Waking the Sleeping Soul

Albert Schweitzer, theologian, musician, medical missionary who was born in 1875 and died in 1965, wrote these words:

You know of the disease in Central Africa called sleeping sickness...There also exists a sleeping sickness of the soul. Its most dangerous aspect is that one is unaware of its coming. That is why you have to be careful. As soon as you notice the slightest sign of indifference, the moment you become aware of the loss of a certain seriousness, of longing, of enthusiasm and zest, take it as a warning.

You should realize that your soul suffers if you live superficially. People need times in which to concentrate, when they can search their inmost selves. It is tragic that most men have not achieved this feeling of self-awareness. And finally, when they hear the inner voice they do not want to listen anymore. They carry on as before so as not to be constantly reminded of what they have lost. But as for you, resolve to keep a quiet time both in your homes and here within these peaceful walls when the bells ring on Sundays. Then your souls can speak to you without being drowned out by the hustle and bustle of everyday life.

As we continue our celebration of the Feast of the Resurrection in these Great Fifty Days, may we find time to withdraw and reflect, at least a few minutes each day, to become more conscious of the sights, sounds, and rhythms of life all around us. Let's not "fall asleep at the wheel" and be dulled by all the activity around us and miss the Presence of New Life, New Hope, and New Beginnings that is Jesus, the Risen Lord.

Jesus died and rose to bring us to life, not only after we die, but in this present moment!

St. Bonaventure Clothing Drive

Winter is over and spring is here. Contemplating doing away with the old wardrobe and breaking in the new? Every November STM holds a clothing drive to help the poor on the Navajo Reservation in New Mexico through St. Bonaventure Indian Mission. If you have good used shoes and clothing that you will not be using, please set it aside for us. If storage is a problem, contact Deacon Tom at thomasgoeltz@aol.com or 760-727-8442. Clothing for all ages is desperately needed...and blankets as well.

STM Archives Wants Your Material

The STM Historian is looking for material from Parish events and activities since our church was established in 1985. The kinds of material that are needed include: photographs, newspaper clippings, brochures, fliers, reports, videos, drawings—anything that represents our congregational memory! Please check your drawers, file cabinets, and that creepy ol' box in the attic. You can drop off your donations at the Parish office. Thanks!

For more information and questions, please feel free to contact: Brandon at 760- 845-5450 or brandon.oswald@gmail.com.

In Memory of Our Children

There are many of us in this Parish community who have suffered the loss of a child. Some of us have chosen to contribute toward sponsoring an olive tree in our Memorial Garden. In fact, our fundraising efforts have been successful enough to sponsor part of a second tree. If you have suffered the loss of a child and want to join this effort, or if you would like to support these bereaved parents, please contact Maureen Tutino at 760-598-8211 or mtutino@sbcglobal.net or Steve & Marilyn Lilly at 760-598-3304 or stevelilly@cox.net. We would appreciate anything you can do to help with the olive trees dedicated to our children in heaven. —Maureen Tutino

Bishops’ Letter on Marriage—Contraception: “By using contraception, married couples may think that they are avoiding problems or easing tensions, that they are exerting control over their lives. At the same time, they may think that they are doing nothing harmful to their marriages. In reality, the deliberate separation of the procreative and unitive meanings of marriage has the potential to damage or destroy the marriage. Also, it results in many other negative consequences, both personal and social.” To read the document go to <http://www.usccb.org/loveandlife/>.

Marriage Moments—If you’re too busy to have a weekly date with your spouse, you may be too busy. Tonight choose several hours next weekend that you can devote just to each other. This week the wife plans what to do, next week it’s the husband’s turn. See website for ideas. by Susan Vogt, www.SusanVogt.net.

Parenting Pointers— “If you love me, you will keep my commandments” (John 14:15). Just as God gave us commandments, healthy families have rules that help keep order and keep the peace. What are some of your family rules? Do you need any new ones? Let go of outdated ones? Discuss together. by Susan Vogt, www.SusanVogt.net.

Women's Guild News

Have you made your lunch reservation for our meeting next Monday, May 11, at 11:00am? Please contact Vera Bayliss at 760-295-0059 or vbayliss@cox.net so we know how many to expect. Be ready to view a slide show of our meetings and activities during the past year to showcase how active the Guild has been and how much members enjoyed themselves. You'll probably see yourself in there somewhere. If you have any pictures you can share with us, especially of the fashion show, please send them to contact Lorraine at lorrained@stmoside.org so we can include them in the show. We are also looking forward to having Sr. Maureen share some time with us. Our usual door prizes and raffle will be available to make things more enjoyable. It's time to come and chat with some old and new friends and treat yourself to a relaxing day.

Since this will be our last Parish meeting for this year, we will be taking reservations for the June Installation luncheon for the newly elected Board Members to be held at Shadowridge Country Club on Saturday, June 6. At the luncheon, our Quilters will be choosing winners of the lovely quilts they have made. Donations for the quilt raffle tickets (being mailed this week) will help increase the amount of our annual gift toward the Mortgage/Building Completion fund for our new church. If you do not receive the mailing by May 11, please let us know, and we will send you the ticket package.

If you are new to the Parish or are thinking about joining the Women's Guild next year, you are invited to attend the May Women's Guild meeting to help you decide. Come for lunch ($10 and call Vera for reservations), and have a chance to win one of the many door prizes. Registration for next year will begin at the Installation luncheon in June and continue into September. You are welcome to join us at any time.

