"An Actor or a Friend?"

This is one of my favorite stories, and I enjoy sharing it with you from time to time.

A story once told...

"After a large dinner at one of England's stately mansions, a famous actor entertained the guests with stunning Shakespearean readings. Then, as an encore he offered to accept a request. A shy, gray-haired priest asked if he knew the Twenty-third Psalm. The actor said, 'Yes, I do and I will give it on one condition: that when I am finished you recite the very same Psalm.'

The priest was a little embarrassed, but consented. The actor did a beautiful rendition... 'My Shepherd is the Lord, there is nothing I shall want,' and on and on.

The guests applauded loudly when the actor was done, and then it was the priest's turn. The man got up and said the same words but this time there was no applause, just a hushed silence and the beginning of a tear in some eyes.

The actor savored the silence for a few moments and then stood up. He said, 'Ladies and gentlemen, I hope you realized what happened here tonight. I knew the Psalm, but this man knows the Shepherd.'"

— Anonymous Source

This poignant story challenges each of us to look at our approach and motivation for being involved in religion.

Do we see our Catholic Faith as an end in itself or, rather, as a means to an end? Are we only concerned in knowing facts and figures about the Shepherd or are we living our Faith in order to know the Shepherd?

Do we have a personal relationship with the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ? Your answer to that question makes all the difference in the world!

I encourage you to use what the Church offers and gives you to seek and find the Christ. Begin and deepen that friendship with the God who so desires to be in union with you!

In your faith life, are you an actor or a friend?

Facing a Hospital Stay?

If you or someone you know is planning a hospital stay or ends up in the hospital, marking the "Catholic" box on the registration form ensures that the Catholic Chaplain assigned to the hospital will know the patient is Catholic. You may also want to request a visit by the Catholic Chaplain. Most hospitals also have teams of ministers from local Parishes who bring Holy Communion to Catholic patients.

Update on Bishop Flores—April 29

Bishop Cirilo Flores, who suffered a stroke in his office at the Pastoral Center on April 16, is expected to go home from the hospital sometime this week. He will continue to receive care at home. Bishop Flores has been advised by his doctors that he will not be able to return to work at the Pastoral Center or celebrate liturgies for a period of 4-6 weeks.

Bishop Flores is grateful for all who have been praying for his recovery to good health.

—Msgr. Steven F. Callahan, Vicar General

Vocations

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells his disciples "Do not let your hearts be troubled. You have faith in God; have faith in me also". Think you may have a calling to the priesthood, diaconate or vowed religious life but are fearful of answering? Do not be afraid. Investigate the possibilities. Contact Deacon Tom at thomasgoeltz@aol.com or 760-727-8442.

The Diocesan Office of Vocations has issued a short video about vocations. You can watch it at <http://goo.gl/6LY2Hc>.

Social Ministries & Outreach

Community Issues and Concerns Survey

The Parish Social Justice Committee asks you for a minute of your time as you leave church this weekend to fill out a very, very brief survey of Parish and neighborhood needs. As members of this Parish, we are also members of the communities of Oceanside, Vista, San Marcos, and Carlsbad. As we construct our new church building, we are reminded of the relationship between the Parish and the wider community.

Through this survey, the St. Thomas More Social Justice Committee aims to listen to our Parishioners on the issues and concerns that you and your family experience or see in your community. It is our hope to work as a Parish community, inspired and informed by our faith, to pursue solutions.

In doing this, we are following Catholic Social Teaching: “We believe people have a right and a duty to participate in society, seeking together the common good and well-being of all, especially the poor and vulnerable.” (United States Conference of Catholic Bishops) For more information, call Cathy Blecki 760-603-8930.

Get On the Bus

Thank you very much for all your contributions to the children who took a very long bus ride to see their moms in prison this past Friday. Our Parish contributed $2,523 in cash donations, lap blankets, and many wonderful items to help the children pass the time on the bus.

All items not needed by the children visiting their Moms, will be sent to the children visiting their Dads the Friday before Father’s Day!

