Pastor's Column

Children in Church at St. Thomas More Parish

I thought it appropriate that I discuss the place of families with children here at our Parish on this "Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph."

Pope Francis said this on December 17, 2015, at St. Joseph Parish in Rome:

"Babies cry, make noise, go here and there. But it annoys me when a baby cries in Church and there are those who say he needs to go out.

The cry of a baby is God's voice: never drive them away from the Church."

These words sum up in the best way possible our policies regarding children in Church. Children are always welcome! That is why we did not include a "Children's Chapel" or "Cry Room" in our Church.

Families with children are always welcome to be together and to worship together.

If children "act up" a bit, parents know and feel comfortable to get up from their places and walk to the back and walk around with the child(ren). Also if they need, they can always walk outside on the Plaza where there are speakers and Mass can be heard and also seen through the glass doors.

In addition, a new option for parents will be available, if they so choose. We are creating a "Child Care Center" called "The Ark" where children can be while parents attend Mass. The Ark will be designated for children from 0 to 3 years old.

Lia Keane has been hired to be our Child Care Coordinator.

We should be operational in a month or so, and this option will be available for the 10:30am Mass on Sundays.

Vigil of Mary the Mother of God

The Ark will also be available when needed for other Parish events.

Also it is good to remember that in our Faith Formation Program we have Genesis for our 3 to 5 year olds. This instruction takes place during the 10:30am Mass.

Also that we are now in our new Church Home, we will be able to offer "Liturgy of the Word for Children" on a much more consistent basis. This instruction is for children from ages four to twelve. The children leave Mass after the Collect (Opening Prayer) and return by the time the Preparation of the Gifts begins.

So we have a number of options to help families with children.

The bottom line, though, is children are always welcome at St. Thomas More Parish.

Retirement Fund for Religious

Help aging sisters, brothers, and religious order priests. "Each year the need to provide for our elderly (members) becomes more pressing, and we are ever more grateful for these providential funds," writes a religious sister about the financial assistance received from the Retirement Fund for Religious. Your donation helps provide necessities such as prescription medication and nursing care. Please give to those who have given a lifetime. You may return the envelopes any time during December. Thank you!

Considering Becoming Catholic?

Has Pope Francis ignited a spark in you to know more about the Catholic faith and become a member of the Church he shepherds?

If you are already Catholic, perhaps you have a new enthusiasm for your faith that you would like to share with a friend or family member who is searching.

Our lives sometimes go through seasons of change, of closeness to God and distance from God. Yet the Father's love is steadfast, full of mercy, and ever-present to those who seek with a sincere heart, no matter what sins or situations have caused separation.

If you have thought about becoming Catholic and beginning a new "season" in your life, contact Kathleen Bell, 760-809-6526, 80bell80@gmail.com.

Vocations

In the hustle and bustle of the holidays, it is difficult to find quiet time to listen to God speaking to us. It is, however, a good time to talk to relatives about career choices, seeking their advice and input. If you think God has called you to be a priest, deacon, or religious, explore the possibilities. Talk to your relatives, priest, or nun, or contact Deacon Tom at thomasgoeltz@aol.com or 760-727-8442. They are wonderful and fulfilling careers. Have a blessed Christmas and a great new year.

The Parish Office will be closed through January 4 for the holidays.

However, in case of emergency or a death, please call 760-758-4100 and select option 3.

Oplatki – Christmas Wafers

The word Bethlehem means "House of Bread." The breaking of bread is a sign of charity, unity, and friendship. Religious family traditions and customs bring the truths of Faith into the home.

One of these beautiful Christmas customs is the Christmas Wafer. A wafer bearing a simple design commemorative of Christ's birth is given to everyone present gathered together for the Christmas meal.

With a simple prayer for God's grace and the welfare of the present and absent members of the family, the designated family member then invites everyone to go to another person, and with a gesture of a hug, kiss, or handshake, ask forgiveness for anything they may have done to hurt that family member in the past year, and to seek God's blessings upon them in the coming year. Each person, as the words are said, then breaks a piece off of each other's wafer and consumes the piece that has been broken off.

The spiritual lesson in this age old custom is unity of the family—the main pillar of society. The bond of unity is the Christ-like charity that should exist among the members of the family.

The members of the family are the links in the unbroken chain of One Body, One Bread, One Christ, and the One Church. The family is part of the eternal procession no matter where they are. For there is a universal longing to be always with one another, with God.

