The 21st Century Challenge:
The Creative Interaction of Science and Religion

In the last several years, I have become acquainted with the John Templeton Foundation. Established in 1987, the foundation supports hundreds of programs worldwide, which serve three chief purposes. The first is to stimulate serious, rigorous, progress-generating links between the sciences and all religions. The second purpose is to encourage character development in schools and colleges. And the third is to stimulate greater appreciation worldwide for the benefits of freedom and free competition.

“The mission of the John Templeton Foundation is to pursue new insights at the boundary between theology and science through a rigorous, open-minded and empirically focused methodology, drawing together talented representatives from a wide spectrum of fields of expertise. Using the ‘humble approach,’ the Foundation typically seeks to focus the methods and resources of scientific inquiry on topical areas which have spiritual and theological significance ranging across the disciplines from cosmology to healthcare.” (From the John Templeton Foundation brochure)

Templeton believes there is much to be learned in all fields, including religion, by the successful methods of scientists—which occasionally means holding in one’s mind seemingly antithetical ideas at one time. “No one knows the total truth,” he points out, “but a rigorous method can start movement in the right direction.”

The ancient fear of many scientists was the one predicted by J.B.S. Haldane in his 1923 book “Daedalus” that science, especially the technology of war, was destined to turn good into evil. John Templeton is intent on seeing that science turns good into more good.

The Foundation funds many projects that attempt to create an interaction between science and religion. The Foundation also offers "The Templeton Prize for Progress in Religion." This prize is given each year for extraordinary originality in advancing the world's understanding of God or spirituality. This award began in 1973. Among past recipients was Mother Theresa of Calcutta.

Science and religion, once seen as enemies, are now handmaids—together seeking truth and understanding of the Universal Mystery. Stem cell research is just one issue facing us that brings together the questions of "Can we do this?" and "Should we do this?"

If you are interested in the creative interaction between science and religion, I would encourage you to visit the website: www.templeton.org.

Charles Townes, Ph.D., Nobel Laureate in Physics, Professor of Physics at the University of California, Berkeley, has said: "Science wants to know the mechanism of the universe, religion the meaning. The two cannot be separated."

Through all our efforts in our little corners of the global village, let us take on the 21st century challenge of a creative interaction between science and religion!

Vocations

In this week's first reading, Jeremiah is complaining that God has "duped" him and says "I will speak in his name no more." Then he goes on saying "But then it becomes like a fire burning in [his] heart." Have you felt God's calling burning in your heart? If so, perhaps it's time to explore a vocation as a priest, deacon, or vowed religious. Contact Deacon Tom at thomasgoelts@aol.com or 760-727-8442. Trust God! You won't be duped.

The Diocesan Office of Vocations has issued a short video about vocations. You can watch it at <http://goo.gl/6LY2Hc>.

Update on Bishop Flores

The message below was sent to all of the priests of the Diocese from the Office of Monsignor Steven Callahan on August 25:

Doctors at the USC Norris Comprehensive Cancer Center in Los Angeles have informed us through Archbishop Gómez that Bishop Flores, while still dealing with some of the after effects of the stroke he suffered in April, is presently being treated for prostate cancer, the full extent of which is yet to be determined.

Priests and people should not try to contact Bishop Flores by phone nor attempt to visit him at this time. Bishop Brom and I will be going to LA to personally assure Bishop Flores of our prayerful support.

Please continue to keep Bishop Flores in your prayers.

In Memoriam

Please pray for the repose of the soul of:

William Robert Daniels III, who died on August 21. His Vigil will be on Wednesday, September 10, at 7:00pm and his Funeral Mass will be celebrated on Thursday, September 11, at 11:00am at St. Thomas More. Please keep his family in your prayers.

May his soul and all the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Fully Catholic?

If you've been coming to Mass for a while, but are not Catholic, we invite you to look deeper into the Catholic faith. Come meet some faithful Catholics who love the Lord and would consider it a privilege to get to know you.

Our Parish offers sessions that give you the opportunity to share with others the truths of the Catholic faith and the fellowship of our church family.