Of particular tenderness this year, the Get On the Bus program made it possible for a young teenage girl to visit her mom in the prison hospital. Her mom is suffering from stage 4 cancer. Without this program, this young lady would not have been able to see her mom, possibly for the last time.

Special thanks to the 8 women in our parish who baked homemade cookies. I’m sure they were a welcomed treat on the way home!

Thanks again for your generosity.

Sr. Maureen

Marriage & Family Life

Moms & Kids—Are you a mom with infant thru school age children wanting to meet other moms in our parish? Want to find a great way to meet friends for both you and your children? There are many other events throughout the month posted on our private Facebook page. Join us!

Pray for Life, Marriage, and Religious Liberty—Marriage Unique for a Reason—For a wealth of Church teaching on marriage, statements by United States Bishops on marriage and many other tools to equip ourselves in the efforts to defend marriage as a sacred union of one man and one woman, go to <http://www.marriageuniqueforareason.org/> on the internet.

Bishops’ Letter on Marriage—Marriage: Love and Life In The Divine Plan: Marriage and the Kingdom of God—“A marriage that is truly in Christ, a marriage upon which his school of gratitude and openness has left its mark of joy and warmth, is a sign of the Kingdom that is coming. It is a blessing to the couple, to their children, and to everyone who knows them. It offers a sign of hope and a loving witness to human dignity in a world where hope often seems absent and human dignity is often degraded. It is a sign of the Kingdom because the love of Christ moves the married couple to ever greater heights of love.” To read the document go to <http://www.usccb.org/loveandlife/>.

Marriage Moments—Are you a complainer. Even valid complaints can cause wear and tear on a marriage. Pick a day not to complain this week. Was it hard?

Parenting Pointers—“You need to water those plants.” “Your skin looks dry—why don’t you try some moisturizer.” As your kids grow into adults, your role needs to change too. Unless it’s a life or death situation, only give advice when asked. Try to be a listener and encourager, instead of a criticizer. (from Mark Merrill’s Family Minute)

Women's Guild News

Wait until you see the quilts the Guild is raffling off, for which you should now have received tickets in the mail. If you did not get a mailing please check with the Parish office to receive one. They are some of the most beautiful quilts our Guild quilters have created. They hope to display them for you on the plaza.

On June 7 you are invited to join us for lunch at Shadowridge Country Club at 11:00am to help us celebrate our 25th year of existence and Installation of Officers for next year. Election results are: Ann Buko, President; Barbara Brown-Barreras, 1st Vice President; Kathleen Gerhard, 2nd Vice President; Henrietta Black, Recording Secretary; Marcy Bernier, Treasurer; and Lou Gordon Corresponding Secretary. Each is installed for one year. Installation will be done by former Guild President Valerie Thompson. Our History will be celebrated as we begin our second quarter century.

It will be here that raffle ticket winners will have an opportunity to pick which quilt they like; but they must be present. Winners not present will have a quilt chosen for them randomly. It will be at this meeting also that Fr. Mike will be presented with the earnings of all our fund raisers of the previous year; the result of our efforts, and the generosity of all those who have supported us. This gift is for the Mortgage/Building Completion fund for our new church.

We are selling tickets to the luncheon on the plaza the next two weeks and in the office during the week. The luncheon cost is $25. Please join us.

Memorial Item Donations

Memorials are a way of honoring those whom we love, whether they are living or deceased. Often, memorials are made for a special intention or in thanksgiving for a variety of blessings received from God.

Our Parish Campus will be a living memorial. All who help in building it will leave something to the community itself that will be used by generations to come. The good they do is not interred with them, but will remain to share in the divine activity of God here on earth.

Listed below are items still available for adoption.

All contributions will be recognized in a special memorial to be displayed in our Parish Memorial Garden.

For more information or to adopt an item, contact Chris Smith

MY JOURNEY TO THE MASTER

On Friday evening, I walked.

It was a short walk, across a floor, up a few stairs, across a stage, down some stairs, and back to my seat.

Before the walk, I was seated in the arena, waiting and waiting and waiting for others to process in to their seats.

During the long wait, I had a chance to think about the importance of this act of completion.

