Summer—A Time of Recreation and Re-creation

There were times when I could not afford to sacrifice the bloom of the present moment to any work, whether of head or hands. Sometimes, in a summer morning, having taken my accustomed bath, I sat in my sunny doorway from sunrise till noon, rapt in a reverie, amidst the pines and hickories and sumachs, in undisturbed solitude and stillness, while the birds sang around. I grew in those seasons like corn in the night, and they were far better than any work of the hands would have been. They were not time subtracted from my life, but so much over and above my usual allowance.

—Henry David Thoreau

It is summer . . . Change the normal routine . . . Let July and August be different . . .

“Waste” time . . . “Waste” time alone . . . “Waste” time with family and friends . . .
Recreate lavishly . . .

Be “re-created” . . .

STM Archives Wants Your Material

The STM Historian is looking for material from Parish events and activities since our church was established in 1985. The kinds of material that are needed include: photographs, newspaper clippings, brochures, fliers, reports, videos, drawings—anything that represents our congregational memory! Please check your drawers, file cabinets, and that creepy ol' box in the attic. You can drop off your donations at the Parish office. Thanks!

For more information and questions, please feel free to contact: Brandon at 760-845-5450 or brandon.oswald@gmail.com.

Joan Rosa, who died in March 2014. A Celebration of Life is scheduled for Friday, July 18, at Ocean Hills Country Club. Please keep her husband, Vincent, and her family in your prayers.

Stephen Koonce, who died on June 20. His Funeral Mass will be celebrated on Thursday, July 10, at 11:00am at St. Thomas More. Please keep his family in your prayers.

Sue Welch, who died on June 25. Her Funeral Mass will be celebrated on Tuesday, July 15, at 10:30am, at St. Vincent Ferrer Church, 27931 Murrieta Rd., Sun City. Please keep her daughter Debbie (Bill) Ipsen, and her family in your prayers.

Arlene Noles, who died on June 26. Her funeral services were held in Portland, Oregon. Please keep her family in your prayers.

May their souls and all the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Thanks!

...to all who made our Annual Gala a huge success.

Our upper level was transformed into an amazing array of construction-themed beauty!

The results of all of our combined efforts made it possible for our Gala committee to present Fr. Mike with a check for $56,000! This was not only an exciting and enjoyable evening, but it benefited our Parish as well!

Remember, there is still time to sign up for the Pastor's Dinner on Sunday, August 24, 2:00-5:00pm at the Stone Brewery World Bistro & Gardens in Escondido. We are extending the $150/person offer (with $75 tax deductible). This event is shaping up to be an event to remember!

Social Ministries & Outreach

Attention JustFaith and Engaging Spirituality Graduates of North County! (and anyone else interested in attending)

Hearts Wide Open:

A Parish Mission in the Spirit of Pope Francis

Jack Jezreel, M.Div., is the Founder and President of JustFaith Ministries, an organization dedicated to creating, supporting, and inspiring commitment to social ministry. He is a popular and well-traveled speaker and teacher, sometimes introduced as a “Johnny Appleseed” of the U.S. Church’s social mission.

Jack will be giving a Parish Mission on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, July 21, 22, and 23, at 7:00pm at St. James-St. Leo Catholic Community, Parish Hall, 570 Nardo Ave., Solana Beach.

To pre-register, contact 858-755-2545 ext. 107 or Katie@stjames-stleo.com.

Graduates: St. James Community will also be hosting a wine and cheese gathering with Jack on Sunday afternoon, July 20 at 4:00pm. Mark your calendars! Details to follow.

St. Bonaventure Clothing Drive (November 8-9)

We are all called upon to help the poor...and for 20 years STM has been the only entity to regularly help the impoverished Native Americans on the reservation in New Mexico. Literally hundreds of people are aided by your generous donations of blankets, clothing, and shoes. What can you do to help? In addition to scouring your closets for those seldom worn but serviceable items, perhaps you could have a “mini” clothing drive from friends, neighbors, or coworkers. Every little bit helps. If you have questions or comments, contact Deacon Tom at thomasgoeltz@aol.com or 760-727-8442. Thank you and God bless!

STM Vehicle Donation Program

Do you have a vehicle you want to donate?

Call us, and we'll have it picked up operational or not!

You get the tax deduction!

We can accept vehicles without current registration and can file for replacement title if it has been lost.

As of June 17 we have netted $52,402 from this program. Thank you donors!

Marriage & Family Life

Moms & Kids—Moms! Summer break is here! If you are a mom with infant through school-age children wanting to meet other moms in our Parish or want to meet friends for both you and your children then this is a great time to join our group! The Moms and Kids ministry is meeting on the first and third Mondays of July at a local park, 10:00am-12:00noon. There are many other events within our community throughout the month posted on our private Facebook page. Join us! Contact Jen Abelson at jen.abelson@gmail.com.

Pray for Life, Marriage and Religious Liberty—Pray for Life, Marriage and Religious Liberty—JOIN THE MOVEMENT Visit www.usccb.org/fast to sign the fasting pledge and to sign up for weekly e-mail reminders & intentions, or text “Fast” to 99000 to receive weekly text messages.