We invite you to learn what Catholics believe in an open and welcoming environment. These sessions also are opportunities for you to ask those perplexing and difficult questions you may have about the Church.

Sessions are held Sunday mornings.

To find out how to get started, contact Kathleen Bell at 760-809-6526 or 80bell80@gmail.com.

Baby Bottle Drive for Birth Choice

Faith Encounters the Ecological Crisis

Are you concerned about the forces that are threatening the ecological systems in which we live? Would you like to learn more about the challenges we face in caring for our mother earth?

Beginning the week of September 15, the group will meet once a week for 8 weeks. This JustFaith module was designed as a community learning process built around the book, Living Beyond the End of the World, A Spirituality of Hope, by Margaret Swedish.

Our planet is in great distress, a combination of many factors that can best be summed up as the sheer scale of the human project, especially the stresses of population growth, demand on resources, and depletion of natural environments driven by industrialization and technology. Our faith supports our struggle to protect creation. We are not hanging out on a limb as we do this. Catholic social teaching has a rich reflection on the ecological challenges going back to Pope Paul VI.

If you are interested, please contact Sr. Maureen ASAP at maureenb@stmoside.org or 760-758-4100 x131.

All About Eyes Class at STM

Anyone experiencing visual problems and desiring more information on resources that can be beneficial will get answers to many questions regarding visual impairments and eye health from a class facilitated by the Braille Institute on Friday, September 19, 1:00-2:00pm. You do not have to be visually disabled to take this class. For more information or to sign up, contact Ann Eriksson at 760-599-7151.

Brother Benno's Toiletry/New Underwear Drive

On September 20-21 we will be holding our annual toiletry drive for the poor and homeless served by Brother Benno's. You can unburden yourselves of all those toiletries collected from your travels. Or perhaps you would like to purchase some on your next shopping day. You know how nice it feels to be clean and groomed...and once cleaned, to slip into NEW underwear. Brother Benno's serves North Counties poor and homeless. Please help us to help others! Deacon Tom will have a truck available before all Masses on Sept 20-21 to accept your donations. Thank you, and God Bless!

St. Bonaventure Clothing Drive (November 8-9)

In about two months, we will again be holding our clothing drive for the Indian Mission of St. Bonaventure, and we need your help. The Indians served are among the poorest people in our country and they rely on us as the only dedicated drive for the Mission. They need clothing of all types and sizes along with serviceable shoes, work boots, etc. and blankets. For further information keep watching the Bulletin or contact Deacon Tom at thomasgoeltz@aol.com or 760-727-8442.

Promoting Life, Marriage, and Religious Liberty—Marriage Unique for a Reason—For a wealth of Church teaching on marriage, statements by United States Bishops on marriage and many other tools to equip ourselves in the efforts to defend marriage as a sacred union of one man and one woman, go to <http://www.marriageuniqueforareason.org/> on the internet.

Bishop's Letter on Marriage—Marriage: Love and Life In The Divine Plan: Natural Family Planning—“Natural family planning (NFP) methods represent authentic family planning. They can be used both to achieve and to postpone a pregnancy. NFP makes use of periodic abstinence from sexual intercourse based upon the observation of the woman's natural signs of fertility, in order to space births or to limit the number of children when there is a serious reason to do so. NFP methods require that couples learn, accept, and live with the wonders of how God made them. This is essentially different from contraception.” To read the document go to <http://www.usccb.org/loveandlife/>.

Marriage Encounter—Do you have a good marriage but want a little jumpstart? Would you and your spouse like to rediscover and reconnect with each other? Then we invite you to attend a Marriage Encounter Weekend. Weekends take place in San Diego and other Southern California locations throughout the year. For more information, visit www.wme.org or contact Eddie and Sheila Murphy at 760-295-0008.

Attention Men!

