Parish Lenten Communal Reconciliation Service:

The Sacrament of Reconciliation— God's Unconditional Love for Us!

In recent years, a name change has taken place with the "Sacrament of Confession." We no longer call the act "Confession," but rather "Reconciliation" and/or "Penance."

This name change better reflects what happens in this celebration. We do not go to the priest just to list our sins, have them forgiven, and receive a penance; but rather, and most importantly, we come to the priest to celebrate the forgiveness of God that we experience in our lives. We come to the Sacrament with a sense of joy for what God has already done in our lives and what God continues to do—showering us with unconditional love.

The verbalization of our sins, the verbalization of the words of absolution, and the acceptance of a penance are steps in the process of celebrating God's forgiveness and unconditional love for us.

If we are open to God's love, we begin to experience the many ways in which God forgives us our sins in the daily occurrences of our lives.

When we ask forgiveness from someone we have offended, our sins are forgiven. When we accept the forgiveness of another, our sins are forgiven. Each time we talk to God in the silence of our hearts and sincerely seek forgiveness from God, our sins are forgiven. Each time we celebrate the Eucharist, we hear the words of the priest shortly before the reception of Holy Communion—"Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb!"—our sins are forgiven.

So why go to the priest? We do so in order to celebrate the forgiveness of God we experience in our daily lives, to ritualize it, sacramentalize it, and, as in all things, to place our lives and God's involvement in our lives within the context of the Church, the Body of Christ.

The priest "stands in" for the community. As we verbalize our sins, we are mindful that there is no such thing as a personal sin. Our sins, no matter how personal we may think them to be, affect others—"No Man Is an Island." We live in community. Our lives always touch the lives of others.

Telling our sins, hearing ours sins from our own lips, helps us to be real and to acknowledge our weakness and our dependence upon God. It is so easy to rationalize our sinfulness when we talk to ourselves "in our heads." It is an entirely different experience when we hear ourselves verbalize our sinfulness. Those sins become much more real! We become much more aware and sensitive of our responsibilities to others.

The priest "stands in" for Christ. Hearing the words of absolution, the forgiveness of God, from the lips of the priest is indeed comforting. You know how wonderful it feels when a family member or friend says, "I love you!" In the Sacrament of Reconciliation we allow God to say those words to us in and through the person of the priest.

The Sacrament of Reconciliation is not something to be feared but to be celebrated with trust and confidence because of God's unconditional love for us.

This Monday, March 16, at 7:00pm, our Parish celebrates her Lenten Communal Penance Service.

About fifteen priest/confessors will be available for you. They will be in Church waiting for you so that through the words of absolution God will once again say to you:

"I forgive you and I love you unconditionally!"

Will you be there to hear God's words?

Becoming Catholic

If you've been coming to Mass for a while, but are not Catholic, we invite you to look deeper into the Catholic faith. Come meet some faithful Catholics who love the Lord and would consider it a privilege to get to know you.

Our Parish offers sessions that give you the opportunity to share with others the truths of the Catholic faith and the fellowship of our church family.

We invite you to learn what Catholics believe in an open and welcoming environment. These sessions also are opportunities for you to ask those perplexing and difficult questions you may have about the Church.

To find out how to get started, contact Kathleen Bell at 760-809-6526 or 80bell80@gmail.com.

Brother Benno's Food Drive

Next weekend, March 14-15, we will hold our annual food drive for the needy served by Brother Benno's. We are all called to help our less fortunate neighbors and to feed the hungry. Please take this opportunity by bringing nonperishable food items to the trucks provided by Deacon Tom before all Masses on this weekend. Please be generous. God Bless!

What Is Get On The Bus?

Get On The Bus brings children and their guardians/caregivers from throughout the state of California to visit their mothers and fathers in Prison. An annual event, Get On The Bus, offers free transportation for the children and their caregivers to the prison, provides travel bags for the children, comfort care bags for the caregivers, a photo of each child with his or her parent, and meals for the day (snacks on the bus, lunch at the prison, and dinner on the way home), all at no cost to the children's family. On the bus trip home, following a four-hour visit, each child receives a teddy bear with a letter from their parent, and post-event counseling is also available.

