There Are Not Enough Jars and Buttons

(I wrote this reflection a number of years ago, but I wanted to share it again during this Jubilee Year of Mercy.)

For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish, but may have eternal life. Indeed God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him.

—John 3: 16-17

Each year in parish life as children (and their parents) begin the process of preparation for the celebration of First Reconciliation and First Eucharist, I am taken back to my childhood and my “getting ready” for my First Confession as it was called back then in 1957.

In preparation for my first confession, I began thinking about some practical ways in which I could remember my sins so that I could tell them to the priest accurately in terms of kind and number. From somewhere, I got the idea that I would use my mother's mason jars (that she used for canning...does anyone still can?) and her buttons (she had a plenitude in her sewing basket).

The plan was simple, so I thought. I would have a jar, in my chest of drawers in my bedroom, for each sin that I would commit. I would then place a button in the jar for each time that I committed that specific sin. This seemed to be a foolproof way of keeping in good stead with God!

Very quickly, much to my amazement, I ran out of jars and out of buttons! I was overwhelmed. I could not keep track, that is, I could not itemize and record in a logical way the sinful actions of my life. And I was only 9 years old! My life was not yet very complicated.

At that moment, I quietly returned the jars and buttons to my mother. I, unconsciously, surrendered to God in a sense of grand wonderment that I would not be able to be “in control” in terms of my relationship with God.

If yes, thank you! If no, pray about it.

LUKE 6:36

Celebrating THE YEAR OF Mercy

www.sdcatholic.org

It took some years to put into words, but I then, at that young age, allowed God to be God and allowed me to be me. I knew that God loved me in my strengths and in my weaknesses. I needed simply to accept that. I needed to surrender and to allow God to love me. I needed to just allow myself to examine my life in God's light, to sincerely express my sorrow and to keep attempting to do better, knowing that God's patience never runs out.

This child-like gift of faith has been with me my entire life. I have always taken God "with me" into virtue and into vice. God knows me! I can't hide my life from God. In my weakness, in my sin, I continue to ask God for forgiveness and then, once again, continue my attempts to change attitudes and behavior; to let go of what it is I need to let go and to grab hold of what it is I need to hold. My faith tells me that God's patience never runs out. As I continue to surrender to God and allow God to love me, I experience God's grace and power to help me, little by little, in my growing into holiness (wholeness).

I give thanks to God that, so early in life, I learned that there are not enough jars and buttons.

Just surrender!

There is nothing we can do to make God love us more.

There is nothing we can do to make God love us less.

Fr. Mike

Considering Becoming Catholic?

Has Pope Francis ignited a spark in you to know more about the Catholic faith and become a member of the Church he shepherds?

If you are already Catholic, perhaps you have a new enthusiasm for your faith that you would like to share with a friend or family member who is searching.

Our lives sometimes go through seasons of change, of closeness to God and distance from God. Yet the Father's love is steadfast, full of mercy, and ever-present to those who seek with a sincere heart, no matter what sins or situations have caused separation.

If you have thought about becoming Catholic and beginning a new "season" in your life, contact Kathleen Bell, 760-809-6526, 80bell180@gmail.com.

Help Feed the Hungry

Pope Francis reminds us:
 "You pray for the hungry.
 Then you feed them.
 That's how prayer works."

Although life coaches tell us that it takes twenty-one days for a new practice to become a habit, it's not that simple.

Good habits are formed daily by putting in a lot of effort.

During the forty days of Lent, we saw a huge increase in our efforts to feed the hungry in our local community.

Now is the time to reinforce this practice. A visual reminder on your fridge will help you form the habit of bringing a nonperishable food item each weekend when you come to Mass.

Thank you for your generosity!

Social Ministries & Outreach

Get on the Bus 2016

Once again, our Parish will be participating in the Get On the Bus Program which brings children to visit their incarcerated mothers on the Friday before Mother's Day! Each year thousands of children throughout California travel by bus to the prison where their mother is confined. Mother and child spend the day hugging, visiting, crying, playing games, eating lunch, and making memories until next Mother's Day. The children spend about 10 hours on the bus in order to share 3-4 hours this one day of the year.

St. Thomas More Parish, along with other San Diego faith communities, is supporting a bus to the Central California Women's Facility (CCWF) in Chowchilla. Please see the flyer in last week's bulletin describing how you can be of help in bringing these mothers and children together. Some of the items needed have changed from the past, so please review the flyer carefully! The envelope that was attached last week can be used for monetary donations through April 26.