It is important to embark upon journeys, but it is critical to mark the beginnings and the endings. A chapter begins, and ends. Another chapter begins. These points in time allow us to reflect on the passage we have made. I liken it to the passing of the liturgical seasons. If a one-time hearing of the scriptures of Christmas or Easter or Holy Week or Pentecost or Advent or Lent was sufficient for faith, then we wouldn't keep coming back to them year after year, listening to new homilies, hoping for new insight, praying for new wisdom.

It is also important to grow, to recognize the value of learning, of continuing education, to fortify oneself against the ease of stagnation and repetition. I know of a few of colleagues who have settled in one place on their journey, at eased with the music they know and the pieces they have learned, finding it sufficient to repeat these over and over on some regular schedule, secure in the knowledge that these choices will always be safe and always be appropriate. To me it would be like eating the same meal day after day, month after month, year after year.

It is also important to know that there are others walking their own journeys, and, when one is in a position where one can feel alone (and being a program director at a parish is such a place), to see others who have begun and completed a similar step on their journey of life is affirming and reaffirming.

As part the journey, I had to write a scholarly paper, a thesis, hopefully proving that I am able to think, to research, to draw conclusions, to make an argument. To show a group of academic experts that I have specific knowledge in an area of expertise that contributes to the body of human knowledge, in my case, the telling of the story of a very small, but significant piece of recent Catholic music history.

In the acknowledgements of that thesis document, I wrote:

The work on this project spans more than ten years, with a significant hiatus in the middle as life intervened. In the early years, the "churchy" inspiration for this work came from the people of First Presbyterian Church in Oceanside, California, and Rev. Bill Enns, who during his brief tenure as interim pastor inspired much thought and examination about Protestant liturgy. For the past nine years, I have been blessed to share in the ministry and mission of the people, the staff, and the pastor at St. Thomas More Catholic Church in Oceanside, my co-workers in the vineyard of the Lord. I am particularly indebted to Rev. Michael Ratajczak, pastor of St. Thomas More, who provided the time to restart and finish this project and took a chance on a musician who dreamed of being a liturgist as well.

I have indeed been blessed by all of you. The walk continues, and I am honored to have all of you as my companions on the journey.

God bless you all, and thank you.

TOWERS OF FAITH

Future Support & Estate Planning Options

Towers of Faith is a movement that has arisen due to the visionary leadership and generosity of several of our Parishioners. We stress that this is not about the gift amount, but rather the love and thought behind the gift.

These individuals (several anonymous) have included STM in their estate planning. This helps to ensure their ongoing support and a legacy for our Parish. Towers of Faith is a valuable portion of our future support.

Examples of the various future planning vehicles are:
Designated Beneficiary Accounts,
 Last Will and Testament, Living Trust, Life Insurance, Stocks and Bonds, Real Estate, and Endowments.

Any Parishioners who have already included STM in their estate plans are Towers of Faith participants. If you are interested, please contact us. Your participation is most welcome and appreciated!

Discover What St. Francis of Assisi Catholic School Has to Offer Your Child!

Now Accepting Applications for 2014-2015

St. Francis School is a Roman Catholic preschool, elementary school, and middle school whose purpose is to provide an outstanding, well-rounded academic and moral education to prepare children for the 21st century. We are accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC) and Western Catholic Education Association (WCEA). Over 50 years after opening, St. Francis School remains grounded in the dedication to faith formation, scholastic achievement, and stewardship of our students. Valuing parents as the primary educators of the child, educators and parents work together to create a supportive and dynamic environment where every student can reach his/her potential.

St. Francis School has a Learning Support Program to meet the needs of all students and individualize the education to help every student achieve and excel. Along with a rigorous relevant curriculum, we also offer several extracurricular activities such as, STEM, Robotics, Art, Gardening, Archery, and Tennis. Preschoolers have the option of signing up for the Gym Bus, a mobile gymnastics program for preschool-aged children and Soccer Shots, a soccer program for children aged 2-8.

Please visit the school website www.sfs-vista.org or call the school office at 760- 630-7960 for answers to your questions, to submit an application, or to arrange a tour of the school.
