The Charism of Permanence

From time to time I have the privilege of presiding over 50th Wedding Anniversary celebrations. Each one is always a special moment for me, and I know it is for the family who celebrates.

These celebrations remind us that permanent commitments are possible. And not only are they possible, they are incredibly needed today. Maybe more so today than ever before!

As I lead in the celebration of the Eucharist with families celebrating 50 years of life and love, of joy and struggle, the message is shouted out in the silences of the Mass— "Yes, all the hard work and sacrifice was worth it! There is peace, stability, and security that has been created and given to this family because of our decision to be faithful to God and to one another. We have given a precious gift to our children and grandchildren that will make a difference in their lives. And there were no shortcuts to this gift! It simply took 50 years to create the gift!"

There are no easy routes and shortcuts with Gospel living. Jesus demonstrated that to us with the giving of his very life. If we want to hand on good gifts, real inheritance, to our children and grandchildren, it will cost us dearly. It will cost us in our efforts to be faithful and to be committed to the promises we make to each other.

There are many people in our world today who believe that lifetime commitments are not possible or that they are not needed.

Our Faith teaches us otherwise. Our God is the Faithful Lover. We are reminded of this over and over again in the Scriptures. God says through Moses and his prophets, "I am your God. You are my people and I shall be with you always."

The basis of our Faith is that God has chosen us, each and every one of us, to live in covenant with him. Our God is the God who never walks away from us, who is always there for us, no matter how many times we may walk away from him. The God who loves us unconditionally is the God who calls us each day to live in covenant with him.

As married persons, as vowed religious, as single people living and awaiting God's promises in our lives, we are called to be faithful to one another, day in and day out—as God is faithful with us.

The most needed charism in this new millennium, I believe, is the charism of permanence—the belief that we can make covenants with one another as God has made with us; that we can be faithful to one another, unconditionally, as God has been faithful to us—in life, until death, into eternity.

The most needed charism for this new millennium is the charism of permanence. As a People of Faith, let us imitate our God and give this gift to our families, friends, and world. This gift of permanence, for which we are willing to sacrifice until death, does bring peace, stability, and security to the next generation!

Can we, and with God's help, are we willing to say to those around us, as our God says to us, "I am your spouse, your lover, your friend, your parent, your sibling, your child, and you are my 'people.' I will ALWAYS be with you."

Let us pray for each other as we continue to "permanenteze" our relationships.

F. Mike

World Mission Sunday

World Mission Sunday, organized by the Propagation of the Faith, is a day set aside for Catholics worldwide to recommit themselves to the Church's missionary activity through prayer and sacrifice. An envelope is attached to the bulletin and may be returned any time during October.

Mission dioceses around the world—about 1,100 at this time—receive regular annual assistance from the funds collected. Your prayers and contributions are most appreciated!

Considering Becoming Catholic?

Has Pope Francis ignited a spark in you to know more about the Catholic faith and become a member of the Church he shepherds?

If you are already Catholic, perhaps you have a new enthusiasm for your faith that you would like to share with a friend or family member who is searching.

Our lives sometimes go through seasons of change, of closeness to God and distance from God. Yet the Father's love is steadfast, full of mercy, and ever-present to those who seek with a sincere heart, no matter what sins or situations have caused separation.

If you have thought about becoming Catholic and beginning a new "season" in your life, contact Kathleen Bell, 760-809-6526, 80bell180@gmail.com.

Our Mission is to:
worship God,
teach and live the Gospel of Jesus Christ,
and serve God's people in word and deed.

Vocations

In today's gospel, Jesus promises that those who give up everything for his sake and the sake of the gospel, will receive a hundred times more. Do you hear the call of Jesus to follow him as a priest, deacon, or vowed religious? If so, explore the possibilities and challenges. They are great and rewarding vocations. STM is the Mission's only dedicated clothing drive. St. Bonaventure's serves the Navajo in approximately 100 square miles of the big reservation in New Mexico where unemployment vastly exceeds 50%...where many have no utilities or running water...and where temperatures range from below zero in the winter to over 100 in the summer. Please be generous!!! If you have questions, contact Deacon Tom at thomasgoeltz@aol.com or 760-727-8442.

