayer are these words:

*We pray that we may be good stewards:
 that we will follow faithfully,
 serve joyfully,
 give generously,
 live responsibly,
 and possess sensibly.*

One day we will be held responsible for how we used and shared the gifts given to us by our good and gracious God. We are all "response able!" How we respond is our choice. We pray that God's response may be, "You are a good and faithful servant. I left you in charge of only a little, but now I will put you in charge of much more. Come and share in my happiness."

—Matthew 25:23

—partially excerpted from ICSC Catholic Stewardship, article 10 in a 12 part reflection on stewardship virtues by Dan Potvin, Director of Stewardship for the Archdiocese of Winnipeg, Canada, April 2014

Happy Easter to all of our very gifted and generous stewards ~ we are richly blessed at STM!