Bishop’s Letter on Marriage—Marriage: Love and Life In The Divine Plan: God’s Love, Our Love. “God established marriage so that man and woman could participate in his love and thus selflessly give themselves to each other in love. A man and a woman who by their act of consent are no longer two but one flesh (see Mt 19:6ff.) and render mutual help and service to each other through an intimate union of their persons and of their actions.” To read the document go to <http://www.usccb.org/loveandlife/>.

Marriage Encounter—Do you have a good marriage but want a little jumpstart? Would you and your spouse like to rediscover and reconnect with each other? Then we invite you to attend a Marriage Encounter Weekend. Weekends take place in San Diego and other Southern California locations throughout the year. For more information, visit www.wvme.org or contact Eddie and Sheila Murphy at 760-295-0008.

Marriage Moments— “Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest.” (Mt 11:28) Although our culture does not always support it, scripture tells us that Sundays are a day of rest. Despite your “To Do List,” save time to recreate and rest with your beloved today. By Susan Vogt, www.SusanVogt.net.

Parenting Pointers—(This past Friday we celebrated Independence Day) What does it mean to be a “free” in a family? Certainly it doesn’t mean being free to avoid chores, make decisions solely on one’s own, or do whatever I please. As parents and children we have responsibilities to each other. We don’t choose our children or parents. Even in adoption the choice is to an unknown future together. However, we are free to choose to love unconditionally. By Susan Vogt, www.SusanVogt.net.

Catholic Widows and Widowers of North County

Would you like to expand your social life and meet a group of interesting and friendly widowed people? On Sunday, July 13, CWWNC will be HERE at STM at 2:00pm for their General Meeting and Potluck. This would be a perfect time to get acquainted with our members from all of North County. For more information, call Carol Kope at 760-726-0533 or Gerri Wilmott at 760-758-9949. See the bulletin board on the lower level for our complete monthly calendar of social activities including dining out, dancing, various sports (hiking and bocce ball), and theatre. RSVPs are required.

Vocations

Jesus asked his disciples "Who do people say that I am...and, who do you say that I am?" Peter was the only one to volunteer a correct answer. Even today, many do not truly know who Jesus is. The Church is in need of good people to guide others to know Christ. Do you feel a call to help as a priest, deacon, or religious? If so, contact Deacon Tom at thomasgoeltz@aol.com or 760-727-8442. Explore the possibilities.

The Diocesan Office of Vocations has issued a short video about vocations. You can watch it at <http://goo.gl/6LY2Hc>.

Considering Becoming Catholic?

Are you beginning to search for a deeper meaning and purpose in your life? Would you like to explore a spiritual dimension inside yourself? Do you have a yearning to experience God in your life? You are invited to join our group of "seekers" who are just beginning to discover the joy of knowing God. We meet two Saturdays a month, 3:30-4:45pm, and YOU are most welcome!

Memorial Item Donations

Memorials are a way of honoring those whom we love, whether they are living or deceased. Often, memorials are made for a special intention or in thanksgiving for a variety of blessings received from God.

Our Parish Campus will be a living memorial. All who help in building it will leave something to the community itself that will be used by generations to come. The good they do is not interred with them, but will remain to share in the divine activity of God here on earth.

Listed below are items still available for adoption.

All contributions will be recognized in a special memorial to be displayed in our Parish Memorial Garden.

For more information or to adopt an item, contact Chris Smith

LESSONS FROM OUR YOKEMATE

Scripture themes for July

by Patricia Datchuck
 Sánchez and Rafael
 Sánchez Alonso,
 from Celebration
 July 2014,
 with permission.

Of the many titles attributed to Jesus in the Gospels, the one that will be featured this month is Teacher. Most of us have probably known a teacher who has considerably influenced our lives. But none can compare to Jesus, who, at the very beginning of our July tutelage, invites us to “Come to me...learn from me, share my yoke, find rest for yourselves” (Matt 11:28-30, July 6). Approximately a century before the Matthean Jesus issued this invitation, another Jesus (son of Eleazar, son of Sirach) spoke similar words to the youth of his day: “Come aside to me, you untutored, and take up lodging in the house of instruction. How long will you be deprived of wisdom’s food?...I open my mouth and speak of her: gain, at no cost, wisdom for yourselves. Submit your need to her yoke, that your mind may accept her teaching. For she is close to those who seek her and the one who is in earnest finds her” (Sir 51:23-26).

In his capacity as God’s living, breathing Word and wisdom-made-flesh, Jesus will continue our spiritual formation using his preferred teaching method, the parable. Sometimes described as “the truth wrapped in a tale,” parables place something familiar alongside something less so in order to shed light upon the less familiar thing. A parable is not to be confused with a fable or interpreted allegorically. Parables usually communicate a single truth. In fact, Jesus told clusters of parables to teach of the imminence of the kingdom, the importance of the kingdom, the supreme value of the kingdom, the inclusiveness of the kingdom, the inevitability of the kingdom, and the costliness of discipleship. As Linda L. Clader has explained, when Jesus began his parables with “The kingdom of heaven is like...” it was as if he were saying, “Attention! Engage imagination!” (Voicing the Vision, Morehouse Pub., Harrisburg, Pa: 2003). Then he proceeded with the parable, which proved to be a masterful and enigmatic form of prophetic speech. Each parable challenges listeners to let Jesus lead them toward the truth he wishes to teach and to embrace that truth and grow accordingly.

