Gratitude: A Lifetime of Christian Stewardship—Fulfilling God's Purpose

We continue our journey through the month of November as we reflect upon Christian Stewardship, and reflect upon the meaning of the words, "Thank You."

Christian Stewardship is a way of living, living as Disciples of the Lord Jesus. Thus Christian Stewardship is, simply put, Discipleship.

Our Monthly Mortgage Payment

"Hey, Mikey!"

"Yes, Tommie... what is it?"

"I am worried that our Parishioners are not making our monthly mortgage payments. We need to do a little bit better!"

"Okay, Tommie, I will let our people know. They are generous, and they will rise to the challenge, because we need to not only make our monthly mortgage payment, but also raise money so that we can complete our buildings."

"I will continue to pray for you. All of you are doing really good things in my name and in the name of Jesus."

Monthly Mortgage Payment: $44,806

Mortgage/Building Completion Fund	Income	Payment
September 2014	$40,777	$15,664
October 2014	$38,989	$44,806

*Our first mortgage payment was interest only.
The mortgage took effect on September 15.*

It is important to note that neither our income in September or October was enough to cover our usual monthly payment of $44,806.21.

It is critically important that there is an increase in Parishioner participation in the Mortgage/Building Completion Fund.

This weekend, at all our Eucharistic Celebrations, Caleb and Sheila McKinley will share their "witness talk" about their journey with the Lord Jesus. They focus, especially, upon what attracted them to our Faith Community of St. Thomas More and motivates their active participation in our Parish.

As we take time to reflect upon the meaning of gratitude, Caleb and Sheila share their gratitude with us. They have come to say "Thank You" to us! In turn, we say "Thank You" to them for their witness to us.

Our "Thank You," one to another, reminds us of our interconnectedness, the web of relationship and community that gives meaning to life.

Caleb and Sheila and family, thank you for being with us this weekend in this very special way!

I share with everyone a prayer that I would encourage you to pray around the table sometime this week:

Thank you, God, for all these things that reveal your love.

Thank you for the heavens that cover us, for the earth beneath our feet,

*for the sun in the day and the stars of the night, for the snow and the rains and the rivers and the lakes,
for the mountains and valleys and trees and flowers.*

Thank you, God for those people who demonstrate your love.

Thank you for those great men and women who followed you throughout history,

for the priests and prophets and apostles and ministers, for doctors and teachers and mothers and fathers and painters and musicians and writers and farmers and laborers and clerks, for those men and women who accepted your love and dedicated their lives to loving their fellow men and women.

Thank you, God, for choosing me to be one of your people, for calling me and equipping me to communicate your love to my world about me.

Thank you, God.

—Brandt/Corita, Psalm/Now (Concordia Publication House)

Vocations

The word "vocation" has been defined as a station in life to which a person has been called by God. There are many "vocations". Most are called to a vocation in married life...some to single life...some to a religious life as a priest, deacon, or vowed religious. If you think that God is calling you to the latter vocation as a priest, deacon, or vowed religious, contact Deacon Tom at thomasgoeltz@aol.com or 760-727-8442, and let's explore the possibilities. The service to God and his people in this manner is a great way of life.

Welcome New Parishioners

Julie Krehan & Family

Jordan & Chiara Millikan & Family

Congratulations to

Brandon & Shannon Oswald

who celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary November 12

May God continue to bless your marriage, and may you be an inspiration to other married couples.

In Memoriam

Please pray for the repose of the soul of:

Italo Peveri, who died on November 5. His Funeral Mass will be celebrated on Tuesday, November 18, at 11:00am at St. Thomas More. Please keep his family in your prayers.

Diantha Esch, who died on October 30. Her Funeral Mass will be celebrated on Saturday, November 22, at 11:00am at St. Thomas More. Please keep her husband Dr. Jim Esch and her family in your prayers.

May her soul and all the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Social Ministries & Outreach

Pies. Pies. Pies.

Someone once asked me “How does one make a ministry out of pies?” Yet that is what you have been doing for over 15 years!