Year three of “That Man is You!—The Revelation of the Father” begins September 6. The Revelation of the Father takes an honest look at the challenges facing fathers in modern culture, considers the reality of fatherhood, and discovers a mystery far deeper than a simple biological reality. TMIY integrates the latest medical science with the vision of St. Joseph presented in Scripture. The objectives of this program will be: Use the life of St. Joseph to discover the spiritual reality of fatherhood hidden beneath the biological reality. Show how God the Father lives his divine Fatherhood in and through human fathers. Identify the fury of Satan directed at fatherhood. Identify the challenges facing fatherhood today.

The topic for September 6 is “The Revelation of the Father.”

To register on-line, go to www.thatmanisyou.org and click on the “Sign up!” button or contact Deacon John at johnf@stmoside.org or 760-758-4100 x104.

Our next Board Meeting will be held on Tuesday, September 2, for those concerned. Call Ann for place and directions.

Have a grace filled week. —Ann Buko, president

Memorial Item Donations

Memorials are a way of honoring those whom we love, whether they are living or deceased. Often, memorials are made for a special intention or in thanksgiving for a variety of blessings received from God.

Our Parish Campus will be a living memorial. All who help in building it will leave something to the community itself that will be used by generations to come. The good they do is not interred with them, but will remain to share in the divine activity of God here on earth.

Listed below are items still available for adoption.

All contributions will be recognized in a special memorial to be displayed in our Parish Memorial Garden.

For more information or to adopt an item, contact Chris Smith

WE'RE STARTING UP!

In churches all over the country, volunteer music ministers begin a new music year this week. And for the next ten or eleven months, choirs, ensembles, praise teams, pianists and organists, handbell choirs and other instrumentalists will prepare and present music for their faith communities.

Vocal groups with memberships of five to a hundred and five will be learning notes, tuning chords, matching vowels, improving diction, and having a great time together making a "joyful noise to the Lord."

Instrumentalists, solo guitarists and fully-equipped praise bands alike, will be practicing fingerings, tapping out rhythms, and perfecting their arrangements.

Music leaders everywhere will be praying. Will new people show up? Will everybody return? Will the music I've chosen for the year work when the time comes?

At St. Thomas More, this week we will find out. Have you decided to join us for the first time? Are you coming back, re-energized after the summer break? Are you excited to start something new and get back to old favorites?

Might you want a head start to sing and play at our permanent church's dedication Mass? See you soon!

A WAY TO GIVE ~ A WAY TO RECEIVE

DESIGNATED BANK ACCOUNTS, WILLS, LIVING TRUSTS, STOCKS, LIFE INSURANCE, MUTUAL FUNDS, REAL ESTATE, ENDOWMENTS

Planned Giving is a generic term that covers the many ways an individual can give to a charity while, in many cases avoiding taxes. A few examples of Planned Giving are: Designated Beneficiary Accounts, Wills, Living Trusts, Stocks, Life Insurance, Mutual Funds, Endowments, and Real Estate.

This program is one way of helping the Parish raise the resources necessary to continue our campus build out and also help plan for our future needs (i.e., Tower of Faith participants). Gifts of this nature are beneficial and much appreciated by St. Thomas More.

For more information please contact:

Chris Smith at 760-758-4100 x120 or chriss@stmoside.org.

"... A Time To Build!"
 includes our Faith journey as well as the buildout of our Parish Campus.

Christian Stewarding Our Families: When "Back to School" means "Back to the Family Dinner Table"

August brings us face to face with one of life's realities: summer vacation has to end. Children may groan and parents may breathe a sigh of relief, but one thing is certain. The beginning of school brings a return to routine, and this translates into less eating on the run and more scheduled meals around the family dinner table.

