Through What Lens Do We Look at the World?

Recently I posted on Facebook the statement by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) regarding the agreement between the United States and its P5+1 partners with Iran (<http://tinyurl.com/ovac7b2>, which is a shortcut to <http://www.usccb.org/issues-and-action/human-life-and-dignity/global-issues/middle-east/iran/cantu-welcomes-iran-nuclear-agreement-2015-07-14.cfm>).

The immediate responses I received were very interesting. One response, "I hope the Republicans take notice of the statement..."

Another response was, "The statement is so naïve. Iran is dangerous, but Democrats are so naïve and trusting. They are too trusting. You need to be firm and let the world know who is in charge..."

And there were other comments as well, but all seemed to be viewed through a Democrat or Republican lens

This reminded me of a quote from Bishop Oscar Cantú, the Bishop of Las Cruces, New Mexico, and the Chairman of the Committee on International Justice and Peace of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB): "Catholics in the United States seem to judge bishops and priests through a political lens rather than judging and measuring their politics through the eyes of faith."

I believe that Catholics in the United States not only judge bishops and priests in that fashion but also any of the formal statements made by the USCCB.

It was fascinating that immediately the statement on the agreement with Iran was perceived and judged through Democrat and Republican eyes.

The statement should be viewed through the eyes of faith, through the eyes of the Catholic Faith. First and foremost we are Catholic Christians; then all the other labels follow.

We need to remember that we are members of the Body of Christ. His Body and the Members of that Body are world-wide, universal, and know no boundaries, no borders, and no national, racial, ethnic, and political identities.

Depending on the lens with which we view the world, we will see things differently, many times, vastly differently!

Do we look at immigration, for example, through a Republican or Democrat lens, or through the lens of faith? The lens will make all the difference. Looking through a political lens, we can see the Undocumented as the enemy, as unwanted, as people who need to take care of themselves, or looking through the lens of faith, we can see them as our Brothers and Sisters in Christ who are in need of help from other Members of the Body of Christ.

Looking through a political lens, we can see Iran as the enemy, yes, a dangerous government that is causing havoc in the world, and thus we should isolate them or destroy them as some people advocate; or, looking through the lens of faith, we can choose to create a possibility with other countries (China, France, Russia, the United Kingdom, and Germany), to engage the Iranian Government in dialogue, in the hopes of creating a more peaceful world. "Blessed are the Peacemakers. They shall be called children of God."

The lens makes all the difference! Through what lens do you view the world?

Fr. Mike

Vocations

Our Father calls men and women to serve him and his people as priests, deacons, and vowed religious. Some are young and some older when they get the call. Some are studious, some gregarious, some timid. They are of all different, yet all the same...they love God and want to do his will. If you think you hear his call, don't let your preconceived notions or your fears stand in the way of investigating such a vocation. Contact the Office for Vocations at the Diocese or Fr. Mike, Fr. Karl, Sr. Maureen, Deacon John, or Deacon Tom (the latter at thomasgoeltz@aol.com or 760-727-8442, the others on page 10). They are wonderful and fulfilling vocations.

Social Ministries & Outreach

Planning for the Pope's Visit to America

Would you like to be part of a group to plan some events that will help us prepare for the Pope's visit to America in September?

There is great excitement about his visit, but more importantly, we want to plan opportunities for our Parishioners and ourselves to reflect on his message and implement it in our daily lives and our local communities.

Two planning meetings are scheduled for Tuesday, August 11, and Tuesday, August 18, 10:00am to 12:00noon. It would be helpful if you can attend both meetings as one will build on the other!

If you wish to participate, please contact Sr. Maureen at 760-758-4100 x131 or maureenb@stmoside.org!

Brother Benno's Toiletry Drive

Our annual toiletry and NEW underwear collection will be held the weekend of September 19-20. Please help us help the folks at Brother Benno's.

St. Bonaventure Clothing Drive

The second weekend in November is our annual clothing drive to help the very needy on the Big Rez in New Mexico that are served by St. Bonaventure Indian Mission. Clothing, footwear, and bedding for men, women, and children of all ages are needed. Please search your closets for those lightly worn items that you no longer want and set them aside for those that could use them. Perhaps you could also contact your neighbors who are holding garage sales to donate any left over clothing items...or organize a clothing drive at your place of employment. STM conducts the only dedicated drive to assist the Mission and their people who are in dire need. Unemployment on the Reservation runs at about 60%. Any questions or for help, contact Deacon Tom at thomasgoeltz@aol.com or 760-727-8442. Remember, your donations are tax deductible. We will gladly provide you with a receipt for your tax records.

STM Mental Health Ministry Network

Are you interested in participating in the Ministry team of the STM Mental Health Ministry Network to help serve as "prayerful companions" for fellow Parishioners experiencing mental health issues, walking with them through the treatment process, and helping to provide Parish-wide education on the subject of mental illness? For more information., contact Deacon John at 760-758-4100 x132 or johnf@stmoside.org.