Bishops' Letter on Marriage—Gratitude: "As a husband and wife are thankful for one another and express this gratitude in the giving of themselves completely to one another, so this gratitude is open to the further gifts that this self-giving literally embodies: that is, a gratitude for the possible further gift of children. Inherent within a husband's gratitude for his wife is that together with her he can beget children. Inherent within a wife's gratitude for her husband is that together with him she can conceive children. Together a husband and wife are gratefully open to the gift of children." <http://www.usccb.org/loveandlife/>.

Marriage Moments—Got an anniversary, a birthday, or another gift-giving occasion coming up. Try a free, but heartfelt gift—a list of things you love about your spouse. Fancy it up by putting the compliments on brightly colored papers and put in a glass jar for daily reading. By Susan Vogt, www.SusanVogt.net.

Parenting Pointers—“Go, sell what you have, and give to the poor” (Mark 10:21). Invite your child to take a step with you. ## ALL ARE WELCOME

how to be a Church of open doors

What do I do to make the Church a community where everyone feels welcomed and understood, everyone feels the mercy and love of God who renews life?

—Pope Francis
General Audience, May 29, 2013

Mark 10:22

Each of us can make St. Thomas More Parish an even more welcoming place to newcomers, persons with disabilities, and persons with special needs. Here are a few ideas:

- If you see a parent struggling with a child's behavior, offer a friendly smile, a sympathetic nod, or a helping hand.
- If you see a person physically struggling to get in, hold open a door, scoot down in the pew, or offer to carry something.
- If you see a person exhibiting unusual behavior, understand that it might be a sign of a disability. Embrace the person as a child of God and understand that each of us has different ways of receiving and communicating God's love.

- If you see someone who is disheveled or out of sorts, consider that he or she might be in dire straits. Act with compassion.
- Some people may struggle to get to or sit through the Mass. Offer a ride, an open door, or simply acceptance and understanding.

A warm smile, a nod, or a small kindness can make all the difference.

Being Good Stewards of our Food

In the Midwest, October often means one thing: football. But on Sunday, October 4, the feast of St. Francis of Assisi, the football-mad city of Omaha, Nebraska, will host what is becoming an international celebration: "Feeding the 5,000."

This event was started in London, England, in 2009 by an organization called Feedback to address the scandal of food waste. Since then, there have been "Feeding the 5,000" events all over Europe and increasingly in the United States, led by the cities of Oakland, Chapel Hill, Omaha, and soon New York City.

Local chefs feed the crowd with a delicious meal prepared with food which would otherwise be discarded: misshapen potatoes, wrongly sized carrots, onions with a bruise. And while they're fed, the crowd learns how to counteract food waste in their community.

Did you know that food by the tons is thrown out each year because it doesn't live up to the cosmetic standards of food sellers? That arbitrary "sell-by" dates means truckloads of edible food go to the dump? That restaurant portions grow ever larger as over 9% of restaurant food is wasted?

The United Nations maintains that 1.3 billion tons of food is wasted annually—imagine the water it takes to grow this food, the carbon transmissions used in the production and the transportation of food that eventually rots in a dump.

Pope Francis said that the food which is discarded could "feed all the hungry people of the world."

As Christian stewards, we are painfully aware that it's not just industry that wastes food. Estimates reveal that we consumers throw out the most food, food we've purchased, some of which our waists might not need anyway. How careful are we to buy and use just what we'll consume, what we actually need? How well do we steward the food in our refrigerators and pantries?

Urged by Pope Francis to practice greater austerity, we should be particularly sensitive to the issue of good stewardship of the fruits of creation. In 2013, Pope Francis said: "Once upon a time, our grandparents were very careful not to throw away any leftover food."

Consumerism has led us to become used to an excess and daily waste of food. Throwing away food is like stealing from the table of the poor and the hungry."

—ICSC Stewardship October 2015 3-bulletin, with permission

The Feast of St. Francis of Assisi, the patron saint of the environment,
should encourage us to consider anew
our relationship to food.