We will be accepting items for the next two weekends before Masses and through April 26 at the Parish Office. Every item on the flyer is used for GOTB. (If we have excess items, they will be shared with other congregations collecting for the children who will visit their dads near Father's Day.)

Have questions or want to volunteer? Contact Sr. Maureen Brown at 760-758-4100 x131 or maureenb@stmoside.org.

St. Bonaventure Indian Mission

Although our clothing and shoe drive will not be until the second weekend in November, it is not too early to start now in setting aside those items that no longer fit, are out of style, or just no longer cared for...and perhaps your neighbors and coworkers could do the same. The Navajos the Mission helps are among the poorest of the poor in our great country. Please help them! Any questions, contact Deacon Tom at thomasgoeltz@aol.com or 760-727-8442.

STM Mental Health Ministry Network

STM is a member of the San Diego Mental Health Ministry Network (MHMN) and has made a commitment to become a faith community that both understands mental illness and can provide compassionate support. While our ministry is not intended to replace professional or clinical services and does not provide professional care, we do exist to serve individuals and families experiencing mental health issues by offering God's hope and love through encouragement, practical support, and prayer. The volunteers of this ministry have a heart to serve those who are experiencing mental health issues and would like to walk with you through your mental health experience and support you in whatever way we can. If you or a loved one is experiencing mental health challenges, or if you would like to find out how to become a member, please contact us at 760-758-4100 x104.

Mental Health America of San Diego County will present "Mental Health First Aid" at St. Patrick Church in Carlsbad on Saturday, April 16. Lunch will be provided and space is limited to 25 participants. Please contact Martha Ackman to register at mmackman5@gmail.com or 760-443-8783.

Civil to Church Marriage—Are you civilly married, but haven't yet been married in the church? Contact Fr. Mike at michaelr@stmoside.org to begin your preparation!

Bishops' Letter on Marriage—The Trinity and Marriage: "To be created in the image and likeness of God means, therefore, that human beings reflect not the life of a solitary deity, but the communal life of the Trinity. Human beings were created not to live solitary lives, but to live in communion with God and with one another, a communion that is both life-giving and loving." To read the document go to <http://www.usccb.org/loveandlife/>.

Marriage Moments—After the last child leaves home, Mom and Dad may wake up and wonder who they are looking at. Somewhere over the years, they've gotten so involved in their children's lives that they forgot about each other. Prepare for an empty nest by paying attention to your honey today. Plan a date for this week. By Susan Vogt, www.SusanVogt.net

Parenting Pointers—(Friday is Earth Day) On this Earth Day take stock of what your family already recycles (paper, plastic, cans...) Can you add one more thing to recycle? Better yet, can you refrain from buying something that needs recycling? We call it "precycling." By Susan Vogt, www.SusanVogt.net

Brother Benno's

This Season of Joy for the risen Christ sometimes makes it easy to forget that Jesus sent his disciples (us) out to spread the good news, not only by proclaiming the Gospel, but, more importantly, by living it...taking care of our less fortunate neighbors, clothing the naked, and feeding the poor. Brother Benno's does this better than any other agency here in North County. Although STM will not have any "formal" collections for them until later in the summer, their needs continue every month...every day. Please remember them during this "off season". Any questions, contact Deacon Tom at thomasgoeltz@aol.com or 760-727-8442.

Women's Guild News

The Women's Guild semi-annual Bake Sale takes place this weekend on the plaza after each Mass. Be sure to stop by the tables and choose a goody to take home, while at the same time help with the Mortgage and Building Completion Fund. Many thanks to our contributing bakers who make it possible...and delicious!

Our April meeting was quite fascinating, thanks to Sally Fay's "Pedals and Pistons and Pipes...Oh My" program of how the church's organ works. She and Douglas Lynn, Director of Liturgy and Music, moved the organ out to the center of the church for us all to have a clear view of its workings. We are sure to have Sally back for an encore next year, there is so much more to know about this marvelous "King of Instruments". Thank you Sally and Douglas!

The Victorian Garden Tea was a huge success! Many thanks to co-chairs Maureen Tutino and Mary Dahlberg whose hard work on this enormous project paid off! Guests enjoyed decorating their own tables and unique hats were the talk of the day. Prizes were awarded to those judged to be the Best Tables and Hats, and there were door prizes for the lucky ticket holders. Delicious and savory items, tea sandwiches, scones, and little desserts were downed with lots of tea by 101 ladies in attendance. We had such a good time we can't wait until next year's tea!