STM has been providing Brother Benno’s with apple and pumpkin pies for dessert for their Thanksgiving Feast for the poor and needy. Please bring your apple and pumpkin pies to the Parish Office on the Wednesday before Thanksgiving (November 26) by 12:00noon and we will deliver them to Brother Benno’s. As Christians, we are all called upon to feed the hungry. With your pies, you are also putting a smile on their faces and perhaps the warm memories of good Thanksgiving Days past. If you have any questions, contact Deacon Tom at thomasgoeltz@aol.com or 760-727-8442.

Thanksgiving Dinner

Our Parish family will be hosting their 10th Annual Thanksgiving Dinner on Thursday, November 27, at 12:00noon. A traditional Thanksgiving Dinner will be provided. If you would like to bring an appetizer or a dessert, it will be welcomed. Please RSVP per the reservation form on the Information Table or call the Parish Office at 760-758-4100 x100. We look forward to celebrating the holiday with you!

Christmas Angel Ministry

The Angel Tree has arrived! In order to make the holidays brighter for special members of our community, please stop by and select an ornament or two. We still have a great need for volunteers to be on the plaza after all Masses (especially the 10:30am Mass) between now and December 14.

A BIG Thank You to those who have adopted a Camp Pendleton family. We have 20 of 26 families that have been adopted in just the first weekend! Please keep up God’s work.

For more information, please contact Lisa or Kevin Seufert at 760-716-0977 or leprechaun81@sbcglobal.net.

St. Bonaventure Clothing Drive

Last week’s clothing drive was a wonderful success. We sent two trucks full of your generous donations to the Mission, where they are much needed. One of the drivers from the Mission told us that our donations help between 800 to 1,300 needy people who otherwise would not have proper clothing to wear in a climate that has temperatures ranging from below 0° to over 100°. On behalf of the Mission, “Thank You”! —Deacon Tom

Tax Receipts—Some of the tax receipts given during the clothing drive may have had last year’s date on them. Please check your receipt and if it is misdated, contact Deacon Tom at 760-727-8442 or the Parish Office, and we will replace the ones in error.

Marriage & Family Life

Moms & Kids—Moms! The Moms and Kids ministry is meeting on Monday, November 17, 10:00am-12:00noon, at Calavera Community Park, 2997 Glasgow Dr., Carlsbad. There are many other events within our community throughout the month posted on our private Facebook page. Join us! Contact Jen Abelson at jen.abelson@gmail.com.

Bringing the Celebration Home—We invite you to join us for our annual Parish Advent Workshop on November 29 at 4:00pm. Last year, you created an Advent Wreath for your table; this year, you will be creating a beautiful wooden Holy Family! The cost is $10 per Holy Family kit, and you can preregister for as many kits as you would like—they make great Christmas gifts. Email Jen Frost at: jenf@stmoside.org or stop by the table after Mass on the weekend of 11/15-11/16 to register. Be sure to register for this event by November 23!

Promoting Life, Liberty, and Religious Freedom—Marriage Unique for a Reason—For a wealth of Church teaching on marriage, statements by United States Bishops on marriage, and many other tools to equip ourselves in the efforts to defend marriage as a sacred union of one man and one woman, go to <http://www.marriageuniqueforareason.org/> on the internet.

Bishop’s Letter on Marriage—Marriage: Love and Life in The Divine Plan: The Call to Parents—“While all members of the family are called to live out the foundational Christian virtues, fathers and mothers have a special responsibility for fostering these virtues within their children. They are the first to proclaim the faith to their children. They are responsible for nurturing the vocation of each child, showing by example how to live the married life, and taking special care if a child might be called to priesthood or consecrated life.” To read the document go to <http://www.usccb.org/loveandlife/>.

Marriage Encounter—Do you have a good marriage but want a little jumpstart? Would you and your spouse like to rediscover and reconnect with each other? Then we invite you to attend a Marriage Encounter Weekend. Weekends take place in San Diego and other Southern California locations throughout the year. For more information, visit www.wmme.org or contact Eddie and Sheila Murphy at 760-295-0008.

Marriage Moments—When one finds a worthy wife, her value is far beyond pearls (Proverbs 31:10). Describe the value of your wife in poetic terms today. Go ahead try it! If you are the wife, try filling in the blank: When one finds a worthy husband, his value is far beyond ____.

