As We Approach The Altar...

On this Feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, as we approach the altar, let us reflect upon the words of those who have gone before us:

St. Augustine

The Lord left us in this sacrament his body and blood. Now we are called to become his body, and through his mercy, we are what we receive.

Just as you see that the bread is one loaf, so may you be one body by loving one another, by having one faith, one hope, and undivided charity.

Thus too, the wine existed in many clusters of grapes and now it is one. It is one in this cup after the crushing of the grapes in the wine press.

And now, you, in the name of Christ, have come to drink of the cup of the Lord. There you are on the table, and there you are in the cup, for you are one with us. We receive together, and we drink together because we live together.

St. Ignatius of Antioch

Come together in common, one and all without exception in charity, in one faith and in one Jesus Christ, the Son of God and Son of man, so that with undivided mind you may break one bread which is the medicine of immortality and the remedy against death, enabling us to live for ever in Jesus Christ.

St. John Chrysostom

God gave one house for all of us to dwell in. It is called the world. God distributed all created things equally. God kindled one sun for all; stretched above us one roof, the sky; and set up one table, which is the earth.

But God also gave us a much greater table than this. It is the table of one loaf and one cup. We have been made rich and one in this bread and wine.

Then, whence comes the great inequality of conditions of life? From greed and arrogance!

But let this be no longer. Since we are made one in this meal, let us not be driven asunder by envy, greed, jealousy, and hatred. All these are grand illusions for those who partake of the meal of eternal life.

May this meal we share preserve this unity unbroken.

F. Mike

Kudos and Gratitude to our Women's Guild!

Thanks to these incredible women who have blessed us this year with a $20,000 check to our Mortgage/Building Completion Fund. Year after year the Women's Guild hosts fashion shows, monthly meetings with luncheons, produces amazing quilts that are raffled, bake sales, and more. All of these things are done with our Women's Guild greeting all with their beautiful smiles and graciousness! On behalf of myself and the Parish, THANK YOU to the Women's Guild members!

—Rev. Michael Ratajczak, Pastor

Vocations

Many of the Jews did not understand Jesus when he said to eat his flesh and drink his blood. Many people today still do not understand the Eucharist. The Church has a need to have ministers to educate those who follow Christ in the true meaning of the Eucharist. Do you have a calling to be such a minister as a priest, deacon, or religious? If so contact Deacon Tom at thomasgoeltz@aol.com or 760-727-8442.

Considering Becoming Catholic?

Are you beginning to search for a deeper meaning and purpose in your life? Would you like to explore a spiritual dimension inside yourself? Do you have a yearning to experience God in your life? You are invited to join our group of "seekers" who are just beginning to discover the joy of knowing God. We meet two Saturdays a month, 3:30-4:45pm, and YOU are most welcome!

Contact Kathleen Bell, 760-809-6526, 80bell80@gmail.com, for more information.

Peter's Pence Collection

This annual collection provides the Holy Father with the funds he needs to carry out his most important charitable works. The proceeds benefit the most disadvantaged: victims of war, oppression, and disasters. Your gift makes you a pilgrim of charity around the globe. Envelopes were attached to the bulletin last week and may be returned any time during the month of June. Please be generous. Thank you!

who celebrate their 56th wedding anniversary June 21.

May God continue to bless your marriage, and may you be an inspiration to other married couples.

In Memoriam

Please pray for the repose of the soul of:

Constantino DeFranco, who died on September 3, 2013. His Funeral Mass will be on Monday, July 7 at 11:00am at St. Thomas More. Please keep his family in your prayers.

May his soul and all the souls of the faithful departed,

Thank You, Natalie!

Natalie Provinse, our Parish Bookkeeper, is retiring on June 30. Natalie has spent the last 18 years serving the Parish as Parish Secretary and Bookkeeper. Although she is retiring, fortunately, she will continue to share her talents with us in a variety of ways, as a dedicated Parishioner.

After the 10:30am Mass next Sunday, June 29, there will be an informal reception on the plaza to thank her for her dedicated service to our Parish.

Please stop by and give Natalie a hug and a word or two of gratitude! —Rev. Michael Ratajczak, Pastor

Thanks!

...to all who made our Annual Gala a huge success.

Our upper level was transformed into an amazing array of construction-themed beauty!

Stay tuned for the proceeds amount for our Parish, made possible by a multitude of generous donors and participants! The raffle and auction items, Wheel of Fortune, and Champagne Diamond events were top notch.

There is still time to sign up for the Pastor's Dinner on Sunday, August 24, 2:00-5:00pm at the Stone Brewery World Bistro & Gardens in Escondido. We are extending the $150/person offer, (with $75 tax deductible). This event is shaping up to be an event to remember!

Social Ministries & Outreach

St. Bonaventure Clothing Drive

Our Drive this year will be on November 8-9...but now is the time to start thinking of gathering shoes, clothing, and blankets for the literally hundreds of Indians served by the Mission. Many of these people live in destitute third world conditions and count on us as the only dedicated drive to bring assistance to them. If you have a closet full of outdated clothing, etc, please set it aside for us...If your child has finished college and no longer has need of the bedding used in the dorms, please save it for us. Shoes, clothing, and blankets for both sexes and all ages are needed. If you have questions or need help, contact Deacon Tom at thomasgoeltz@aol.com or 760-727-8442. Thank you and God Bless.

Calling All 2014 Graduates!

The Parish Family of St. Thomas More desires to recognize the achievements of those among us who are graduating this year. Graduations may be from grade school, middle school, high school, college, and beyond.

If you happen to be one of these graduates, please call the Parish Office by June 24 with your name and the institution from which you have graduated. We will be compiling a list that will be published in the bulletin the weekend of June 28-29. You will be remembered in prayer at all the three liturgies on that weekend.