Chapter 13 of Matthew’s Gospel, from which the Gospels for July 13, 20, and 27 have been selected, represents a series of parables collected by the evangelist and shaped into a discourse. This, the third great discourse of the Matthean Gospel, consists of seven parables, an explanation of the reason Jesus spoke in parables, and the early church’s interpretation of the parables of the sower as well as the wheat and the weeds. As John P. Meier has explained, Chapter 13 was prompted by the fact that Jesus’ teachings were met with resistance by those who refused to accept his words (Matthew, Michael Glazier, Inc., Wilmington, Del.: 1980). As a result, he began to speak in parables to make his teaching concrete, while challenging his listeners with a radically new way of perceiving God, salvation, and themselves.

On July 13, Jesus challenges all who will hear to be receptive to God’s word as good soil is receptive to the sown seed. Just as the receptive soil can produce an abundant harvest, so is the one who hears and lives by the word capable of bearing the good fruit of faith and service.

Jesus will remind us on July 20 that the good and the bad, the weeds and the wheat grow side by side in this world. Indeed, the good and the bad, the weeds and the wheat grow within each of our hearts. While it is not our prerogative to judge the “weediness” or worthiness of others, it is our responsibility to use the time we have to become worthy of being gathered into the Lord’s barn at harvest time. On that same Sunday, and with the twin parables of the mustard seed and the leaven, we will be encouraged to trust that God’s grace can bring about spectacular results from even the most meager beginnings. What began as a tiny movement two millennia ago has become a worldwide church with the graced capacity to transform the world.

Matthew 11:28-29

July 27 will leave us with a lesson on the value of the kingdom and its inclusiveness. Like a pearl for which a merchant would sell all he has; like a hidden treasure in a field for which a person would sacrifice all else—the privilege of belonging to God is worth all we are and all we have. Not for only a few, not for the perfect, the kingdom’s embrace, like a great fishing net, reaches out to everyone without exception. We who yearn for that kingdom are to learn the lessons taught by Jesus, and, with a love like his, to exclude no one, judge no one and extend ourselves and our service to all. Our yokemate expects no less.

TOWERS OF FAITH

Future Support & Estate Planning Options

Towers of Faith is a movement that has arisen due to the visionary leadership and generosity of several of our Parishioners. We stress that this is not about the gift amount, but rather the love and thought behind the gift.

These individuals (several anonymous) have included STM in their estate planning. This helps to ensure their ongoing support and a legacy for our Parish. Towers of Faith is a valuable portion of our future support.

Examples of the various future planning vehicles are:
 Designated Beneficiary Accounts,
 Last Will and Testament, Living Trust, Life Insurance, Stocks and Bonds, Real Estate, and Endowments.

Any Parishioners who have already included STM in their estate plans are Towers of Faith participants. If you are interested, please contact us. Your participation is most welcome and appreciated!

Chris Smith at 760-758-4100 x120, or chriss@stmoside.org.

Christian Stewardship Prayer For July

Lord and Creator,

You are the source of wisdom and grace,
 the author of human freedom and creativity.

We thank you for these gifts, and ask that you teach us to be good stewards of our creative spirits.

Show us how to quiet ourselves, and to learn the art of re-creation, reflection and relaxation
 so that we might recharge and refill ourselves for the work you have planned for us.

Help us never to be too busy to pause and realize your gracious presence all around us:
 in nature, in other people, in ourselves.

Slow us down, Lord, and teach us to be stewards of our time of recreation.

Amen.

St. Francis School is our Parish School!—Families from St. Thomas More are extended the same benefits and rewards as St. Francis Parishioners, including:

- Parishioner priority for enrollment at St. Francis School,
- Equal tuition rates,
- Financial aid opportunities, and
- Fundraising support.

Discover What St. Francis of Assisi Catholic School Has to Offer Your Child!

Now Accepting Applications for 2014-2015

St. Francis School is a Roman Catholic preschool, elementary school, and middle school whose purpose is to provide an outstanding, well-rounded academic and moral education to prepare children for the 21st century. We are accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC) and Western Catholic Education Association (WCEA). Over 50 years after opening, St. Francis School remains grounded in the dedication to faith formation, scholastic achievement, and stewardship of our students. Valuing parents as the primary educators of the child, educators and parents work together to create a supportive and dynamic environment where every student can reach his/her potential.

St. Francis School has a Learning Support Program to meet the needs of all students and individualize the education to help every student achieve and excel. Along with a rigorous relevant curriculum, we also offer several extracurricular activities such as STEM, Robotics, Art, Gardening, Archery, and Tennis. Preschoolers have the option of signing up for the Gym Bus, a mobile gymnastics program for preschool-aged children and Soccer Shots, a soccer program for children aged 2-8.

Please visit the school website www.sfs-vista.org or call the school office at 760- 630-7960 for answers to your questions, to submit an application, or to arrange a tour of the school.
