Ministerial Leadership in the Church—The Role of the Pastor

In the last number of years, we have experienced great changes in ministerial leadership in the Church. The shift from priests and sisters providing the majority of service to the community to lay women and men, in the majority, ministering along with priests, deacons, and sisters has created an entirely different “face” to Parish leadership. This new “face” is very evident here at St. Thomas More.

With this in mind, I want to share some thoughts on the role of a pastor taken from Canon Law and then some thoughts on lay leadership and collaboration with clergy.

This week I focus on the role of the pastor. Next week, there will be thoughts on lay leadership.

Canon 528.1: A pastor is obliged to make provision so that the Word of God is proclaimed in its entirety to those living in the Parish; for this reason, he is to take care that the lay members of the Christian faithful are instructed in the truths of the faith, especially by giving a homily on Sundays and holy days of obligation and by offering catechetical instruction. He is to foster works through which the spirit of the gospel is promoted, even in what pertains to social justice. He is to have particular care for the Catholic education of children and youth. He is to make every effort, even with the collaboration of the Christian faithful, so that the message of the gospel comes also to those who have ceased the practice of their religion or do not profess the true faith.

Canon 528.2: The pastor is to see to it that the Most Holy Eucharist is the center of the Parish assembly of the faithful.

He is to work so that the Christian faithful are nourished through the devout celebration of the sacraments and, in a special way, that they frequently approach the sacraments of the Most Holy Eucharist and Penance. He is also to endeavor that they are led to practice prayer even as families and take part consciously and actively in the sacred liturgy which, under the authority of the diocesan bishop, the pastor must direct in his own parish and is bound to watch over so that no abuses creep in.

Canon 529.1: In order to fulfill his office diligently, a pastor is to strive to know the faithful entrusted to his care.

Therefore he is to visit families, sharing especially in the cares, anxieties, and griefs of the faithful, strengthening them in the Lord, and prudently correcting them if they are failing in certain areas. With generous love he is to help the sick, particularly those close to death, by refreshing them solicitously with the sacraments and commending their souls to God; with particular diligence he is to seek out the poor, the afflicted, the lonely, those exiled from their country, and similarly those weighed down by special difficulties. He is to work so that spouses and parents are supported in fulfilling their proper duties and is to foster growth of Christian life in the family.

Canon 529.2: A pastor is to recognize and promote the proper part which the lay members of the Christian faithful have in the mission of the Church, by fostering their associations for the purposes of religion. He is to cooperate with his own bishop and the presbyterium of the diocese, also working so that the faithful have concern for parochial communion, consider themselves members of the diocese and of the universal Church, and participate in and sustain efforts to promote this shared communion

—From the Code of Canon Law (1983)

Update on Fr. Mike's Hip Replacement

He is now at home continuing his recovery, and all is going very well...Fr. Mike asks that there be no visitors. He does ask for your continued prayers and good thoughts. Thank you!

Welcome New Parishioners

David Estey
Raymond & Khristina Leyba & Family
Albert & Tiffany Sejut

Congratulations to

Mike & Kathy Nichols
who celebrate their 6th wedding anniversary July 19.

May God continue to bless your marriage, and may you be an inspiration to other married couples.

Considering Becoming Catholic?

Are you beginning to search for a deeper meaning and purpose in your life? Would you like to explore a spiritual dimension inside yourself? Do you have a yearning to experience God in your life? You are invited to join our group of "seekers" who are just beginning to discover the joy of knowing God. We meet two Saturdays a month, 3:30-4:45pm, and YOU are most welcome!

Contact Kathleen Bell at 760-809-6526 or 80bell80@gmail.com for more information.

Vocations

In today's Gospel, Jesus uses the parable of a man sowing a tiny mustard seed which then grows into a large bush. The Church is in great need of "sowers" to plant the seed of the Gospel and the teachings of Jesus so that our faith can continue to grow within us. Have you heard the call of God to become the sower of His Word as a priest, deacon, or vowed religious? If so, explore the possibilities by contacting Deacon Tom at thomasgoeltz@aol.com or 760-727-8442. A vocation to become a sower of God's teachings is a great way of life.

Pilgrimage to Turkey and Italy

I will be leading a pilgrimage to Turkey and Italy...October 6-17, 2014...We will visit Istanbul, Venice, Florence, Padua, Assisi, and Rome with a Papal Audience...$3,599...Brochures are available at the Information Table on the Plaza after weekend Masses or in the Parish Office during the week.

Social Ministries & Outreach

Attention Get On The Bus Supporters

We have recently discovered that a “check mailing” to Get On the Bus did not arrive at their office as expected.

