Pilgrimage to South Africa: October 4-17, 2016

"A pilgrimage is a journey or search of moral or spiritual significance." So why make a pilgrimage to South Africa? Any journey, anywhere, if taken with the notion of better understanding God's World, God's Creation, becomes a pilgrimage because it has spiritual significance.

Journey to South Africa, to the land of Nelson Mandela, a man who spent his entire life to eradicate apartheid, the grave sin of racism...changing the face of a nation and doing so non-violently! Truly a miracle in this day and age...

Journey on a safari to shoot magnificent animals—with cameras and not guns! Truly a miracle in this day and age...

Journey to see one of the most beautiful countries in the world—mountains, seashores, wine country and more...

This journey is one of spiritual significance. It is a pilgrimage!

Presently there are about 18 people joining me and we have room for more.

Brochures are available in the Parish Office, at the Information Table on the Plaza after Masses on the weekend, and on the Parish website, www.stmoside.org.

There will be a meeting on Tuesday, July 5, at 3:00pm on the Parish Center Lower Level.

Our travel agent, Ari Marom, will be here to discuss the details of the pilgrimage.

Everyone who is going and those who may be interested in coming on the pilgrimage are invited to attend.

Simply Amazing ~ Thank You Women's Guild!!!

Once again our Women's Guild has blessed our Parish with their ongoing diligence, hard work, and efforts with a variety of events that made it possible for them to present STM with a check for $27,000. $5,000 of this went towards the adoption of a panel (#43) in our Mosaic, "Jesus, Divine Redeemer and Master of the Universe" and $22,000 went into our Mortgage/Building Completion Fund! Heartfelt thanks to Kathy Gerhard, president, and the entire Women's Guild for this most generous gift!

Considering Becoming Catholic?

Has Pope Francis ignited a spark in you to know more about the Catholic faith and become a member of the Church he shepherds?

If you are already Catholic, perhaps you have a new enthusiasm for your faith that you would like to share with a friend or family member who is searching.

Our lives sometimes go through seasons of change, of closeness to God and distance from God. Yet the Father's love is steadfast, full of mercy, and ever-present to those who seek with a sincere heart, no matter what sins or situations have caused separation.

If you have thought about becoming Catholic and beginning a new "season" in your life, contact Kathleen Bell, 760-809-6526, 80bell80@gmail.com.

When a Loved One Dies

*Call the Parish Office first, before you call the funeral home.
 Call anytime, night or day! 760-758-4100 option 3*

Our Parish has a wonderful Bereavement Team that is available when a loved one dies. They are available to assist the family with many arrangements related to the funeral, which might include meeting with the family to pray, helping to plan the funeral, and providing bereavement support afterwards.

In addition, those who like to plan ahead may meet with a Bereavement Team member to pre-plan preferences and place them on record, which can be a great help for children or other family members when the time comes.

If you have any questions, call Sr. Maureen at 760-758-4100 x131.

Help Feed the Hungry

*Pope Francis reminds us:
 "You pray for the hungry.
 Then you feed them.
 That's how prayer works."*

We encourage every STM family to donate one nonperishable food item each weekend when they come to Mass.

Together we can help feed the hungry in our local community

STM Mental Health Ministry Network

STM is a member of the San Diego Mental Health Ministry Network (MHMN) and has made a commitment to become a faith community that both understands mental illness and can provide compassionate support. If you or a loved one is experiencing mental health challenges, or if you would like to find out how to become a member, please contact us at 760-758-4100 x104.

St. Bonaventure Indian Mission

Got kids who have graduated from college, so you have extra blankets? We sure could use them for our annual drive for the Navajo Indians. It gets awfully cold during the winter (below zero) and many of the hogans do not have utilities. We can also use clothing from infant to adult. Those served by the Mission are among this nation's poorest of the poor, and STM's annual collection is the only dedicated collection they have. Questions? Contact Deacon Tom at thomasgoeltz@aol.com or 760-727-8442.

Brother Benno's

September 17-18 we will be conducting our annual toiletry (and disposable diaper) drive. Why? The toiletries go for hygiene packets for the homeless, assistance to the poor, use of their rehab houses, and showers at the center. Diapers? Because they are very expensive and needed by the homeless and poor who have infants and toddlers. It is an item that is always in need. Questions? Contact Deacon Tom at thomasgoeltz@aol.com or 760-727-8442.

Bishops' Letter on Marriage—Pornography: "Pornography, particularly internet pornography, is a serious threat to marital chastity and is gravely immoral. The Internet has made pornography readily accessible within the privacy of one's home. Using pornography can quickly become an addiction that erodes trust and intimacy between husband and wife and, in some cases, leads to the breakup of the common life of the spouses." To read the document go to <http://www.usccb.org/loveandlife/>.