All this brings to mind clearly our charity for one another, to seek salvation together. Family customs remind us that we seek and obtain salvation with the help of others at all times.

These Christmas Wafers, and the home ritual surrounding their use, originated in Poland. This custom and ritual is also popular in Slovakia, Lithuania, Ukraine, and other parts of Catholic Eastern Europe.

For more information and to register, go to: https://catholiccom.formstack.com/forms/ca_conference_2016.

Bishops' Letter on Marriage—Procreation: "It is the nature of love to overflow, to be life-giving. Thus, it is no surprise that marriage is ordained not only to growing in love but to transmitting life. 'By its very nature the institution of marriage and married love [is] ordered to the procreation and education of the offspring and it is in them that it finds its crowning glory'" (Gaudium et Spes). To read the document go to <http://www.usccb.org/loveandlife/>.

Marriage Moments—The winter solstice brings the longest nights of the year. Warm them with candlelight. For some couples, however, dark nights bring depression. If you are among those who are currently struggling in your marriage, turn to the power of prayer as one resource.

Parenting Pointers—It's still the Octave of Christmas. Relish the glee of giving and receiving a gift. After the hubbub dies down, pause as a family not only to thank each other, but to be thankful that you have the resources to give gifts and that you have a family to share this time with. Don't let the day slip slide away without this pause.

THANK YOU

How does one say “thank you” when the effort has been so magnificent?

Over the past few days, we have dedicated our Church, wrapped up the Advent season, and begun our celebration of Christmas. And in the weeks and months ahead of that hundreds of people planned and trained and executed one of the largest, if not the largest, liturgical event in our parish’s history.

The effort has been tremendous. All I can say is, “Thank you.”

Thank you to everyone who had a part in our dedication day, and the days and weeks and months and years leading up to it.

Thank you to the Liturgy Committee and especially to its chairperson Kathy Arciero who have put an extraordinary effort in the preparation and execution of this extraordinary liturgy.

Thank you to our liturgical ministers, to the ones who served that day, to everyone who has retrained in the new space, and to our lead ministers. These ministers have put in hours of training and preparation so that our worship, the worship of this entire faith community, remains vibrant and beautiful, reflecting the people of this Parish, this particular part of the Body of Christ.

Within that group of liturgical ministers, I would like to extend a particular word of thanks to our musicians, and especially to Kathy, Sally, and Joleen. Moving into a new acoustical environment is a challenge at any time, and to do so a few days before Christmas is a particular challenge. Thank you all for being flexible as we rise to the challenges that appear and learn to bathe in the new sound.

I’d also like to thank those who prayed for me and for all of us during this tumultuous time, and the Parish staff for its gracious support and loving words during the difficult moments.

And, of course, a big thank you to Fr. Mike, who has guided all of us as we made this voyage. It took many, many years, and he provided vision and the steady hand that kept our eyes on the prize.

We have, as Fr. Mike has said, reached a big milestone. As we embark on the next part of our journey—sojourners on the road (to borrow from Bishop McElroy)—let us most especially thank God for the blessings bestowed on all of us this day and in the years to come.

—Douglas

The Abilities of All Christian Stewards Are Needed!

If Jesus walked up to you and said: "Come follow me ... I have a lot of work to do and I really need your help."

Would you tell him no because you are just too busy in your pursuit of personal possessions and worldly comfort?

Every day is a time to reflect on all that God has given you and a time to share and care about others.

Have you given any consideration to helping Jesus carry out his works in our own Parish?

(This article is a challenge at STM because SO many of you ARE already donating time, talent, and treasure. And many take on several ministries. So, for those who have not yet joined in at least one of our 100+ ministries, this is food for thought.)

Our abilities should be dedicated to God.

The abilities of the successful Christian businessperson are needed in His church.

The trained efficient teacher could be using their talent in the church, as well as in the schoolroom.

The person gifted in music could contribute to an effective music program in our Parish.

The doctor and nurse will find many ways of using their abilities for furthering our Parish (CPR Instructor comes to mind).

Young people in choosing their life vocation should ask how this profession can contribute to a the work of the kingdom of Christ.

What a blessing it would be if people were willing to tithe their abilities as well as their money!

The secretary, the carpenter, the plumber, the painter, the teacher, the artist, the musician, as well as others could make vital contributions to the church by using their particular talent for the work of the church.

If one's work is legitimate, there is some way that that talent can be used for God. —Partially excerpted from Parish Publishing, LLC, December 2015 e-bulletin.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!!!
