Give Your Agenda to God

As we end 2016 and begin 2017, I share with you thoughts from Fr. Henri Nouwen. May his words be a source of strength and direction for you as we all move along the continuum of time and space!

You are very concerned with making the right choices about your work. You have so many options that you are constantly overwhelmed by the question, "What should I do and what should I not do?" You are asked to respond to many concrete needs. There are people to visit, people to receive, people simply to be with. There are issues that beg for attention, books it seems important to read, and works of art to be seen. But what of all this truly deserves your time?

Start by not allowing these people and issues to possess you. As long as you think that you need them to be yourself, you are not really free. Much of their urgency comes from your own need to be accepted and affirmed. You have to keep going back to the source: God's love for you.

In many ways, you still want to set your own agenda. You act as if you have to choose among many things, which all seem equally important. But you have not fully surrendered yourself to God's guidance. You keep fighting with God over who is in control.

Try to give your agenda to God. Keep saying, "Your will be done, not mine." Give every part of your heart and your time to God and let God tell you what to do, where to go, when and how to respond. God does not want you to destroy yourself.

Exhaustion, burnout, and depression are not signs that you are doing God's will. God is gentle and loving. God desires to give you a deep sense of safety in God's love. Once you have allowed yourself to experience that love fully, you will be better able to discern who you are being sent to in God's name.

It is not easy to give your agenda to God. But the more you do so, the more "clock time" becomes "God's time," and God's time is always the fullness of time.

—Rev. Henri J. M. Nouwen
The Inner Voice of Love:

A Journey Through Anguish to Freedom

Happy New Year! As we move into 2017, may our "clock time" become more and more "God's time." And, in that reality, we will find joy and peace because we are living in the fullness of time!

Thank You!

Thanks for all your prayers, Masses, cards, and support during my long journey of surgeries and recovery. There are no words to express how much I appreciate everything everyone has done!

The Sultan and The Saint

Movie screening, Saturday,
January 7, 7:00pm
Parish Center Upper Level
Refreshments at 6:30pm

With the rise of new forms of extremism across the Middle East and North Africa, Christians and Muslims around the world are facing a media narrative that pits both communities against one another.

St. Thomas More is excited to be partnering with the North County Islam Foundation to show a film that will serve as a counter-narrative to inspire Muslims, Christians, and others to take risks for peace and greater understanding.

In 1219, in the midst of the disastrous Fifth Crusade, Francis crossed enemy lines to gain an audience with al-Kamil, the Sultan of Egypt. Francis, who opposed the warfare, hoped to bring about peace by converting the Sultan to Christianity.

He didn't succeed, but came away from the peaceful encounter with revolutionary ideas that called for Christians to live harmoniously with Muslims. Thus began a relationship between the two that lasted the rest of their lives, each man risking his life to promote peace between their faiths.

This newly created documentary has been produced by Unity Productions Foundation and is narrated by Jeremy Irons.

For further information, please contact either Sr. Maureen Brown, our Pastoral Associate, at 760-758-4100 x131 or Regina Aulisio, our Ecumenical and Interreligious Affairs Parish Liaison, at 760-295-5530, or Issam Lagrichi, North County Islam Foundation, at 760-681-0755.

Christmas Angels

A very Merry Christmas was celebrated by the families and children from Solutions for Change, Catholic Charities, Camp Pendleton, and Fraternity/Michaëlle House thanks to all who donated items and gift cards to the Christmas Angel Ministry.

Please remember your Crown gifts for Birth Choice are due back the weekend of January 7-8 for the Feast of the Epiphany

If you have any further questions, please contact Lisa Seufert at 760-716-0977 or leprechaun81@sbcglobal.net.

Do YOU Recycle?

The youth of the Parish have started a recycling ministry to raise money for their activities. The California CRV program provides a wonderful opportunity for fundraising, as more than 60% of the money raised through the CRV program never gets redeemed. Be sure to deposit your eligible drink containers in the blue recycling bins on the plaza after Masses. There will also be an information table on the plaza explaining how the program works.

Help Feed the Hungry

Pope Francis reminds us: "You pray for the hungry. Then you feed them. That's how prayer works."

We encourage every STM family to donate one nonperishable food item each weekend when they come to Mass.

Together we can help feed the hungry in our local community.

Brother Bennos's | St. Bonaventure Mission

Thank you for your generous support over the past years...It means so much to so many in need. On their behalf, we wish you and yours a very merry and blessed Christmas and a wonderful New Year. —Deacon Tom Considering Becoming Catholic?

Has Pope Francis ignited a spark in you to know more about the Catholic faith and become a member of the Church he shepherds?

If you are already Catholic, perhaps you have a new enthusiasm for your faith that you would like to share with a friend or family member who is searching.

Our lives sometimes go through seasons of change, of closeness to God and distance from God. Yet the Father's love is steadfast, full of mercy, and ever-present to those who seek with a sincere heart, no matter what sins or situations have caused separation.

If you have thought about becoming Catholic and beginning a new "season" in your life, contact Kathleen Bell, 760-809-6526, 80bell80@gmail.com.

Bishops' Letter on Marriage—Imitating Christ: "Christian spouses are called to this imitation of Christ, an imitation that is possible only because, in the Sacrament of Matrimony, the couple receives a participation in his love. As a sacrament, marriage signifies and makes present in the couple Christ's total self-gift of love. Their mutual gift of self, conferred in their promises of fidelity and love to the end, becomes a participation in the love to the end by which Christ gave himself to the Church as to a Spouse (see Jn 13:1)." Marriage Moments— "In the beginning was the Word" (John 1:1). And the Word was made flesh. Words count. They structure our relationship with each other. They are a promise, a sign of love. What is the first (or best) word you will say to your beloved today? By Susan Vogt, www.SusanVogt.net.