It's not always possible for the whole family to eat together, but making it a priority at least some nights of the week can pay big dividends for the Christian steward trying to raise a family of faith. Here are a few dinner table tips:

- ✦ Everyone should know certain nights are family dinner nights. Look closely at everyone's schedule, make a plan, and then hold family nights sacred.
- ✦ Whether frozen pizza or prime rib, set the table nicely and sit down. Maybe light a dinner candle or pull out the cloth napkins. Pick up a special dessert once in a while.
- ✦ Parents and kids often hit the dinner hour fatigued. Make an effort to relax. Start off with a smile and laughter, even when you'd rather hit the couch.
- ✦ If you haven't already, begin the family custom of praying before meals in a spontaneous way. What was I most thankful for today? Let everyone take a brief turn. It may lead to a great conversation after the "amen."
- ✦ Resist scolding or criticizing a child at dinner. Never demand to know why the math paper wasn't turned in, or why the kid will not get out of bed on time. Save it for a private discussion later. Allow the dinner table to be a place of welcome and support.
- ✦ As you review the day's events, don't forget God. Just as you are interested in what your children are reading in literature class or library hour, express an interest in what's being taught in religion class or in weekly faith formation.
- ✦ Set the rule that everyone remains seated until all are finished. Then the meal is complete.
- ✦ But the work's not done. Divide the duties of setting the table, clearing, washing, even cooking so that everyone has a role to play and the work goes quickly.
- ✦ Bring back the custom of an "after dinner" prayer, brief and blessed.

Missionary Cooperative Appeal

Fr. Antony Gaspar, a missionary from the Diocese of Dindigul in India, shared with us about their work and asked for our prayers and financial support on the weekend of August 16-17.

The Diocese of Dindigul was newly created in 2003 and serves the needs of 2.95 million people of different faiths, but Catholics are only about 133,000. So the need for evangelization work is huge. But the resources to train catechists and faith educators and construct faith formation centers, churches, mission chapels, schools, orphanages, and primary health care centers are all daunting tasks for their diocese. Currently their diocese has the responsibility to support 73 seminarians and 35 catechists who are in formation at various levels in order to meet future spiritual, pastoral, and missionary needs. In addition, they provide housing, education, and medical services to 300 poor and orphaned children in a diocesan-administrated orphanage.

The envelopes attached to the bulletin last weekend may be returned any time before the end of September. Thank you for your prayers and generosity!

CPR Training – The New Look

Everyone should know the basics of Cardio Pulmonary Resuscitation—CPR—and more than 450 St. Thomas More Parishioners do. You can feel secure that if you or a loved one has a medical emergency on our soon-to-be-enlarged campus there will be someone who can provide lifesaving help. But what if it happens at home, where 80 percent of medical emergencies occur? Will YOU know what to do?

CPR has never been easier to learn,
easier to remember,
and easier to fit into your schedule.

The new methods are streamlined—no more complicated numbers and no written test for certification.

You will remember it longer because the methods are simple but effective.

Classes at St. Thomas More will be available on weekday afternoons, weekday evenings, and Saturday mornings.

Keep this flyer on your kitchen bulletin board or on the door of the refrigerator. As soon as you know that your schedule is open on one of the dates that a class is offered you can contact us to reserve a place: drphilg@cox.net or 760-732-1414.

September 9	Tuesday afternoon	1:00 – 4:00	Adult CPR
September 11	Thursday evening	6:30 – 9:30	Adult CPR
September 20	Saturday morning	9:00 – 12:00	Adult CPR
September 23	Tuesday afternoon	1:00 – 4:00	Infant/Child CPR
September 27	Saturday morning	9:00 – 12:00	Infant/Child CPR
October 7	Tuesday afternoon	1:00 – 4:00	Adult CPR
October 11	Saturday morning	9:00 – 12:00	Adult CPR

All classes take about 3 hours and include training with the AED (Automated External Defibrillator)

The cost is $37 for the first family member (because it includes a training manual) and $27 for other members. The fee includes two-year certification by the American Red Cross.

For more information, contact Dr. Phil Goscienski at 760-732-1414 or drphilg@cox.net.

- Participants take this letter the next time they go shopping at Ralphs and hand it to the cashier to scan within their order IN ADDITION to either their Ralphs rewards card, or phone number (alt ID) that is linked to their rewards card.
- Within 72 hours, your participants will then begin giving a percentage of each shopping trip for the duration of the Community Contributions Term to your organization.