Parenting Pointers—To “admonish sinners” is one of the Spiritual Works of Mercy. This wording may sound harsh. Our own family rephrased it as “Help people when they make a mistake.” Humility, sensitivity, and giving your child an opportunity to redeem him/herself are key. Has your child ever corrected you?

For more information, visit www.diocese-sdiego.org/Ministries/Marriage and Family Life or call Jen Frost at 858-692-7438.

Our Mission is to:
worship God,
teach and live the Gospel of Jesus Christ,
and serve God’s people in word and deed.

Attention Men!

Year three of “That Man is You!—The Revelation of the Father” continues on November 22 with the topic Weeds in Moral Formation. This year’s theme, “The Revelation of the Father,” takes an honest look at the challenges facing fathers in modern culture, considers the reality of fatherhood, and discovers a mystery far deeper than a simple biological reality. For more information, contact Deacon John at 760-758-4100 x104 or johnf@stmoside.org.

Women’s Guild News

Thanks to Marcy Bernier and all those who contributed to the success of Game Day on Saturday, which was a splendid success. More about it next week when the proceeds are counted. In the meantime we have a large number of happy winners of the many door prizes and opportunity baskets who also enjoyed having fun playing games and having lunch together.

With Thanksgiving less than two weeks away our ladies will be preparing a mailing on Tuesday, November 18, after Mass, to offer you an opportunity to be a winner of our Christmas raffle which will be held December 14 on the plaza after the 10:30am Mass. It will need a fast response if you are to be included. You can look for our letter next week. If you do not receive one in the mail by next weekend, please call Ann Buko at 760-726-8831 or stop by the Parish Office and pick one up. You won’t want to miss out on a chance to give yourself a $ Christmas present while supporting our church.

We were pleased to welcome some new members to the Women’s Guild during our November meeting this past week. We are open to new members all year long if you would like to join us. Please feel welcome to contact our membership chairperson Barbara Brown Barreras anytime at 760-639-0012 or blbrown1326@cox.net.

May your week be sprinkled with blessings and maybe a few drops of rain. —Ann Buko, president

Memorials are a way of honoring those whom we love, whether they are living or deceased. Often, memorials are made for a special intention or in thanksgiving for a variety of blessings received from God.

Our Parish Campus will be a living memorial. All who help in building it will leave something to the community itself that will be used by generations to come. The good they do is not interred with them, but will remain to share in the divine activity of God here on earth.

Listed above are items still available for adoption.

All contributions will be recognized in a special memorial to be displayed in our Parish Memorial Garden.

For more information or to adopt an item, contact Chris Smith
760-758-4100 x120 or chriss@stmoside.org

YOU AND ME, SERVANTS OF GOD

ministry as servanthood

This past summer, Debbie Fredette asked me to talk to the teens that will be part of our 2015 Confirmation class (and their parents), and my task was to talk about ministry.

As part of my responsibilities as director of liturgy and music, I work with many, many ministers. Some are explicitly named as such—Eucharistic, hospitality, and music, for example—while others are not—altar servers, sacristans, and Readers. And then, there are also those on teams who prepare the liturgy behind the scenes, in the sacristy—on the lift, in the sanctuary, and at the ironing board.

But what, exactly, is a “minister”?

If we look at the word itself, a minister is a person of “lower” status, a servant. The word goes back via the Old French ministre to the Latin minister, meaning “servant, attendant,” which was derived from minus which means less.

Jesus had a lot to say about being a servant, and perhaps we are familiar with this passage: “If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all” (Mark 9:35). There are others. Many others.

As I was thinking about how to bring ministry into context for these soon-to-be young adults, I recalled a part of my childhood, where my sister and I began to have responsibilities as part of the family. These were tasks beyond our “chores” and didn’t have any financial consequences (allowance). My first recollection of this sort of responsibility was helping to cook. In addition to the measuring, pouring, stirring, and blending (a perennial favorite as it involved the loud noise of the blender), my sister and I were asked to set the table and clean the kitchen after dinner (as the younger of the two of us you might guess which one my sister got!). Unless I was the principal cook for the evening, in which case someone else got to clean up! This sort of activity provided us an opportunity to participate in the life of our family.