May's luncheon meeting (May 9 on your calendar) agenda is full, and includes election of Board members for the coming year, a special May dedication to our Blessed Mother Mary, Rebecca Eyer's review of her recently published book My Journey In and Out of Community, and hopefully, we will be able to present the slide show of our year's activities. Be sure to bring your books for the book exchange too! As a bonus, Judy Smith will be selling her remaining copies of her children's book, Eggee's Journey. Judy has generously offered to donate a percentage of her sales to the Women's Guild Treasury. Thank you Judy! Last but not least, a barbeque lunch will be the menu offering. Hopefully, we will still have time for Bingo! Stay tuned!

Have a blessed week! —Kathy Gerhard, president

EASTER SIGNS AND SYMBOLS

Bread

In the old days, before yeast was readily available at markets, many households kept some alive in a crock stored somewhere warm in the kitchen. The yeast was tended by adding flour and water as needed. A bit of it leavened each batch of bread dough. Eventually bacteria would get into leaven, which made it stink to high heaven. What's worse, contaminated leaven failed to make bread rise. So it got thrown out and some was borrowed from a neighbor to start fresh. At Passover, the Jewish people make a communal ritual of this new beginning by tossing out the old leaven and by eating unleavened bread until new yeast develops.

For Christians, the action of fresh yeast is an emblem of resurrection and a sign of the life-giving Spirit. Saint Paul told the Corinthians to throw out the old yeast so that the new—the gospel—could raise them up (see 1 Cor 5:6b-8).

With your companions (a word that means “those we break bread with”), celebrate the season with Easter breads, perhaps with a babka, brioche, lambropsomo (Greek “shining bread”), hot cross buns, or colomba di Pasqua (Italian “Easter dove”). These can be savory symbols of the bread of life, the risen Christ, who is made known to us in the breaking of the bread.

Wood

On Good Friday two crisscrossed planks of lumber were carried into church. A voice sang out, “This is the wood of the cross, on which hung the Savior of the world.” And all of us gathered there stepped forward to give glory to God by venerating this holy wood.

For us Christians, wood calls many things to mind: A cypress ark saved creation from the flood. Moses held high his walking stick to divide the sea. When God asked Abraham to sacrifice his son Isaac, the boy carried the wood for his own funeral pyre. But God chose life, not death, for Abraham's beloved son.

There is a legend that the cross of Christ was hewn from Eden's long-dead tree of life. The blood of Christ brought this wood to life so that it flowered afresh.

In your home, honor the life-giving cross. Hang it in the place you pray. If you have no cross, a couple of branches make a fine one. During this Easter season keep some spring flowers alongside it.

This year, April 29 is National Arbor Day. Celebrate the resurrection by planting a tree. Give God glory that two ordinary pieces of wood have become a promise of paradise.

Art and Environment in the Liturgical Space

Flowers during Ordinary Time help us journey through the time between Advent and Christmas, Lent, and Easter—our worship space in Ordinary Time mirrors creation, accenting the green with the brightly colored flowers of spring and summer as well as the rich hues of autumn and winter. Flowers help celebrate our joys and comfort our sorrows.

Thank you to all who graciously donated flowers this past Liturgical year. Whether it was to commemorate a loved one, celebrate a special occasion, or in thanksgiving for a special intention, the flowers enhanced our liturgies and brought with them a measure of elegance and grace.

The 2016 Flower Donation Calendar is available now—please stop by Henny's desk to reserve your special date—we all appreciate it so much!

A WAY TO GIVE ~ A WAY TO RECEIVE

DESIGNATED BANK ACCOUNTS, WILLS, LIVING TRUSTS, STOCKS, LIFE INSURANCE, MUTUAL FUNDS, REAL ESTATE, ENDOWMENTS

Planned Giving is a generic term that covers the many ways an individual can give to a charity while, in many cases avoiding taxes. A few examples of Planned Giving are: Wills, Living Trusts, Designated Beneficiary Accounts, Stocks, Life Insurance, Mutual Funds, Endowments, and Real Estate.

This program is one way of helping the Parish raise the resources necessary to continue our campus build out and also help plan for our future needs (i.e., Tower of Faith participants). Gifts of this nature are beneficial and much appreciated by St. Thomas More.

For more information please contact:

Chris Smith at 758-4100 x120 or chriss@stmoside.org.