If you made a check out to Get On the Bus and gave it to St. Thomas More for delivery, please check your records. If the check has not yet cleared, please void the check. If you wish to replace the check, please send it directly to:

Get on the Bus
6400 Laurel Canyon, STE 304
North Hollywood, CA 91606

If you have any questions, contact Sr. Maureen at 760-758-4100 x131. We regret any inconvenience this may have caused you.

Hearts Wide Open: A Parish Mission

Jack Jezreel, M.Div., the Founder and President of JustFaith Ministries, an organization dedicated to creating, supporting and inspiring commitment to social ministry, will be giving a Parish Mission on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, July 21, 22, and 23, at St. James-St. Leo Catholic Community, Parish Hall, 570 Nardo Ave., Solana Beach. To pre-register, contact 858-755-2545 x107 or Katie@stjames-stleo.com.

Faith Encounters the Ecological Crisis

Are you concerned about the forces that are threatening the ecological systems in which we live? Would you like to learn more about the challenges we face in caring for our mother earth?

Beginning the week of September 15, the group will meet once a week for 8 weeks. This JustFaith module was designed as a community learning process built around the book, Living Beyond the End of the World, A Spirituality of Hope, by Margaret Swedish. The module has a strong focus on Catholic social teaching and asks very big questions about our priorities, our moral values, what we owe the world now and the future generations that come after us, and what God intended for this creation.

If you are interested in attending an information meeting or signing up now for this course, please contact Sr. Maureen at 760-672-8257 x 131 or maureenb@stmoside.org. The meeting time and day/evening of the week will be decided by the group.

St. Bonaventure Clothing Drive (November 8-9)

Our clothing drive this year will be on November 8-9. While that seems a long way off, the time will pass quickly. The St. Bonaventure Mission is in great need of clothing, blankets, and shoes to give to the hundreds of Navajo Indians they serve. We at STM are the major source of providing these items through your generosity. We are the only dedicated drive to assist them in clothing, etc by our contributions of gently used items to these impoverished people. Please continue the generosity you have shown for the past 20 years. If you have any questions or desire to help, contact Deacon Tom at thomasgoeltz@aol.com or 760-727-8442. Thank you and God Bless You!

Marriage & Family Life

Moms & Kids—Moms! Summer break is here! If you are a mom with infant through school-age children wanting to meet other moms in our Parish or want to meet friends for both you and your children then this is a great time to join our group! The Moms and Kids ministry is meeting on the first and third Mondays of July at a local park, 10:00am-12:00noon. There are many other events within our community throughout the month posted on our private Facebook page. Join us! Contact Jen Abelson at jen.abelson@gmail.com.

Pray for Life, Marriage and Religious Liberty—Marriage Unique for a Reason: For a wealth of Church teaching on marriage, statements by United States Bishops on marriage, and many other tools to equip ourselves in the efforts to defend marriage as a sacred union of one man and one woman, go to <http://www.marriageuniqueforareason.org/> on the internet.

Bishop’s Letter on Marriage—Love and Life In The Divine Plan: Life-Affirming “Even when their child-bearing years have passed, a couple should continue to be life affirming. They can do this by staying involved in the lives of young people, and especially their grandchildren, as spiritual mentors, teachers, and wisdom figures.” To read the document go to <http://www.usccb.org/loveandlife/>.

Marriage Encounter—Do you have a good marriage but want a little jumpstart? Would you and your spouse like to rediscover and reconnect with each other? Then we invite you to attend a Marriage Encounter Weekend. Weekends take place in San Diego and other Southern California locations throughout the year. For more information, visit www.wvme.org or contact Eddie and Sheila Murphy at 760-295-0008.

Marriage Moments— “For we do not know how to pray as we ought” (Romans 8:26). Prayer is good for anyone, at any time, but many couples are afraid to pray together. It may feel like letting another into one’s private world. Check out <http://www.foryourmarriage.org/10-pointers-for-prayer/> or http://www.susanvogt.net/PDF/PDF M-Who Me Pray With Her1.pdf for a start. By Susan Vogt, www.SusanVogt.net.

Parenting Pointers— “Explain to us the parable of the weeds in the field” (Mt: 13: 36). Jesus talks a lot about seeds and weeds. Children of course are like the seeds that we nurture and hope to see blossom. But life doesn’t always work neatly. As parents, we must sometimes carefully weed bad habits out of ourselves and our children without damaging the root and their spirit. Has your child inherited “bad weeds” from you? Prune yourself first. By Susan Vogt, www.SusanVogt.net.

Parish Events

Attention Men!

The next Men’s Fellowship meeting will be on Friday, August 8, at 7:00pm. Also mark your calendars for a Men’s Prayer Breakfast on Saturday, August 9. For more information, contact Deacon John Fredette at johnf@stmoside.org or 760- 758-4100 x132.