Marriage Moments—"I will follow you." (Luke 9:57) In couple dancing more often the man is the lead. Marriage, however, is more than a dance. It works best when both are adept at both leading and following as circumstances and talents dictate. How do you balance this in your marriage? By Susan Vogt, www.SusanVogt.net.

Parenting Pointers—Summer is vacation time and often that means travel. In addition to relatives, national parks, and monuments, consider visiting a holy place. Of course any place can be holy when looked at with eyes of faith, but also consider visiting a religious shrine or a different church. By Susan Vogt, www.SusanVogt.net.

A MODEL FOR THE CHURCH

by Patricia
Datchuck Sánchez
and Rafael
Sánchez Alonso,
from Celebration
July 2016, with permission.

In 1974, Avery Dulles, a convert to Catholicism and later a Jesuit priest, blessed the post-Vatican II church with his fine book Models of the Church (Doubleday, N.Y.). As Dulles described it, he was offering five theologically based approaches meant to help believers understand themselves as church and in their relationship to the world. Those first five models are Institution, Mystical Communion, Sacrament, Herald, and Servant. Later, Dulles suggested that all five models could be amalgamated into one supermodel, Community of Disciples.

Some 39 years later, another Jesuit, Pope Francis, suggested one more model whereby the church might realize its true purpose in the world. Francis was in an interview with Jesuit Fr. Anthony Spadaro. He asked Pope Francis, "What are your wishes for the Church of the coming years? What Church do you dream of?" (My Door Is Always Open, Bloomsbury, N.Y.: 2013). Pope Francis answered, "I see the Church as a field hospital after battle. ... What the Church needs most today is the ability to heal wounds and to warm the hearts of the faithful" (op. cit.). The pope also stressed the importance of mobility with regard to the church's efforts. "Instead of being just a Church that welcomes and receives by keeping the doors open, let us also be a Church that finds new roads, that is able to go outside itself. ... But that takes boldness and courage" (op. cit.).

Imagine that—a field hospital as a model for the church. Such medical units are meant to function in the midst of the fray of battle so that the wounded need not go far to find helpful and competent care. I am reminded of Doctors Without Borders and other such organizations that venture into some of the world's most dangerous trouble spots to offer their services. These give the church an example in courage and service, as do the sacred texts for this month, particularly the Gospels.

Jesus served as an itinerant minister, scripture themes for July bringing his message and his healing gifts to as many people and places as he could. He would have his disciples similarly give themselves over to others. On July 3, we will watch and listen as he sends forth the 72 to cure the sick and announce the imminence of the kingdom. Their lives, like his, were to be simple and unencumbered so they would be free to go where people needed them. Their joy and enthusiasm for the mission should inspire our eagerness to be the field hospital that brings healing and wholeness to others.

We see this model embodied in the person of the good and compassionate Samaritan (July 10) who washed, cleaned, and raised up the man who was beaten and robbed. Pope Francis called this "pure Gospel." He added, "the ministers of the Gospel must be those who can warm the hearts of the people, who walk through the dark night with them, who know how to dialogue and to descend themselves into their people's night, into the darkness, but without losing themselves."

In the remainder of the Gospels for July, would-be disciples are formed by Jesus so that they will know how not to lose themselves. Through the beautiful narrative of Martha and Mary, Jesus taught his disciples how to arrange their priorities and maintain a balance in their lives. All efforts at ministry must begin with sitting at the feet of Jesus and listening to him. This Mary did, much to Martha's consternation. But Jesus called Mary's choice "the better part" without which ministry can become tedious and overwhelming. It is not one or the other, prayer or service, but both in complementary balance.

On July 24, Jesus will teach his disciples to pray to one God as "Abba" and to open themselves to God and God's will. Jesus underscored the necessity of their constant trust in God, and urged them (and us) to pray for daily bread and ask God's forgiveness, all the

He resolutely determined to journey to Jerusalem.

Luke 9:51

while remembering that we owe that same blessing to one another. To illustrate the quality of their prayer, Jesus will offer a parable on persistence and follow that with the assurance that God—who knows our every need and desire—answers our prayers.

A final lesson this month (July 31) also comes in the form of a parable about greed and possessions. A rich man whose harvest was bountiful decided he would simply build bigger barns to ensure his wealth for years to come. That night he died, and since there are no pockets in a shroud, all was left behind. Instead of hoarding this world's wealth, he could have "stored up treasure in heaven" by using his considerable possessions to ease the plight of the hungry, the poor, the neglected, and the lost.