Jail/Detention Ministry

Jesus said, "I was in prison and you visited me. What you did for the least of these you did for me." To volunteer and bring the gifts of presence, compassion, hope, and love to those in prison, call Rita at 760-758-4100 x100. For more information, visit www.diocese-sdiego.org/restore, where you will find information on not only visiting those in prison, but ways to provide support for victims or their families and ways to get involved with victim/offender mediation and reconciliation.

Marriage & Family Life

Moms & Kids—Are you a mom with infant through school-age children wanting to meet other moms in our Parish? Want to find a great way to meet friends for both you and your children? Join our dynamic and energetic Moms and Kids ministry on Monday, August 3, at 10:00am at Buccaneer Beach Park in Oceanside.

There are many other events throughout the month posted on our private Facebook page. Join us! Contact Jen Abelson at jen.abelson@gmail.com.

World Meeting of Families 2015—The World Meeting of Families (WMOF) will take place in Philadelphia from September 22-27. The preparatory catechesis is available for purchase and is a great resource for reflecting on the theme: "Love Is Our Mission." USCCB staff is offering reflections based on the catechesis for WMOF on the Marriage, Unique for a Reason blog. On the internet, go to <http://www.marriageuniqueforareason.org/category/world-meeting-of-families/>.

Separated or Divorced—The Separated/Divorce Ministry of St. James Parish invites those going through the pain of separation and divorce to find help and healing in a supportive small group setting. Meetings are held each Sunday at 10:15am at St. James Catholic Church at 625 South Nardo Ave., Solana Beach. Contact Frank Grant at 760-533-1520 or fwgrant@gmail.com for more information.

Bishops' Letter on Marriage—Faith, Hope and Love: "As the Church is a community of faith, hope, and love, so the Christian family, as the domestic church, is called to be a community of faith, hope, and love. Through this faith, hope, and love, Jesus, by the power of his Holy Spirit, abides within each Christian family, as he does within the whole Church, and pours out the love of his Father within it." <http://www.usccb.org/loveandlife/>.

Marriage Moments— "The whole Israelite community grumbled..." (Ex16:2) "Put away the old self of your former way of life..." (Ephesians 4: 22) It's easy to slip into the habit of grumbling to your spouse. Although occasional venting can be cathartic, this week focus on putting away your grumbling self and balance it with renewed gratefulness. It'll make both of you happier. By Susan Vogt, www.SusanVogt.net.

Parenting Pointers—For many people, summer is a good time to do recreational reading. What was your favorite book as a child? If your child is old enough you've probably already read it together. Talk about why it was your favorite. By Susan Vogt, www.SusanVogt.net.

For more information, visit www.diocese-sdiego.org/Ministries/Marriage and Family Life or call Jen Frost at 858-692-7438.

Memorials are a way of honoring those whom we love, whether they are living or deceased. Often, memorials are made for a special intention or in thanksgiving for a variety of blessings received from God.

Our Parish Campus will be a living memorial. All who help in building it will leave something to the community itself that will be used by generations to come. The good they do is not interred with them, but will remain to share in the divine activity of God here on earth.

Listed above are items still available for adoption.

All contributions will be recognized in a special memorial to be displayed in our Parish Memorial Garden.

COME, EAT, LIVE

by Patricia Datchuck
 Sánchez and Rafael
 Sánchez Alonso,
 from Celebration
 August 2015,
 with permission.

Come, eat, live! With these three verbs, the ancient sapiential author (Proverbs, Aug 16) has summed up the essence of the sacred texts for August. Wisdom has built her house and set her table. She has sent out the call: Come, eat, forsake foolishness that you may live and grow in understanding. This invitation can only be accepted by the simple, who know that all authentic wisdom resides in God.

Come, eat, live, said the Lord of Israel to those enslaved in Egypt (Aug 2). Come at my invitation and follow Moses to the desert, where I will be with you always. I will enter into a covenant with you and lead you to the land promised long ago. All along the way, I shall provide food for you to eat so that you may live.

On the last Sunday of July, when Jesus fed a multitude with bread and fish, he also, as God's Word and Wisdom incarnate, invited those present to come, eat, and live. Thus began the uniquely Johannine Bread of Life narrative and discourse that continues through the Gospels of August 2, 9, 16 and 23. Two themes—one sacramental or eucharistic, and the other sapiential—have been ingeniously woven together by John in order to create a magnificent Christological tapestry that depicts Jesus as the bread from heaven, the bread of life. In a sapiential sense, Jesus was the divine revelation of God; he nourished and instructed those who would listen. Like Wisdom, his words, his bread, offered the life of light and truth. To eat this bread, to hear and heed his words, was to know how to live in right relationship with God and all others.

