Come Away by Yourselves to a Deserted Place and Rest Awhile

As we experience the ministry of Jesus in the Scriptures, we can easily come to the conclusion that prayer and quiet time were essential components of his preaching and teaching.

Over and over again we see Jesus going off by himself in prayer and inviting his disciples and apostles to do the same. Mission and ministry flow out of a source of knowing who we are and what we are all about. How can we maintain the integrity of what we do, without knowing why we are doing what we are doing?

Jesus spent much time in prayer communing with the Father. He reflected upon his relationship with the Father, and coming to terms with what the Father was asking of him. Jesus knew who he was and what he was all about. From that place of knowledge and acceptance, he could eventually embrace the cross in faith.

Jesus models for us what we need to do in life. We become so busy with all our activities that we forget to slow down, to spend time in prayer and reflection on a regular basis. Soon the source of our mission and ministry dries up and our lives become brittle and broken because we forget who we are (Children of God and Disciples of Jesus).

Prayer, Quiet Time, Reflection, and Introspection are not luxuries in which we participate when we have extra time. They are necessities that we must build into our daily routines. If we do not, sooner or later, we dry up, we break, and our lives become dust that is soon blown away with the wind.

We must find our hidden soul, that special place from which flows our life's mission and ministry! I share with you the words of Kabir, a 15th century Sufi master, taken from The Kabir Book: Forty-Four of the Ecstatic Poems of Kabir:

The Hidden Soul

*I laugh when I hear that the fish in the water is thirsty.
You don't grasp the fact that what is most alive of all
is inside your own house;
and so you walk from one holy city to the next
with a confused look!*

*Kabir will tell you the truth; go wherever you like,
to Calcutta or Tibet,
If you can't find where your soul is hidden, for you,
the world will never be real!*

Listen to the words of Jesus this week, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest awhile."

Find your hidden soul, that special place, rest awhile, be refreshed, and be renewed. Remember who you are, Child of God and Disciple of Jesus, and you will know why you do what you do. And you will be at peace for the world will be real!

Facing Surgery or a Serious Illness?

If you, a family member or close friend is facing surgery or has been diagnosed with a serious illness, the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick can be powerful and comforting.

For more information, call the Parish Office at 760-758-4100.

When a Loved One Dies

*Call the Parish Office first, before you call the funeral home.
Call anytime, night or day! 760-758-4100 option 3*

Our Parish has a wonderful Bereavement Team that is available when a loved one dies. They are available to assist the family with many arrangements related to the funeral, which might include meeting with the family to pray, helping to plan the funeral, and providing bereavement support afterwards.

In addition, those who like to plan ahead may meet with a Bereavement Team member to pre-plan preferences and place them on record, which can be a great help for children or other family members when the time comes.

If you have any questions, call Sr. Maureen at 760-758-4100 x131.

Vocations

Sometimes, in this modern era, it seems like people are "sheep without a shepherd." Good leaders are hard to find. If you think you hear God calling you to be a "leader" as a priest, deacon, or religious, please consider investigating the calling. Good leaders are needed, and they are wonderful and fulfilling vocations. Please consider contacting Fr. Mike, Fr. Karl, Sr. Maureen, Deacon John, or Deacon Tom to talk about such a calling.

Prayer for Vocations

O God, Father of all Mercies, Provider of a Bountiful Harvest, send your graces upon those you have called to gather the fruits of your labor; preserve and strengthen them in their lifelong service of you. Open the hearts of your children that they may discern your holy will; inspire in them a love and desire to surrender themselves to serving others in the name of your son, Jesus Christ. Teach all your faithful to follow their respective paths in life guided by your divine word and truth. Through the intercession of the Most Blessed Virgin Mary, all the Angels, and Saints, humbly hear our prayers and grant your Church's needs, through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Brother Benno's Toiletry Drive

Just a heads up..our annual toiletry and NEW underwear drive will be coming about in September. Please "clip your coupons" and help us help others in need.

St. Bonaventure Clothing Drive

While November (the second weekend of which is the date of the drive) seems a long way off, time passes quickly. STM is the only dedicated clothing drive supporting the Mission in their efforts to help some of the truly poor of our nation. Please start now saving up blankets, clothing, and shoes (infant through adult..boy or girl) which are lightly used but in good condition. Your help is needed! Without you, many would remain in dire need. Any questions or comments, or for help, contact Deacon Tom at thomasgoeltz@aol.com or 760-727-8442. Thank you and God bless!

STM Mental Health Ministry Network

Are you interested in participating in the Ministry team of the STM Mental Health Ministry Network to help serve as "prayerful companions" for fellow Parishioners experiencing mental health issues, walking with them through the treatment process, and helping to provide Parish-wide education on the subject of mental illness? For more information., contact Deacon John at 760-758-4100 x132 or johnf@stmoside.org.