Next month, Jesus will continue the formation of his disciples. We, for our part, are to listen attentively and allow ourselves to be transformed by him into worthy models of the church.

This annual collection provides the Holy Father with the funds he needs to carry out his most important charitable works. The proceeds benefit the most disadvantaged: victims of war, oppression, and disasters. Your gift makes you a pilgrim of charity around the globe. Envelopes were attached to the bulletin recently and may be returned any time during the month of June. Please be generous. Thank you!

TOWERS OF FAITH

Future Support & Estate Planning Options

Towers of Faith is a movement that has arisen due to the visionary leadership and generosity of several of our Parishioners. We stress that this is not about the gift amount, but rather the love and thought behind the gift.

These individuals (several anonymous) have included STM in their estate planning. This helps to ensure their ongoing support and a legacy for our Parish. Towers of Faith is a valuable portion of our future support.

Examples of the various future planning vehicles are:

Designated Beneficiary Accounts,
Last Will and Testament, Living Trust, Life Insurance, Stocks and Bonds, Real Estate, and Endowments.

Parishioners who have already included STM in their estate plans are Towers of Faith participants. If you are interested, please contact us. Your participation is most welcome and appreciated!

Chris Smith at 760-758-4100 x120, or chriss@stmoside.org.

Servant Leadership:

Ascending from the Prevailing Culture

In his book on the gift of administration, Reverend Donald Senior, biblical scholar and former president of Catholic Theological Union, writes of the ways leadership emerged in the early Church. He writes:

The inspiration for all leadership in the New Testament is rooted in the example of Jesus. His qualities of compassion, integrity, and selfless service in the carrying out of his mission are reflected in the virtues lifted up in the examples of early community leaders such as Peter, Barnabas, Paul, and Priscilla and Aquila. The fundamental responsibility of New Testament leaders is to foster the common good of the community—and here, too, the example of Jesus is paramount. Jesus the healer and teacher was committed to the restoration and well-being of God's people. So, too, the charismatic leadership of Paul and the more administrative type of leadership exercised by Peter, Barnabas, Phoebe, and Priscilla and Aquila and many others were directed to building up the Body of Christ.

Fr. Senior goes on to summarize this form of leadership, modeled by Jesus himself, as “servant leadership.”¹

In contrast to the prevailing culture that emphasized “watch out for number one,” servant leaders “put others first”; where the prevailing institutional culture would strive for the “survival of the fittest,” servant leaders say, “We are all in this together.” Where the prevailing culture says, “Never trust anyone,” servant leaders “trust everyone unless, and until, they prove themselves untrustworthy.” Greenleaf also emphasized that the person who aspires to servant leadership must choose first to be a “servant” and then later to be a “leader.” In other words, the vocation to service, to reaching out to others in need rather than being absorbed by one's own needs and ambition, is the crucial starting point for this kind of leadership.

As stewardship leaders, not only are we called to servant leadership, it is also up to us to draw others into servant leadership with us—we cannot, nor should we, do this alone! There are many in our parish who lead through their coordination of ministries, participation in service and outreach, membership in ministerial committees and councils, and when we think about it, participation in the life of discipleship, at home, at work, and in the wider community of the world.

Thank you for your service in making this a better world!

—partially excerpted, ICSC Stewardship e-bulletins, May and June 2016, by Leisa Anslinger (with permission)

Daily Prayer For Priests

O Jesus,

I pray for your faithful and fervent priests;
For your unfaithful and tepid priests;
For your priests laboring at home or abroad in distant mission fields.

For your tempted priests;
For your lonely and desolate priests;
For your young priests;
For your dying priests;

For the souls of your priests in Purgatory.

But above all, I recommend to you
the priests dearest to me:

The priest who baptized me;

The priests who absolved me from my sins;

The priests at whose Masses I assisted and who gave me

Your Body and Blood in Holy Communion;

The priests who taught and instructed me;

All the priests to whom I am indebted in any other way (especially.....).

O Jesus, keep them all close to your heart,
And bless them abundantly in time and in Eternity.
Amen

By St. Therese of Lisieux

Pray for Priests and Vocations

"Now we ask you to respect those who work hard among you. ...Hold them in the highest regard in love
because of their work." (1 Thess. 5:12, 13, NIV)

Daily Prayer for Vocations

Jesus, Lord of the harvest, Look with love on this portion of your vineyard.

Bless the Diocese of San Diego with more priests to shepherd your people,

Priests with hearts like your own.

Mary, Mother of the Church, pray for us.