Ministry might be described as participating in the life of one’s faith family, participating as a full-fledged member of the community. For the soon-to-be confirmed, participating in ministry becomes an opportunity to deepen their connection to their faith family.

And for them, and for you, there are many opportunities for ministry, for service as part of this faith family. In my world of liturgy and music, one can serve “within the walls” as an altar server, Eucharistic minister, hospitality minister, music minister, Reader, sacristan, or one who makes our environment beautiful. One can also serve “outside the walls” as a Eucharistic minister to the hospital or to the homebound.

All of these ministries and the actions we make are a response to the gifts we have been given, the time, talent, and treasure we can share.

And when we have lived fully and faithfully as part of our faith family—this faith community—and then go to meet Jesus face to face, may he say “Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a little; I will set you over much. Enter into the joy of your master” (Matthew 25:11).

Stewardship Awareness/Renewal Month Fulfilling God's Purpose

THE SIMPLE PATH

The fruit of silence is PRAYER.

The fruit of prayer is FAITH.

The fruit of faith is LOVE.

The fruit of love is SERVICE.

The fruit of service is PEACE.

—Blessed Mother Teresa

This weekend we welcome Caleb and Sheila McKinley, with their 4-year-old daughter Lucy, 2-year-old son James, and another little one due in March. Caleb and Sheila share the story of what attracted them to our Parish, then to register and become involved. They have only been with us since January 2014 and are already answering God's call to service as stewards of their time, talent, and treasure. Certainly, stepping up to join two of our ministries was not a result of having too much time on their hands! Rather, it was their prayerful answer to God's call. Please stop and meet them after any Mass this weekend! We are delighted that they chose to join us in moving forward at STM! Thanks to the McKinley's ~ one and all! :-)

God bless our faithful stewards, one and all!

ST. THOMAS MORE CATHOLIC CHURCH COMMUNITY SURVEY RESULTS

May 2014

Please check the TOP THREE concerns for yourself, your family, and your community:

Answer	0%	100%	Number of Responses	Response Ratio
Housing			19	9.0%
Aging (Independence, Respite, Social Interaction)			76	36.3%
Environmental Issues (Water, Pollution, Recycling, Energy)			65	31.1%
Child Care			14	6.6%
Immigration Reform			62	29.6%
Youth (Opportunity, Drugs, Gangs, etc.)			65	31.1%
Food (Hunger, Nutrition)			50	23.9%
Public Safety (Police, Crime, etc.)			50	23.9%
Jobs (Wages, Benefits, Availability)			87	41.6%
Infrastructure (Parks, Roads, etc.)			28	13.3%
Health Care (Affordability, Access)			81	38.7%
Mental Health			41	19.6%
Totals			209	100%

Thank you, Parishioners of St. Thomas More, for giving this survey your time and heartfelt thought. We, the Parish Social Justice Committee, are very happy to report that 204 people—or 30% of the people who attend Mass every weekend—completed the survey. The results give us a good insight into the issues that concern our Parishioners.

The top three issues were:

- ◆ Jobs (42.1% of respondents),
- ◆ Health Care (39.2%), and
- ◆ Aging (35.2%).

Others showed strong interest: Youth (31.3%) and the environment (30.8%).

Some people went into more detail in their comments.

In regard to jobs, one person wrote:

Specifically, raise the minimum wage to a living wage—long overdue.

Another person notes:

I am fortunate to be healthy and independent. My checked concerns are for others; my grandson who cannot get work; he also has mental health issues. A friend who is undocumented. I am part of STM partly because of these issues.

These two comments are a sample of the thoughtful responses we received. Reading them, we understand that we will need discussion, research, and prayer to find solutions.

Next Steps

In the New Year, it is our hope to develop a deeper understanding of these top concerns through research as a committee and as a Parish family.. We invite you into this journey! If you are interested in doing local research with us or planning a parish response, please contact Sr. Maureen.

Again, thank you for your response to the St. Thomas More Community Survey!