Let us enjoy our Spring weather together. We look forward to seeing you on Monday, May 11. —Ann Buko, president

FERTILE GROUND AND JOY FOR THE EASTER SEASON

Jesus: A Pilgrimage by James Martin, SJ

Before my wife and I went on vacation the other week, Gail told me to make sure I take a book to read, since that is one of my favorite pastimes—and, of late, one rarely enjoyed. I was trying to decide what to read, when I saw one of our youth reading Jesuit Fr. James Martin’s new book Jesus: A Pilgrimage. I have enjoyed Fr. Martin’s writing in America and his appearances on Stephen Colbert’s late night show, and I have wanted to read his book The Jesuit Guide to (Almost) Everything. I asked to borrow it when she was done, and the next day it was on my desk—turns out, the church library has two copies! Off I went with vacation reading in hand.

Interweaving humorous anecdotes and prayerful insights from his recent pilgrimage to the Holy Land, Fr. Martin presents the life of Jesus sequentially, focusing on the “places” of Jesus’s life and sharing commentary on Jesus’s ministry and life in those locations. Particularly fascinating for me were his observations of how the specific geography impacted the paths Jesus took and the parables he told, for instance, discovering at the “Bay of Parables” rocky ground, fertile ground, stony ground, and thorns—all the ingredients of the Parable of the Sower (Lk 8:4-15)!

During this Easter season, I was particularly intrigued by his chapter on the Resurrection, in which he shares:

The Resurrection is a message of unparalleled hope—and unparalleled joy. A seriously underappreciated part of the Christian life, joy undergirds Jesus’s preaching, is the fruit of most of his miracles, and is the most natural response to the Resurrection. Consider how often the word is mentioned in some form in the Gospels:

“Jesus rejoiced in the Holy Spirit and said, ‘I thank you, Father...’” (Lk 10:21).

“The entire crowd was rejoicing at all the wonderful things that he was doing” (Lk 13:17).

“You have pain now; but I will see you again, and your hearts will rejoice, and no one will take your joy from you” (Jn 16:22).

“Ask and you shall receive, so that your joy may be complete” (Jn 16:24).

“While in their joy they were disbelieving...” (Lk 24:41).

“The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord” (Jn 20:20).

This chapter also reminded me of Brian Wren’s text set to a traditional early American hymn tune that the Cappella Choir had been preparing to sing last weekend:

John 15:3-4

I come with joy, a child of God,
forgiven, loved, and free,
the life of Jesus to recall,
in love laid down for me.

I come with Christians far and near to find, as all are fed,
the new community of love
in Christ’s communion bread.

Together met, together bound by all that God has done, we’ll go with joy, to give the world the love that makes us one.

I hope to read Fr. Martin’s book again next year in the weeks before Holy Week, for I know it will provide a firm foundation—fertile ground!—on which I can approach Holy Week and the joyful days of the Resurrection of our Lord.

—Douglas

TOWERS OF FAITH

Future Support & Estate Planning Options

Towers of Faith is a movement that has arisen due to the visionary leadership and generosity of several of our Parishioners. We stress that this is not about the gift amount, but rather the love and thought behind the gift.

These individuals (several anonymous) have included STM in their estate planning. This helps to ensure their ongoing support and a legacy for our Parish. Towers of Faith is a valuable portion of our future support.

Examples of the various future planning vehicles are:

Designated Beneficiary Accounts,
Last Will and Testament, Living Trust, Life Insurance, Stocks and Bonds, Real Estate, and Endowments.

Any Parishioners who have already included STM in their estate plans are Towers of Faith participants. If you are interested, please contact us. Your participation is most welcome and appreciated!

Chris Smith at 760-758-4100 x120, or chriss@stmoside.org.

The Joy of Life through Stewardship

A Washington Pastor, Reverend Charles Lewis, tells of a young couple who have a little boy who shows his joy constantly by clapping his hands. Put apple sauce before him and he claps. Put him down with his toys and he claps eagerly. Tell him the family is going to a mountain for a picnic and he breaks into applause.

This upbeat little boy brings to mind the words of Isaiah to the effect that "a little child shall lead them" (Isaiah 11:6). Certainly the happy lad could lead those who dwell in gloom and doom into a new and joyous lifestyle.

In 1 Timothy 4:4 St. Paul says: "Everything created by God is good ... provided it is received with thanksgiving." The child knows that already. Receiving life "with thanksgiving" is the key to living victoriously. It starts with observing all of the good things which God bestows on us daily and receiving them with joy. That should prompt us to be handclappers, not handwringers.

If we do become grateful for God's overflowing goodness to us, the natural response on our part will surely be to become givers. We will begin to practice the stewardship of all that God has given us. In short, we will open our hands and hearts to serve the Lord. After all, handclappers spread their joy everywhere!

People's lives as stewards take countless forms, according to their unique vocations and circumstances. Still, the fundamental pattern in every case is simple and changeless: "Serve one another through love.... Bear one another's burdens, and so you will fulfill the law of Christ" (Gal. 5:13, 6:2).

This includes being stewards of the church, for, as we are told the Church of God is the household of God and it is essential to practice stewardship there. The life of a Christian steward, lived in imitation of the life of Christ, is challenging, even difficult in many ways; but both here and hereafter it is charged with intense joy! —May 2015 Stewardship, Parish Publishing, LLC (with permission)

Our Blessed Mother Mary was the first Christian Steward. She said "Yes" to God without hesitation, and we are called to do the same. Our Parish is so very blessed with many who live out their lives putting God first. Thank you for your service and your inspiration!

Easter Season and May blessings to all! —Chris

Memorials are a way of honoring those whom we love, whether they are living or deceased. Often, memorials are made for a special intention or in thanksgiving for a variety of blessings received from God.

Our Parish Campus will be a living memorial. All who help in building it will leave something to the community itself that will be used by generations to come. The good they do is not interred with them, but will remain to share in the divine activity of God here on earth.

Listed above are items still available for adoption.

All contributions will be recognized in a special memorial to be displayed in our Parish Memorial Garden.

For more information or to adopt an item, contact Chris Smith