Know that your Parish Family is proud of your accomplishments, and that we will continue to support you in all your future endeavors. —Rev. Michael Ratajczak, Pastor

Need Help with Transportation to Church!

Volunteer drivers are needed in our Parish. Some Parishioners would like to attend Mass and cannot drive themselves. Please prayerfully consider helping some of our fellow Parishioners. Thank You!

Know that I am so grateful for the many cards and letters congratulating me on the occasion of my 40th anniversary of Ordination. Know that all is appreciated! You continue to be in my thoughts and prayers... —Rev. Richard Lewandowski

Memorial Item Donations

Memorials are a way of honoring those whom we love, whether they are living or deceased. Often, memorials are made for a special intention or in thanksgiving for a variety of blessings received from God.

Our Parish Campus will be a living memorial. All who help in building it will leave something to the community itself that will be used by generations to come. The good they do is not interred with them, but will remain to share in the divine activity of God here on earth.

Listed below are items still available for adoption.

All contributions will be recognized in a special memorial to be displayed in our Parish Memorial Garden.

“NO TIME...I GOT STUFF TO DO!”

When I was a kid, my father took me to the occasional professional football game in San Francisco. This was before the team won all those championships, and the games usually ended in a loss. We always stayed to the end regardless. My father told me once that it was about sportsmanship and respect—the players gave their best effort to the very end, even when the outcome was not in their favor, and so would we.

Lately, I’ve been wondering why people leave early from our faith community’s celebration each week. Not everyone. Not every week. But density of the assembly during the final verse of the recessional song is significantly less than during the homily and Eucharistic Prayer. Reading the articles that cross my desk on the subject, I find I am not alone among my liturgical colleagues. Many an article has been written about people who arrive after our celebration has begun and before it is concluded.

There are “historical” reasons offered. In the old days, the reasoning goes, there was a “time-clock” mentality of sorts: hear the Gospel proclaimed, receive the Eucharist, and you got your “get-out-of-hell” card for the week. There was no real need to be in church the whole time.

There are “cultural” reasons offered. Our society is busier than it used to be. When I used to ask my father-in-law why he didn’t ever seem to slow down, he would say, “I got stuff to do!” We, like him, have filled our plates, seemingly unable to say “no” as readily as we used to.

Sunday morning, much less the entire day, can no longer be set aside. There are things to do. There are things that must be done. Going to church is just one part of a busy day. No longer is going to church the beginning of a day set aside for rest.

To my thinking, it is really about discipline...and priorities. When one of my parents became borderline diabetic, changes were made. A disciplined approach to what and when they ate appeared. Regular testing of blood sugar became the norm. The priority was to head off a drastic possibility.

Can we discipline ourselves to be at church when our community meets to worship? Can we discipline ourselves to wholly commit to the liturgy, from beginning to end... from our first communal utterance to our last?

Beyond being an opportunity for prayer and praise, our attendance in communal worship indicates the priority that God and this Faith Community have in our lives. Are we disciplined enough to make them our first priority?

—Douglas

John 6:57

Singing during Holy Communion

This feast of the Holy Body and Blood of Christ provides a good opportunity to reflect on why we sing during the Communion procession. We sing during Communion because what we are doing is a communal action rather than a private one. Although we are individuals, we move in procession to the Eucharistic table as one Body. Being fed together on the Body and Blood of Christ, we become more fully who we are because of baptism—the community of the church. We sing together at Communion so that the unity of our voices may express the unity of our hearts and minds.

The Communion song, whether sung by choir or congregation, begins when the priest receives Communion, signifying the unity of our faith community—priest and people as one before the Lord—being fed with the Body and Blood of Christ. Our song continues until the last person has received.

By singing from the Communion of the priest to the to the Communion of the last person in line, we express that we are all one Body in Christ, called to communion with him and through him and one another.

TOWERS OF FAITH

Future Support & Estate Planning Options

Towers of Faith is a movement that has arisen due to the visionary leadership and generosity of several of our Parishioners. We stress that this is not about the gift amount, but rather the love and thought behind the gift.

These individuals (several anonymous) have included STM in their estate planning. This helps to ensure their ongoing support and a legacy for our Parish. Towers of Faith is a valuable portion of our future support.

Examples of the various future planning vehicles are:
Designated Beneficiary Accounts,
Last Will and Testament, Living Trust, Life Insurance, Stocks and Bonds, Real Estate, and Endowments.

Any parishioners who have already included STM in their estate plans are Towers of Faith participants. If you are interested, please contact us. Your participation is most welcome and appreciated!

Chris Smith at 760-758-4100 x120, or chriss@stmoside.org.

Discover What St. Francis of Assisi Catholic School Has to Offer Your Child!

Now Accepting Applications for 2014-2015

St. Francis School is a Roman Catholic preschool, elementary school, and middle school whose purpose is to provide an outstanding, well-rounded academic and moral education to prepare children for the 21st century. We are accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC) and Western Catholic Education Association (WCEA). Over 50 years after opening, St. Francis School remains grounded in the dedication to faith formation, scholastic achievement, and stewardship of our students. Valuing parents as the primary educators of the child, educators and parents work together to create a supportive and dynamic environment where every student can reach his/her potential.

St. Francis School has a Learning Support Program to meet the needs of all students and individualize the education to help every student achieve and excel. Along with a rigorous relevant curriculum, we also offer several extracurricular activities such as STEM, Robotics, Art, Gardening, Archery, and Tennis. Preschoolers have the option of signing up for the Gym Bus, a mobile gymnastics program for preschool-aged children and Soccer Shots, a soccer program for children aged 2-8.

Please visit the school website www.sfs-vista.org or call the school office at 760-630-7960 for answers to your questions, to submit an application, or to arrange a tour of the school.