No doubt the Jews in the crowd that day were reminded of the sapiential references to Wisdom feeding the simple and the seekers of truth in their own tradition (Sir 15:3; 24:21;

scripture themes of August

Prv 9:5). They were surely also reminded of the prophetic promise that the messianic era would be celebrated with a great banquet (Is 25:6-8; 55:1-5) at which all would be fed abundantly. As Raymond E. Brown has pointed out, the Synoptics pictured this banquet as taking place in the afterlife or at the second coming (Mt 8:11, 26-29), but in John, Jesus announces that the banquet is at hand because Jesus, the Bread of Life, is hosting it and offering his word and his very self as food (The Gospel According to John, Doubleday, New York: 1966).

In John 6:51-58 (Aug 16), the sacramental theme, which has been secondary to the sapiential theme up to now, comes to the forefront, and Jesus himself is the agent and the source of salvation. Those who would know eternal life are told to “feed on his flesh and drink his blood” (v. 54). Since both of these actions are abhorrent in any other context (Ps 28:2; Zec 11:9; Gn 9:4; Lv 3:17; Dt 12:23; Jer 46:10; Ez 39:17), if they “are to have a favorable meaning, they must refer to the Eucharist. They simply reproduce the words we hear in the Synoptic account of the institution of the Eucharist (Mt 26:26-28): “Take, eat; this is my body...drink... this is my blood” (Brown, op. cit.).

The Gospel for Aug 23 affirms that these words and the truth they imparted were challenging to Jesus' listeners. Their faith shaken, “many of his disciples returned to their former way of life and no longer accompanied him” (Jn 6:66). For some, what was meant to be their source of life and unity required too big a leap of faith. But Peter, speaking for all who struggle toward authentic faith, declared, “You have the words of eternal life. We have come to believe...you are the Holy One of God” (6:68-69).

Only in retrospect and with God's generous grace did the disciples truly begin to grasp what Jesus' words meant. Only after his death on the cross and his resurrection did they understand that he was the Passover lamb of the new covenant with God, whose flesh was bloodied and broken so that sinners might know God's forgiveness. Moreover, he had given them a means of remembering him and experiencing his true presence among them until he returned to take them home.

August will conclude with a reality check of sorts, first from James, and then from the Marcan Jesus. For his part, James reminds us that every gift, including the word, comes from God. So profound is that word that when it is spoken, a response is demanded. Be doers of the word, says James, and not hearers only. Those who are fed and nourished by Jesus are to pay it forward, caring for others as God has cared for them.

In the Gospel, Jesus addresses the hypocrisy of lip-service and the preoccupation with ritual purity. Purity, like evil, comes from within; therefore, conversion begins in the heart and spirit and will of a person. Once a person has opened his or her inmost self to God and to grace, then he or she is able, in prayer, to integrate faith and life. This is not a once-in-a-lifetime decision but a daily process of continuing conversion that requires daily nourishment. To that end, let us listen and heed Jesus' words: Come, eat, live!

A WAY TO GIVE ~ A WAY TO RECEIVE

DESIGNATED BANK ACCOUNTS, WILLS, LIVING TRUSTS, STOCKS, LIFE INSURANCE, MUTUAL FUNDS, REAL ESTATE, ENDOWMENTS

Planned Giving is a generic term that covers the many ways an individual can give to a charity while, in many cases avoiding taxes. A few examples of Planned Giving are: Wills, Living Trusts, Designated Beneficiary Accounts, Stocks, Life Insurance, Mutual Funds, Endowments, and Real Estate.

This program is one way of helping the Parish raise the resources necessary to continue our campus build out and also help plan for our future needs (i.e., Tower of Faith participants). Gifts of this nature are beneficial and much appreciated by St. Thomas More.

A Christian Stewardship Prayer for August

For Our Families

Heavenly Father,
 you have given us the model of life
 in the Holy Family of Nazareth.
 Help us, O Loving Father,
 to make our family another Nazareth
 where love, peace, and joy reign.
 May it be deeply contemplative,
 intensely Eucharistic, revived with joy.

Help us to stay together in joy
 and sorrow in family prayer.
 Teach us to see Jesus in the members of our families,
 especially in their distressing disguise.

May the Eucharistic heart of Jesus make our hearts humble like his
 and help us to carry out our family duties
 in a holy way.

May we love one another as God loves each one of us,
 more and more each day,
 and forgive each other's faults as you forgive our sins.

Help us, O Loving Father, to take whatever you give and give whatever you take with a big smile.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen

The King and His Kingdom

A 24-Part Bible Study Featuring Jeff Cavins

Dates, Times, Location

Cost/Registration

For More Information

This exciting study brings the Gospel to life and draws you closer to Christ. You will see Jesus as the awaited Messiah who fulfills the promises and prophecies of the Old Testament, establishes the New Law, and inaugurates the Kingdom of Heaven. Set in the rich context of Jesus' life, Matthew shows us who Jesus is and what his life and teachings mean for us today.

"Once you start learning he makes you hunger for more. Jeff pulls everything you need to know out of the Bible and it all starts to make sense like it never did before."

—Margaret A. Tirpak, NY