Women’s Guild News

We’re back!! Not that summer is over, but the Women’s Guild leaders are already making plans for next year. We want to make it fun, relaxing, prayerful, prize-winning, delicious, welcoming, and successful in supporting our Parish with enjoyable fundraisers and making our members, new and old, feel at home by meeting and making old and new friends. We would love to expand our membership, even to those who can’t make the regular meetings. We’re planning Saturday events for those of you who work during the week. If you can’t find a ride, we’ll try to find you one. If you are new to the Parish, welcome. We want you to join us and have you put some pizzazz in your life.

We will be enrolling new members in the coming weeks, so please fill out the form from last week’s bulletin, pick one up at the table on the plaza after Mass, or download one from the Parish website (www.stmoside.org). You can also get one from the Parish Office. Our first meeting is on Monday, September 14, at 11:00am.

We look forward to another wonderful year together. Don’t forget to sign up! —Ann Buko, president

All About Eyes Class at STM

Anyone experiencing visual problems and desiring more information on resources that can be beneficial will get answers to many questions regarding visual impairments and eye health from a possible class facilitated by the Braille Institute in September. You do not have to be visually disabled to take this class. If you are interested, please sign up at the table on the plaza the weekends of July 26-27 or August 2-3. We need at least four people signed up to offer the class. For more information, contact Ann Eriksson at 760-599-7151.

STM Vehicle Donation Program

Do you have a vehicle you want to donate? Call us, and we’ll have it picked up operational or not! You get the tax deduction!

We can accept vehicles without current registration and can file for replacement title if it has been lost.

As of June 17 we have netted $52,402 from this program. Thank you donors!

For more information, contact the Parish Office: 760-758-4100 x100 or parishoffice@stmoside.org

Memorial Item Donations

Memorials are a way of honoring those whom we love, whether they are living or deceased. Often, memorials are made for a special intention or in thanksgiving for a variety of blessings received from God.

Our Parish Campus will be a living memorial. All who help in building it will leave something to the community itself that will be used by generations to come. The good they do is not interred with them, but will remain to share in the divine activity of God here on earth.

Listed below are items still available for adoption.

All contributions will be recognized in a special memorial to be displayed in our Parish Memorial Garden.

For more information or to adopt an item, contact Chris Smith 760-758-4100 x120 or chris@stmoside.org

THE FEAST OF ST. SOMEDAY

Robert Wolterstorff was the first bishop of the Episcopal diocese of San Diego.

*Bishop Wolterstorff died April 24, 2007
 at the age of 92.*

A Church periodical I once read suggested we should have a “someday week,” because there are already so many observances during the year in behalf of this, that and the other thing. Why not one more?

The article also said that scarcely a week passed that one does not say, “Someday, we’ll...” Someday is the day we are going to take our family or just the grandchildren to the Zoo, or Sea World, or Disneyland. Our someday is the day we are going to turn off our television and read a good book so that we will really learn something new.

What would this world be like today if the apostles had answered our Lord’s call to follow him by saying, “Someday?” We have all heard friends say, “How good life is going to be someday, when I can finally retire.” I retired 24 years ago, but I am still an active person who enjoys life each day and I look forward to each new day. Instead of someday, now is the acceptable time to become more involved in the life of your parish church.

Please don’t think of the Church as a pyramid with your pastor at the pinnacle. Rather think of your Church as a circle with Jesus Christ in the center and a community of clergy and laity together, gathered around ministering to each other. The reason we gather each week in God’s house is to scatter—to go out and bring others into Christ’s holy fellowship.

St. Francis of Assisi once wrote, “You may be the only Gospel your neighbor will ever hear.” Yes, what we do often speaks louder than what we say. Perhaps it is you who will be the only one to carry Jesus’ message to someone who knows him not.

Why was there such tremendous power in the early Church? Because all the followers of Christ understood that they had a ministry to perform. When the Church began to place the responsibility for ministry on the ordained professionals it was no longer the salt of the earth or the light of the world. Problems that do occur in churches may well stem from our attitude of just coming to get, rather than coming to give.

Christ’s ministry through us begins once we really become concerned for others we know who are ill or lonely and in need of help or support.

St. Paul once said for us to live our lives now and not to wait for that someday. We must share our joys and sorrows as well as life’s triumphs and defeats.

Our Lord asked Simon, Andrew, James, and John to leave a profitable business and follow him. As we seek to follow Christ in today’s world, we must mirror the concern that the Church is essential to God’s plan of salvation. We can lead a good life apart from Christ, but not a Christian life.

Once I saw a child on TV dig deep into a peanut butter jar and bring out a mound of glistening goodness and spread it on a piece of bread and then bite into it. This ad really caught my eye as I, too, am addicted to peanut butter. But, this reminded me of many other commercials—a fork full of fluffy pancakes, dripping with syrup; chocolate stretching from the end of a candy bar; pizza with cheese melting; a double-decker hamburger with a bite missing. All say, “Taste and see how good it is.”