"I noticed things about my mother: she was pretty and she looked like me. I found something in common with all the children on the bus. They have a mother in prison too."
Natasha, age 7

An estimated 856,000 children in California have a parent currently involved in California's adult criminal justice system, nearly 9% of the state's children.

60% of parents in state prison report being held over 100 miles from their children.

(excerpts from Get On The Bus Brochure 2015)

Watch future bulletins for ways to be involved! An envelope will be attached to the bulletin next weekend.

A Way to Honor Our Dearly Departed Children

Recently we mourned the tenth anniversary of the loss of our son in the line of duty as a law enforcement officer. I have given a lot of thought to a way to honor him. I have spoken with many parents in our church community who have suffered the loss of a child and think I may have found a way for all of us to celebrate our children. There are many items in our permanent church and grounds waiting for sponsors. I thought that an olive tree would be perfect. Its branches are a symbol of love and peace—what better way to honor our children in heaven!

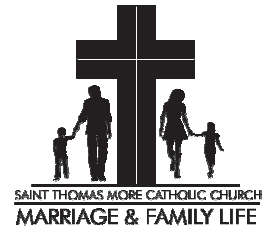

If you have lost a child and would like to donate towards the purchase of this olive tree, please contact Maureen Tutino at mtutino@sbcglobal.net or 760-598-8211 or Steve and Marilyn Lilly at stevellilly@cox.net or 760-598-3304 for further information. —Maureen Tutino

John 3:21

ENTERING THE MYSTERY

Each week, I receive a reflection on some piece of the weekend’s scripture from the National Association of Pastoral Musicians that helps remind me that what I do, the liturgy and music that I facilitate, is not an end to itself. Each week, a veteran in the trenches of liturgical music takes a turn to remind the rest of us of the goal. Not the liturgical or musical one, but the other, more important one.

This week, at the top of the page, I found

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so everyone who believes in him...might have eternal life (Jn 3:16).

We are probably familiar with these words that Jesus spoke to Nicodemus. They are from the Gospel we will hear proclaimed at our 5:00pm and 10:30am Masses this weekend. (At the 8:30am Mass, we will hear the account of the man born blind as part of the RCIA Scrutiny Rites.)

This week, Mary Jo Quinn, SCL, of the Blessed Trinity Catholic Community in Missoula, Montana, choose these familiar words to get to the heart of the matter.

“These words are a reminder that eternal life is our goal, and we get there through the experience of Jesus’ life, death, and resurrection.”

She continues,

A string of funerals, some of them in the parish, plus the sudden death of a still active member of my religious community, and the deaths of some spouses and parents of friends, has led me to more than a little reflection on eternal life in this wintertime. As the choir sang three different parishioners into eternal life, we envisioned these people in that fullness of life and how the gifts of their lives took them there. What a privilege that we pastoral musicians have, to be present to families at these precious times, helping to provide the environment and space for all of us to reflect on eternal life and the lives “spent in God’s service.” ... It is an entrance into God’s love and, if attended well, is an opportunity for a deeper understanding of our lives and eternal life.

Here at St. Thomas More, we have entered a time when we too are embarking on a “string of funerals” and, with it, all the attendant opportunities to experience the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ manifest in our own lives.

Moreover, we have begun the culmination of the RCIA process, the time when our Elect and our Candidates are making their final preparations for Baptism, Confirmation, Reception, and Holy Eucharist, when they will enter into the mysteries of Christ in a most profound way. Our part in the Scrutiny Rites offer us yet another opportunity to experience Jesus Christ manifest in our life, to understand the goal.

In the past weeks, I have shared some of the many prayers that have been offered at our altar this Lent, powerful prayers and potent reminders of the breadth of our need. And by reading (and praying!) these prayers, even without the hundreds of names lifted up to our God in praise and supplication, one can experience, one can feel the all-encompassing nature of our need for God’s care, and of our confidence in God’s love for us.