Social Justice Email "Hotline"

STM Archives Wants Your Material

The STM Historian is looking for material from Parish events and activities since our church was established in 1985. The kinds of material that are needed include: photographs, newspaper clippings, brochures, fliers, reports, videos, drawings—anything that represents our congregational memory! Please check your drawers, file cabinets, and that creepy ol' box in the attic. You can drop off your donations at the Parish office. Thanks!

Marriage & Family Life

Moms & Kids—Are you a mom with infant thru school age children wanting to meet other moms in our Parish? Want to find a great way to meet friends for both you and your children? Join our dynamic and energetic Moms and Kids ministry on July 20 at 10:00am at South Buena Vista Park. There are many other events throughout the month posted on our private Facebook page. Join us! World Meeting of Families 2015—The World Meeting of Families (WMOF) will take place in Philadelphia from September 22-27. The preparatory catechesis is available for purchase and is a great resource for reflecting on the theme: "Love Is Our Mission." USCCB staff is offering reflections based on the catechesis for WMOF on the Marriage, Unique for a Reason blog. On the internet, go to <http://www.marriageuniqueforareason.org/category/world-meeting-of-families/>.

Civil to Church Marriage—Are you civilly married, but haven't yet been married in the church? Contact Fr. Mike at michaelr@stmoside.org to begin your preparation!

Bishops' Letter on Marriage—Imitating Christ: "Christian spouses are called to this imitation of Christ, an imitation that is possible only because, in the Sacrament of Matrimony, the couple receives a participation in his love. As a sacrament, marriage signifies and makes present in the couple Christ's total self-gift of love. Their mutual gift of self, conferred in their promises of fidelity and love to the end, becomes a participation in the love to the end by which Christ gave himself to the Church as to a Spouse" (see Jn 13:1). To read the document go to <http://www.usccb.org/loveandlife/>.

Marriage Moments— Complaining can be a release for negative emotions, but it can wear down the listener—usually your spouse. Can you go one day without complaining? Let your beloved check you and hold you accountable. By Susan Vogt, www.SusanVogt.net.

Parenting Pointers— As your children mature and become emerging adults the way you share your faith must mature also. "Share your faith struggles, not just your certainty" (Parenting Your Adult Child). Their questions may deepen your faith. That is good. By Susan Vogt, www.SusanVogt.net.

Memorials are a way of honoring those whom we love, whether they are living or deceased. Often, memorials are made for a special intention or in thanksgiving for a variety of blessings received from God.

Our Parish Campus will be a living memorial. All who help in building it will leave something to the community itself that will be used by generations to come. The good they do is not interred with them, but will remain to share in the divine activity of God here on earth.

Listed above are items still available for adoption.

All contributions will be recognized in a special memorial to be displayed in our Parish Memorial Garden.

THE ROLE OF LAY MINISTERS IN THE LITURGICAL LIFE OF THE CHURCH

Part 3

We conclude our exploration of the various ministerial roles the lay faithful play in the liturgical life of our Parish with more information from the US Conference of Catholic Bishops Office of Divine Worship.

If you have questions, please don't hesitate to ask.

If you are interested in becoming one of our liturgical ministers, please contact me to get started. I look forward to hearing from you.

—Douglas

Sacristan

The sacristan is a lay person who “diligently arranges the liturgical books, the vestments, and other things that are necessary for the celebration of Mass” (GIRM, no. 105a). Working from the sacristy, he or she should be well-trained in the complexities of the liturgical actions, as well as those of special Masses or those of greater solemnity, so as to make appropriate provisions.

Some parishes organize the sacristans and their assistants into “altar societies.” These groups are dedicated to the maintenance of the vestments, altar linens, and sacred vessels; they also occasionally help the parish in making or purchasing replacements.

Hospitality Ministers

“A liturgical function is also exercised by ... [t]hose who take up the collections in the church; [t]hose who, in some regions, welcome the faithful at the church doors, seat them appropriately, and marshal them in processions” (GIRM, no. 105c-d). As the priest and other ministers prepare for Mass in the sacristy, lay persons have a valuable role to play in welcoming their brothers and sisters to the church and ensuring that all have a place to sit. These apostolates are related to hospitality, an important aspect of the New Evangelization.

Mark 6:34

Music Ministers Take a Summer Break

...well, some of them

July is here, and next week, after 45 straight weeks of ministry to the Parish, the choirs and ensembles begin a well-deserved, and needed, summer break. Don't worry, Kathy and Sally will still be playing for Mass, and the most important choir in the room—you!—will still be here.

I'd like to publically thank the music ministers who have done such a great job this year!

The Praise Team continues to offer great music from the newer praise tradition in addition to providing their own spin on classic Catholic songs and traditional hymns. It takes a special commitment to sing in a group that sings mostly one-voice on a part, and they do it beautifully.

The Tower Bells grows in number and skill every year, and I know from the compliments (even variations on “You are so much better than you used to be!”) that this faith community supports their efforts to provide a sparkling sonic alternative within this diverse music ministry.

Cappella Choir doesn't sing as often as the other groups, but you have supported its ministry of keeping unaccompanied song alive and well within the Catholic Church. This group is particularly important to me because I get to sing with them, and I especially appreciate their readiness to sing the more unusual repertoire that tickles my fancy.