Parenting Pointers— "Thus the total number of generations was..." (Mt 1:17). Christmas is here. How many generations of your family will be present during your holidays? Listen to each other's stories. Learn about the past and future. By Susan Vogt, www.SusanVogt.net.

JESUS, HIS ROLE, HIS MISSION, OUR OWN

scripture themes for January

With this new liturgical year barely underway, we cannot help but notice the speed with which it is unfolding. Having just celebrated the birth of Jesus with the implications of both his first appearance as well as his second and final appearance among us, we are now thrust into the period of his ministry and its repercussions for all of humankind. There is little if any information in the Gospels about the period of Jesus' infancy to his adulthood. While apocryphal stories about this period abound, the evangelists have chosen to relate only what they deemed to be the important aspects of Jesus' life, i.e., those that are necessary for believing.

In fact, scholars tell us that the Gospels were not written in the order we now read them. Rather, the Gospel proclamation originally began with the passion, death, and resurrection of Jesus. This is the essence of the faith that leads to salvation. Gradually and with the delay of the eschaton, the saving words and works which constituted Jesus' mission were added to the Gospels. Later, the infancy narratives of Matthew and Luke as well as the Johannine prologue were added, all of which reflected the church's deeper and fuller understanding of who Jesus was and is.

During this month, the evangelists tell of the Epiphany of Jesus and his anointing by God at his baptism. These and the remaining Gospels define the person and mission of Jesus as set against the backdrop of Israel's hopes and aspirations. By juxtaposing the Hebrew Scripture texts (mostly from Isaiah), the Lectionary assures us that the mission of Jesus represented the fulfillment of God's promise. At his epiphany and baptism, Jesus is portrayed as the one through whom all the peoples of the earth would know the saving power of God. He is shown to be God's promised Son and Servant, anointed and sent forth on a universal mission.

On January 10, Peter will give voice to the church's gradual but growing awareness that the impartiality of God has been revealed in the person and mission of Jesus: "I begin to see that God shows no partiality. Rather, in every nation whoever fears God and acts uprightly is acceptable to God" (Acts 10:34). Although Peter's insight would come and go and although it was a struggle for many to accept, the Holy Spirit did not cease in helping believers to surrender to the all-inclusive character of God's plan and the manner in which Jesus would implement that plan.

Jesus' missiology is further attested in the Gospels for January 17, 24, and 31. In the uniquely Johannine narrative of the wedding celebration at Cana, there is so much more to be understood than the celebration of the marriage of two people and their guests. At that feast, through his words and actions, the Johannine Jesus announced a new era in the history of salvation. The wedding venue signaled the dawn of that era in that the coming of the Messiah had long been associated with a wedding feast as well as with an abundance of fine, choice wine (Amos 9:13-14; Hosea 14:7; Jeremiah 31:12) such as Jesus had produced. In addition to this new era, the fact that the water which Jesus changed to wine was traditionally used for ritual purification also signaled a change in the way salvation should be perceived. No longer would external washing be the means, no matter how meticulous. Rather, it would be the new wine of Jesus' teaching (Mark 2:18-22) that would lead to salvation.

Moreover, rather than focus on salvation as the glorious defeat of one's enemies and a reestablishment of Israel as a military power, both the Hebrew and Christian Scriptures for this month describe Jesus' person and mission in terms of healing, forgiveness, grace, and redemption. God would not act among them as a ruthless warrior but as a bridegroom in love with a beloved bride (Jan. 17). God would also appoint not a warrior but a servant to bring goodness and grace to sinners (Jan. 10).

When Jesus appeared, ready to embrace the role of servant, he announced his purpose plainly and openly: "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor, to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free and proclaim a year acceptable to God" (Luke 4:18-19). There we have it from the outset—the person of Jesus identified and his intended mission made clear. During the rest of the year, the Gospels will expand upon these facts so that we might know and accept that our own identity and mission should be consonant with that of Jesus, as individuals and as church.

Our Legacy ~ A Way to Give ~ A Way to Receive

DESIGNATED BANK ACCOUNTS, WILLS, LIVING TRUSTS, STOCKS, LIFE INSURANCE, MUTUAL FUNDS, REAL ESTATE, ENDOWMENTS

Planned Giving is a generic term that covers the many ways an individual can give to a charity while, in many cases, avoiding taxes. A few examples of Planned Giving are: Wills, Living Trusts, Designated Beneficiary Accounts, Stocks, Life Insurance, Mutual Funds, Endowments, and Real Estate.

This program is one way of helping the Parish raise the resources necessary to continue our campus build out and also help plan for our future needs (i.e., Tower of Faith participants). Gifts of this nature are beneficial and much appreciated by St. Thomas More.

For more information please contact:

Chris Smith at 758-4100 x120 or chriss@stmoside.org.

A Christian Stewardship Prayer for the New Year ~ 2017

Good and gracious God,
a new year of grace is upon us,
giving us impressions of crisp beginnings new goals,
a fresh sense of hope.

Though we cling to our own expectations for the year ahead, we know you alone are the sovereign of our future,
Lord of our lives,
and the source of whatever good we may do.

We thank you, O Lord, for the gift of the days and weeks you have entrusted to us.

Teach us to be good stewards of our time ahead, that we go about our days keeping you at the center of our lives.

In the midst of our daily pursuits and activities,
focus our eyes on the needs of others;
help us respond with compassion to the poor;
and open our hearts to a suffering world.

We ask for a year of peace,
a year that brings an end to hatred and strife, and a year where we find a deeper joy that can only be found in you.

We ask this through Christ your Son who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, One God, forever and ever.

Amen.