Through our engagement with God’s Word, our participation in the liturgies, our prayer, and even our attendance at the Parish Reconciliation Service this Monday evening, the coming weeks both offer a powerful opportunity to enter into the passion, death, and resurrection of the Lord, and allow us to examine how well we truly “enter” the mysteries of Christ’s life.

Creator God, as we move toward the Great Three Days of the Paschal Triduum, inspire our hearts to hear your Word deeply, to be open to a greater sharing in your service, to love the experience of preparations for this Great Feast.

May we be true proclaimers of the mission of your Son Jesus, to gather all into the embrace of your love and life.

Amen.

—Douglas

TOWERS OF FAITH

Future Support & Estate Planning Options

Towers of Faith is a movement that has arisen due to the visionary leadership and generosity of several of our Parishioners. We stress that this is not about the gift amount, but rather the love and thought behind the gift.

These individuals (several anonymous) have included STM in their estate planning. This helps to ensure their ongoing support and a legacy for our Parish. Towers of Faith is a valuable portion of our future support.

Examples of the various future planning vehicles are:
Designated Beneficiary Accounts,
 Last Will and Testament, Living Trust, Life Insurance,
 Stocks and Bonds, Real Estate, and Endowments.

Parishioners who have already included STM in their estate plans are Towers of Faith participants. If you are interested, please contact us. Your participation is most welcome and appreciated!

Chris Smith at 760-758-4100 x120, or chriss@stmoside.org.

~ Christian Stewards and Almsgiving ~ She Gave Her All

A modern example of the widow's might shows the powerful faith surrounding a single coin. In a Chinese school for blind children there was one girl who seemed too impaired to be taught anything. A lady visitor asked how she might help.

The nurse said: "Give that poor little girl a piece of money. She has never possessed a coin of her own." So the girl received a five-cent piece, to her great delight. Each day she planned some fresh way of spending it, sometimes keeping it herself, and sometimes giving it to the nurse to take care of for her.

Now a meeting was to be held at Foochow for the Bible Society, and this child knew that it supplied the school with Chinese gospels in embossed type for the blind. She was too ill to go to the meeting, but she asked the nurse to take her five-cent piece and put it in the collection.

The nurse said, "Half of it would be enough. It is all you have. Let me change it, and then you can give part and keep part."

But the blind child insisted on giving all she had. She said, "No, I have never been able to give God anything before, I want to give it all."

May our offering of our material resources be made in the same spirit of sacrifice as this blind child's small, but powerful gift.

Almsgiving Covers Many Things

The nationally known liturgist, Gabe Huck, writes that: "Almsgiving is all the deeds we can do to remake the world, or, rather to restore it. It has to do with time and space, with money and goods. It is about the wholeness of things and people, the right relationship of those who dwell on earth to the earth and to each other. It aims to right the wrong distribution caused by greed or power or whatever else. It ignores neither the world nor what is in front of one's face."

—Parish Publishing, LLC, March 2015 e-bulletin (with permission)

We know that all things come from God and are alive with his life. We belong to God and are dependent upon his creation and re-creation. We have been given God's property for the short time that we are on earth, and we are to use our gifts in true partnership with God. How are we doing with that?

I am constantly amazed at how much small children LOVE to give. As they grow, they are gifted by parents, grandparents and friends, and before we know it, they prefer to be the givers! Just as the story of the blind girl in China, our children have found out how much better they feel about giving than receiving. They are richly blessed by God and they instinctively know it. —Chris Almsgiving opens our hearts to the realization that God blesses us through those we see serve.

Memorials are a way of honoring those whom we love, whether they are living or deceased. Often, memorials are made for a special intention or in thanksgiving for a variety of blessings received from God.

Our Parish Campus will be a living memorial. All who help in building it will leave something to the community itself that will be used by generations to come. The good they do is not interred with them, but will remain to share in the divine activity of God here on earth.

Listed above are items still available for adoption.

All contributions will be recognized in a special memorial to be displayed in our Parish Memorial Garden.

For more information or to adopt an item, contact Chris Smith
760-758-4100 x120 or chriss@stmoside.org