Then I began to wonder if we are not all living commercials, because the things we do and say sell something all day long; be it assurance, doubt, fear, faith, discouragement, anger, peace, or love.

As Christians we are doing God’s commercials for the best product in the world. There is no one who doesn’t need it. What is our product? Christ’s Gospel.

This means that we must be willing to offer more than lip service to the problems of unemployment, undernourishment, and inadequate housing. Once we show forth in our lives what we believe in our hearts, a new spirit will develop in our greater community.

Our responsibility is to know the Christ and to make him known. Remember that the seeds of tomorrow are sown today. What the world needs to see in you and me is Christ as we radiate his love.

Not on the Feast of St. Someday, but now!

A Way to Give ~ A Way to Receive

Designated Bank Accounts, Wills, Living Trusts, Stocks, Life Insurance, Mutual Funds, Real Estate, Endowments

Planned Giving is a generic term that covers the many ways an individual can give to a charity while, in many cases avoiding taxes. A few examples of Planned Giving are: Designated Beneficiary Accounts, Wills, Living Trusts, Stocks, Life Insurance, Mutual Funds, Endowments, and Real Estate.

This program is one way of helping the Parish raise the resources necessary to continue our campus buildout and also help plan for our future needs (i.e., Tower of Faith participants). Gifts of this nature are beneficial and much appreciated by St. Thomas More.

For more information please contact:

Chris Smith at 760-758-4100 x120 or chriss@stmoside.org.

“... A Time To Build!”
includes our Faith journey as well as the build out of our Parish Campus.

Fifteen Random Stewardship Ideas for the Month of July

1. Think of a charity which is amply blessed at Christmas. Remember them with a gift mid-year.
2. Invite a single friend over for a meal.
3. Attend an extra Mass on a weekday this month.
4. Abstain from something you like—meat, a latte, a cold drink—on Fridays and save the money for a charity.
5. Take your rosary with you for an early morning walk.
6. Recycle more.
7. Each day, say a prayer for one of the world's trouble spots.
8. Turn off the TV, phone, and computer, and spend an hour devoted to someone you love.
9. Surprise an old friend with a phone call.
10. Buy or pick a flower for someone without a “reason.”
11. Take your family to a farmers' market if in season.
12. Stop for a moment during your busy day and enjoy an ice cream cone or other favorite treat.
13. If you hear a great homily, tell the homilist.
14. Splurge on some produce and buy enough to share with someone in need.
15. On occasion, try turning your prayer before meals into a spontaneous prayer of thanks, using your own words.

STATEMENT OF CALIFORNIA BISHOPS ON THE TRANSPORT OF DISPLACED MIGRANT CHILDREN AND FAMILIES TO CALIFORNIA

In recent days, the people of our state have witnessed the arrival of hundreds of displaced people, mostly women and children, to various locations in Southern California. The Bishops of California wish to express our solidarity with these immigrant brothers and sisters who are coming to our state and to offer our prayer that God will deliver them to the safe environment they seek.

We also recognize our responsibility as a Church of compassion to come to their aid and help provide them with the practical and pastoral support they so need.

These children and families have journeyed to our country, fleeing violence and destitution in Central America. Sadly, their experience in California has thus far been marked by hostility and near chaos. They are exhausted, afraid and clinging to hope.

The gravity of this situation transcends politics; it is truly a humanitarian crisis that calls all of us, Catholics and others of good will, to respond with compassion and with urgent action.

The response of Catholic agencies and other community-based groups has already begun. Catholic Charities, working in collaboration with directly affected dioceses and other service organizations, is mobilizing to help these immigrants in centers of hospitality and assistance. Many individuals have contacted our parishes and social service agencies asking how they can help. This reflects the best of the American spirit.

We are particularly concerned about the safety and security of the thousands of unaccompanied children that have crossed our border, without a parent or guardian and without family ties to the US. They desperately need our help.

Federal officials believe that groups of migrants will continue to arrive throughout the summer. The most affected dioceses will be asking parishioners and others for donations of time and money. We ask you to respond to this call. In this critical moment, Jesus' parable of the Good Samaritan reminds us of what we are called to do.

Federal, state and local government agencies also have a role to play in responding to this heartbreaking situation. We urge Congress to appropriate the resources necessary to care for unaccompanied children. We also urge opposition to the "fast track authority" requested by the Administration that could send children back to the violence they attempted to flee without a proper hearing—and in violation of their rights.

We recognize the passion surrounding this issue. We call on all Californians of good will to express themselves with civility and respect, and to refrain from violence. We ask the Catholic community to join together in solidarity with these children of God, our brothers and sisters, to provide help and give them hope.

Our strength as a nation has always been a matter of the heart. May the heart of Christ guide the people of California to a just and compassionate response for these huddled masses of children gathered at our door.