Stewardship of the Earth

This year, spring ushers in Earth Day 2016 on April 22. This year's theme is "Trees for the Earth" and we're all encouraged to plant a tree.

But environmental stewardship goes way beyond our ability to plant a tree. There are so many ways to honor Earth Day.

As Christian stewards, we know that our ongoing commitment to stewardship of the earth is growing increasingly important. Pope Francis has led the way with his encyclical, "On Care of Our Common Home," and he makes it very clear that stewardship of the environment is front and center for Christians in this time of environmental degradation. "Living our vocation to be protectors of God's handiwork is essential to a life of virtue; it is not an optional or a secondary aspect of our Christian experience."

The year 2015 was our hottest in recorded history. We've all heard the frightening stories of sea levels rising, threatening islands and even some of our coastal cities. "Hundred year storms" are becoming increasingly common. Pope Francis, in the paragraph cited above, also says our ecological crisis is "a summons to profound interior conversion."

- † Keep canvas bags in your car for grocery shopping
- † Always recycle and forego plastic
- † Commit to a few degrees difference in heating and A/C
- † Wash clothes in cold water/hang dry when possible
- † Restrict lawn watering and time your showers.
- † Commit to buying less "stuff" and living more simply
- † Turn off power strips when not in use
- † Be an example to your children and grandchildren

—partially excerpted from ICSC April 2016 e-bulletin (with permission)

Recycling has been a way of life for our family for as far back as I can remember. Canvas bags are SO much easier for grocery shopping! Lots of the tips above are daily habit for us now. If you haven't started, now is a great time. You won't regret it!—Chris

Keep in mind: stewardship of the earth is "essential to a life of virtue."

Our Response as Stewards

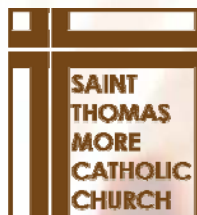

Participation in the Annual Catholic Appeal accomplishes something simple but profound: it opens the door of faith for others and for yourself. Because of your gift, someone will meet Jesus Christ, have the opportunity to experience His loving grace, know His Mercy, and rest in His peace.

Please make a pledge today!

There are many ways to respond to the Annual Catholic Appeal:

- a monthly or quarterly pledge
- a one-time cash gift
- a credit card or electronic funds transfer, which may now be processed by the Diocese, or you may visit www.sdcatholic.org
- a gift of stocks and bonds

Note that the Annual Catholic Appeal qualifies for many company matching gift programs.

St. Thomas More Spirited Seniors

SPONSOR A Trip to Old Town San Diego and beyond

Thursday May 19 | 9:15am-5:30pm

$5.50 for age 60+, $11.00 for under age 60

Place: Oceanside Transit Center
Oceanside Coaster Station
235 S. Tremont St
Oceanside CA 92054

The Spirited Seniors invite members and their guests to tour Old Town in San Diego, and more, if you are adventurous. We will meet at the Oceanside Coaster Station and depart on the 9:42am Coaster, and arrive at the Old Town Coaster Station at 10:34am. Once there, you may take a self-guided tour of the historic Immaculate Conception Catholic Church, enjoy shopping and lunch on your own in one of the many restaurants in the area. We will board our RETURN COASTER TO OCEANSIDE at the Old Town Coaster Station at 2:22pm, 3:51pm, or 4:33pm. The cost of this trip is $5.50, the price of the round-trip Coaster, for people age 60+. If under age 60, the cost is $11.00.

Those wishing to tour more of San Diego on the famous Old Town Trolley must pre-register for a free "Hometown Pass" with the Old Town Trolley Company at www.trolleytours.com/san-diego/hometown-pass-san-diego.asp. This free Pass allows you to accompany, for free, a person who purchases a $39.00 full-price Trolley ticket. So, find a "friend," share the savings, and the Trolley costs each of you $19.50! Once on the Trolley, you can enjoy the free narrated 2-hour tour without getting off, or you may "hop-off hop-on" at any of the 11 stops, which include Old Town, the Midway, Seaport Village, Gaslamp Quarter, Coronado, Balboa Park, the San Diego Zoo and more.

Please complete the reservation form with your check payable to "St. Thomas More Spirited Seniors."

Place it in an envelope marked "Spirited Seniors Old Town Trip" and return it to the offertory collection or the Parish Office, Box 12, by Monday May 16.

For more information, including how to secure a free "Hometown Pass," contact Jim and Marilyn Day at 760-509-4545 or jandmday@cox.net