Finally, I would be remiss without mentioning the Sanctuary Choir, which has grown to 54 members this past year—you may have noticed the extra chairs that we have to set up. Everyone has jumped right in, singing from the treasury of sacred choral music, past and present.

Over the next two months, our Cantors will be even more active, facilitating our congregational sing—that's you!—and proclaiming the responsorial psalms (although you get to sing the responses!). I appreciate their commitment throughout the year and especially during the summer.

In a few weeks, you will see information about singing in one or more of our Parish's music ministries in the fall, and I hope you will seriously (and prayerfully) think about it. In the September, we start up again, and in case you haven't noticed what's been going on across the plaza, there are exciting things on our musical horizon. I hope you will be part of it!

TOWERS OF FAITH

Future Support & Estate Planning Options

Towers of Faith is a movement that has arisen due to the visionary leadership and generosity of several of our Parishioners. We stress that this is not about the gift amount, but rather the love and thought behind the gift.

These individuals (several anonymous) have included STM in their estate planning. This helps to ensure their ongoing support and a legacy for our Parish. Towers of Faith is a valuable portion of our future support.

Examples of the various future planning vehicles are:

- Designated Beneficiary Accounts,
- Last Will and Testament, Living Trust, Life Insurance,
- Stocks and Bonds, Real Estate, and Endowments.

Parishioners who have already included STM in their estate plans are Towers of Faith participants. If you are interested, please contact us. Your participation is most welcome and appreciated!

Chris Smith at 760-758-4100 x120 or chriss@stmoside.org.

Living between Love and Fear

I'm involved in a small group. We're reflecting on Father Robert Barron's The Seven Deadly Sins and the Seven Lively Virtues. The beauty of this process is that we are called to a change of heart. The challenge of this process is that we are called to a change of heart.

Father Barron begins by suggesting that the polar opposite of love is fear. He suggests we are unloving because we are afraid of losing control, of others having more prestige, more possessions and of not accomplishing personal goals. Father Barron describes love as: "Allowing ourselves to be conduits of God's divine love." We are called to delight in each other's hopes, dreams, gifts and successes.

Parallels can be made between love, fear, and our ability to be stewards. Each day we make decisions either grounded in love or fear in regards, for example, to matters such as the depth of our gratitude, the time we make for prayer, the extent to which we are willing to offer our talents in service, and the extent to which we share generously of our treasure.

In light of this, I decided to do a self-check and reflect on where I fall between these two polar opposites of love and fear. The fear side of me suggests that I love and trust myself first, live independently and make self-actualization my goal. As a person of fear, I am afraid I might be less and have less.

On the love side of this love-fear balance, I have placed my trust in God. My commitment to prayer and the work of the Holy Spirit are key components. Love would be the measure of my success. I would live life in gratitude, in relationship with Jesus, serve wherever I'm called, and give generously of the treasure. I truly want the best for others and I want to do something about it!

So where am I between love and fear? Let's say I am intentionally traveling on the highway toward authentic love and take less off ramps than when I was younger. I know my road will end in front of the Master one day where perfect love exists. I hope that my life as a steward will reflect that I was "leaning into" the love side of the love-fear continuum all along.

STATEMENT ON THE AGREEMENT BETWEEN UNITED STATES AND ITS P5+1 PARTNERS WITH IRAN

As Chair of the Committee on International Justice and Peace of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, I welcome the momentous agreement just reached between the United States and its P5+1 partners with Iran. This significant achievement aims to curb Iran's development of nuclear weapons while allowing them to use nuclear energy for peaceful purposes.

More importantly, this agreement signals progress in global nuclear non-proliferation. In January 2015, Pope Francis said, "I express my hope that a definitive agreement may soon be reached between Iran and the P5+1 Group regarding the use of nuclear energy for peaceful purposes, and my appreciation of the efforts already made in this regard."

Since 2007, our Committee on International Justice and Peace, reflecting the longstanding position of the Holy See, has urged our nation to pursue diplomacy to ensure Iran's compliance with its obligations under the Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty. For years, we have supported dialogue and a negotiated resolution of the conflict in collaboration with international partners.

It is no small achievement that the United States, the United Kingdom, the Russian Federation, China, Germany and France have reached this agreement with Iran. We hope that the full implementation of the agreement will gradually foster an environment in which all parties build mutual confidence and trust, so that progress will be made toward greater stability and dialogue in the region. In that spirit, our Committee will continue to urge Congress to endorse the result of these intense negotiations because the alternative leads toward armed conflict, an outcome of profound concern to the Church.

The United States and its international partners have taken a remarkable step with Iran in reaching this agreement. We encourage Congress to support these efforts to build bridges that foster peace and greater understanding. In the words of Pope Francis, may the negotiated framework "be a definitive step toward a more security and fraternal world," a goal we all share.

Sincerely yours,

Most Reverend Oscar Cantú
Bishop of Las Cruces
Chairman, Committee on International Justice and Peace
